QUICK HITS

- 🏈 Carolina has won 12 of its last 17 true road games dating to 2014 - wins at Georgia Tech, Pittsburgh (twice), Virginia Tech, Florida State, NC State, Illinois, Miami, Virginia (twice), Duke and Old Dominion.
- 🏈 Carolina has 16 total kick and punt return touchdowns since the start of the Larry Fedora era in 2012. That total is tied for the lead among all FBS programs during that six-year time frame.
- 🏈 The Tar Heels were one of only five teams nationally to have multiple kick return touchdowns and over 1,000 kickoff return yards in 2017.
- 🏈 Carolina returns the vast majority of its offensive playmakers from 2017. UNC scored 41 TDs a year ago and 36 of those are back in 2018, including Michael Carter, who led the team with nine scores. PK Freeman Jones, who led the roster with 64 total points, is also back. In total, 90 percent of the team's total offense - 4,003 of 4,435 yards - returns in 2018.
- 🏈 UNC players had the longest kick return (Ratliff-Williams, 98 yards), fumble return (Cayson Collins, 66 yards) and interception return (Andre Smith, 73 yards) in the ACC in 2017.
- 🏈 Carolina runners were very secure with the ball in 2017. The Tar Heels lost just six fumbles in 12 games, tied for the fewest fumbles lost in school history with the 1996 squad.
- 🏈 UNC scored six rushing touchdowns against ODU in 2017, matching the most rushing scores for the Tar Heels under Fedora. Sophomore TB Jordan Brown had a career-high 123 rushing yards and two TDs to lead the attack against the Monarchs.
- 🏈 Fedora guided the Tar Heels to 40 wins in his first five seasons at the helm. Only Dick Crum won more games (42) in his first five seasons in Chapel Hill since the ACC began in 1953.
- 🏈 Fedora sports a 26-14 mark at Kenan Stadium during his career in Chapel Hill. His 25 home wins in his first five seasons were the most by any UNC coach in his first five seasons.
- 🏈 Fedora-coached teams have been responsible for five of the top 10 offensive seasons in UNC history.
- 🏈 Carolina has established more than 100 school single-season and career offensive records since 2012. In 2016, the Tar Heels established 36 individual records and six team records.
- 🏈 Former UNC standout wide receiver Mack Hollins was part of the Philadelphia Eagles' Super Bowl LII-winning team last season. Hollins became the 22nd different Tar Heel to win a Super Bowl, and those 22 winners have combined for a total of 29 rings won.

2018 POSITION-BY-POSITION BREAKDOWN

Quarterbacks

No.	Name	Pos.	Ht.	Wt.	Yr.
15	Jack Davidson	QB	6-3	210	Fr.*
11	Nathan Elliott	QB	6-1	215	Jr.
6	Cade Fortin	QB	6-3	210	Fr.
16	Manny Miles	QB	6-0	210	Jr.
10	Jace Ruder	QB	6-2	220	Fr.
12	Chazz Surratt	QB	6-3	215	So.

Notes

- North Carolina returns its top two signal callers from 2017 in junior Nathan Elliott and sophomore Chazz Surratt. Both players had flashes of outstanding play in the first extended reps of their respective careers, with Surratt establishing several freshman QB records and Elliott leading the Tar Heels to two wins over the final three weeks of the season.
- Despite playing in just five games, Elliott led UNC with 10 passing TDs in 2017. In the four games in which he saw extended time, Elliott averaged well over 200 passing yards per contest.
- Surratt proved to be a weapon on the ground in his nine games, rushing for 210 yards and five touchdowns. He also had a pair of 50+ yard scoring runs against Duke and Western Carolina.
- must replace Mitch Trubisky, who was selected with the No. 2 overall pick in the 2017 NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears. Trubisky set single-season school records for total offense, passing yards and passing touchdowns before foregoing his final year of eligibility and entering the draft.
- A pair of true freshmen - Cade Fortin and Jace Ruder - enrolled at UNC in January and went through spring practice. Redshirt freshman Jack Davidson and starting holder Manny Miles give Carolina six men in the QB room for 2018.

Running Backs

No.	Name	Pos.	Ht.	Wt.	Yr.
31	Antwuan Branch	TB	6-0	230	Fr.*
34	British Brooks	TB	5-10	200	Fr.
2	Jordon Brown	TB	5-11	200	Jr.
8	Michael Carter	TB	5-9	195	So.
3	Devon Lawrence	TB	5-11	190	Fr.
27	Chavis Little	TB	5-10	180	Fr.*
32	Jacob Schmidt	TB	5-10	190	Jr.
20	Johnathon Sutton	TB	6-0	230	Jr.
24	Antonio Williams	TB	5-11	210	Jr.
25	Javonte Williams	TB	5-11	205	Fr.

Notes

- Despite being one its most inexperienced position groups in 2017, the running backs were very productive for Carolina last season.
- Junior Jordon Brown was the only player on the roster with college reps, and he led the Tar Heels with 613 rushing yards on the year.
- Sophomore Michael Carter exploded on the scene as a true freshman, rushing for 558 yards and a team-high eight touchdowns.
- Junior Johnathon Sutton came to Carolina as a linebacker, but moved to running back prior to last season and provided some solid short-yardage depth.
- Antwuan Branch redshirted in 2017 and is joined by a pair of scholarship freshmen from the Tar Heel state in Devon Lawrence (Wake Forest) and Javonte Williams (Wallace-Rose Hill).
- Another NC product, junior Antonio Williams (North Stanly), transferred into the program this summer from Ohio State.

23	Mason Laurence	WR	5-10	175	Fr.*
19	Dazz Newsome	WR	5-11	185	So.
83	Jalen Nixon	WR	6-2	200	Fr.
17	Anthony Ratliff-Williams	WR	6-1	205	Jr.

Notes

- Over the last three seasons, Carolina has produced some of the best receivers in school history. In 2015, Quinshad Davis finished as the team's career leader in receptions, a mark that stood just one season before Ryan Switzer supplanted him. Switzer, along with Mack Hollins, Bug Howard and Austin Proehl, have all graduated and are now pursuing NFL careers.
- With the position hit hard by graduation and injuries, Anthony Ratliff-Williams stepped up to become Carolina's MVP in 2017. The redshirt sophomore who started his career as a quarterback, proved to be one of the most talented all-around receivers in the league, earning All-ACC honors as both a specialist and as an all-purpose back. Ratliff-Williams was responsible for 10 total touchdowns (six receiving, two passing, two KOR) and led UNC in receptions (35) and receiving yards (630).
- Senior Thomas Jackson, son of former letterwinner David Jackson (1968-69), returns after missing most of 2017 due to injury. In 2016, Jackson was targeted 18 times and made 17 catches, 11 for first downs and four touchdowns.
- Sophomore Beau Corrales showed glimpses of his vast potential as a true freshman, finishing with nine catches for 143 yards and three scores.

OT Charlie Heck

OT William Sweet

- Speedy Dazz Newsome moved from DB to wide receiver prior to 2017 and demonstrated that he can be a valuable weapon in the future. He caught 18 passes for 227 yards and rushed eight times for 52 yards.
- Carolina has a vast reserve of young receivers who are waiting to make their mark on the team. Sophomores Rontavius Groves and Roscoe Johnson were joined by a pair of scholarship true freshmen in Dyami Brown and Antoine Green. Brown enrolled at UNC in January and went through spring practice.

Offensive Lineman

No.	Name	Pos.	Ht.	Wt.	Yr.

56	Billy Ross	OL	6-5	325	Fr.*
51	William Sweet	OT	6-7	300	Jr.
70	Jonathan Trull	OG	6-4	310	Sr.
74	Jordan Tucker	OL	6-7	340	Fr.*
72	Mason Veal	OG	6-6	315	Jr.

Notes

- Carolina must replace four starters from last year's roster, including standout left tackle Bentley Spain.
- Juniors Charlie Heck and William Sweet look set to man the tackle positions. Heck started at right guard for most of the season after Sweet was lost for the year due to injury.
- Sophomore Jay-Jay McCargo got valuable reps at center in 2017 and is poised to step in as the starter following the departure of graduate transfer Cam Dillard.
- Juniors Nick Polino and Mason Veal have the most returning experience at guard, but a number of redshirt and true freshmen are there to push for playing time.
- Four scholarship freshmen joined the program in the offseason - William Barnes, Joshua Ezeudu, Avery Jones and Ed Montilus. Barnes, a 4-star prospect out of Florida, and Montilus were high school teammates.

Tight Ends

No.	Name	Pos.	Ht.	Wt.	Yr.
80	Jake Bargas	TE	6-4	245	Jr.
82	Brandon Fritts	TE	6-4	240	Sr.

87	Noah Turner	TE	6-3	250	So.
84	Garrett Walston	TE	6-4	240	So.
89	Jared Worley	TE	6-3	230	Jr.

Notes

- Brandon Fritts and Carl Tucker return to a veteran unit that features six players in at least their third year in the program.
- Fritts and Tucker have both battled injuries in their careers, but have shown the ability to stretch the field as well as pass protect. Fritts caught 25 balls for 177 yards and four touchdowns in 2017.
- Jake Bargas got his most extensive playing time as a Tar Heel in 2017, finishing with eight catches for 72 yards.

Defensive Linemen

No.	Name	Pos.	Ht.	Wt.	Yr.

52	Jahlil Taylor	DT	6-1	310	Fr.
58	Lancine Turay	DE	6-5	235	Fr.

Notes

- Seven of Carolina's top defensive linemen return in 2018, with only Da-jaun Drennon departing due to graduation.
- DE Malik Carney picked up where he left off in 2016, leading the team in

DT Aaron Crawford

DE Tomon Fox

DE Malik Carney

LB Jonathan Smith

LB Cole Holcomb

sacks (5.5) and tackles for loss (12.0), while also ranking fourth on the team in total tackles (57).

- DT Aaron Crawford (3.0 sacks) established himself as a leader on the interior and will anchor a solid group of tackles that returns Jeremiah Clarke (4.5 TFLs), Jalen Dalton (3.0 sacks, 8.0 TFLs) and Jason Strowbridge (5.5 TFLs).
- DE Tomon Fox excelled in his first full season, ranking second on the team in sacks (4.0) and quarterback hurries (8). Fellow end Allen Cater had his best season as a Tar Heel and will continue to push for more playing time as a junior.
- Senior Tyler Powell can play inside or outside and returns in 2018 following a season-ending injury.
- Redshirt freshmen Xach Gill and Jake Lawler were joined in the offseason by a quartet of scholarship true freshmen in Chris Collins, Gavin Lewis, Jahlil Taylor and Lancine Turay.

Linebackers

No.	Name	Pos.	Ht.	Wt.	Yr.
4	Allen Artis	LB	6-1	220	Gr.
47	Sam Blobe	LB	6-2	235	Jr.
57	Austin Dowler	LB	6-0	225	Fr.*
30	Matthew Flint	LB	6-1	235	Fr.
44	Jeremiah Gemmel	LB	6-1	220	Fr.*
40	Dilan Gonzalez	LB	6-1	215	Fr.
36	Cole Holcomb	LB	6-1	235	Sr.
26	Kayne Roberts	LB	6-3	215	Fr.*
24	Malik Robinson	LB	6-0	215	So.
3	Dominique Ross	LB	6-3	220	Jr.
7	Jonathan Smith	LB	6-1	230	Jr.

Notes

- Linebacker was the position hit hardest by offseason departures. Starters Cayson Collins and Andre Smith are gone, with only senior Cole Holcomb returning among the team's leading tacklers. Holcomb led the team in tackles for a second straight year in 2017, finishing with 93.
- A former walk-on from New Smyrna Beach, Fla., Holcomb has great speed and is, pound-for-pound, the strongest player on the team, according to UNC's Power Index formula.
- Junior Jonathan Smith (40 tackles, 4.0 TFLs) returns the most experience at the position behind Holcomb, with graduate student Allen Artis and junior Dominique Ross also having played more down the stretch in 2017 due to injuries to Collins, Holcomb and Smith.

- Sophomore Malik Robinson saw plenty of action on special teams and will push for more time at linebacker along with redshirt freshmen Jeremiah Gemmel and Kayne Roberts.
- True freshmen Matthew Flint and Kyle Wright both enrolled in January to get a head start on competing for playing time in 2018.

Notes

- This losses of senior captains Donnie Miles and M.J. Stewart are big for the defensive backfield, but Carolina returns a wealth of experience in 2018.
- Junior Myles Dorn has established himself as a starter and one of the hardest hitters on the team. He ranked third on the team in tackles in his first season in the starting lineup and also tied for the team lead with two interceptions. Dorn is the son of Torin Dorn who played running back and defensive back at UNC from 1986-89.
- Senior J.K. Britt moved into the other starting safety role after Miles was lost for the year with a broken arm. Britt took the opportunity and ran with it, finishing with 53 tackles (fifth on the team) despite limited action in the first half of 2017.

- Junior K.J. Sails had a breakout season opposite Stewart at corner, finishing with a team-best 13 pass breakups in his first season as a starter. Senior Corey Bell Jr. and junior Patrice Rene will be among those competing to replace Stewart.
- Sophomore Myles Wolfolk missed the preseason due to injury but made a splash upon his return, picking off a pass in his first collegiate series. He tied Dorn for the team lead with two interceptions and will see plenty of the field in 2018.
- True freshmen DeAndre Hollins, Trey Morrison and Javon Terry were all highly recruited and will provide solid depth for the Tar Heels.

- Punter Tom Sheldon is the lone departure from a veteran special teams group that has been a standout group through Fedora's tenure.
- Senior Hunter Lent has plenty of experience at punter, averaging nearly 45 yards per kick on 25 punts last season in place of an injured Sheldon.
- Senior Freeman Jones is back for a second year as the starting place-kicker. Jones led the Tar Heels in scoring and made 9 of 14 field goals and 37 of 38 extra point attempts in 2017.
- Deep snappers Kyle Murphy (place kicks) and Tommy Bancroft (punts) are also back as reliable performers on special teams. Holder Manny Miles also returns after handling the duties full-time last season.

LARRY FEDORA

HEAD COACH
SEVENTH YEAR AT UNC

- 2015 Bear Bryant National Coach of the Year Finalist
- 2015 FCA National Coach of the Year

North Carolina head coach Larry Fedora, who is entering his seventh season at UNC, has built a program in Chapel Hill that provides his student-athletes the chance to excel on the gridiron, in the classroom and in the community. Over the last six seasons, the Tar Heels have set records in bunches, electrified fans with their special teams play, produced numerous professional prospects and finished first in the Coastal Division on two occasions.

Fedora, who already ranks fifth all-time at UNC with 43 victories, signed a new contract extension in May 2017 to keep him in Chapel Hill through the 2022 season.

"I enjoy coaching at the University of North Carolina and I appreciate the trust Chancellor Folt and Bubba Cunningham have shown in the leadership of our program," Fedora said. "Our staff and players have worked diligently over the last five years to build a program that encompasses all aspects of the student-athlete experience, while simultaneously achieving success on the field."

Carolina has won 22 games in the last three years, including 19 over a two-year span in 2015 and '16. The 19 wins were the most in back-to-back seasons at UNC since the Tar Heels won 21 in 1996 (10) and 1997 (11).

One of the first coaches in the country to implement the spread offense, a style now employed in a majority of major programs, Fedora was quick to brand his style of play as "smart, fast and physical." That style has paid dividends for UNC, which has averaged more than 425 yards of total offense per game under his watch and averaged more than 30 points. Fedora has coached the two most prolific offenses in UNC history. The 2015 team set school marks for most points (570), points per game (40.7) and touchdowns (73). The previous highs of 487 points and 62 touchdowns were set in 2012, Fedora's first season in Chapel Hill.

In 127 seasons of college football, Carolina has averaged 400 yards per game just 12 times. Five of those have come under Fedora's direction and that five-year stretch from 2012-16 marked the first time Carolina has averaged more than 400 yards per game in five straight years.

AT CAROLINA

Fedora's first season in 2012 was highlighted by a 6-1 mark at home, including a thrilling 43-35 victory over NC State and a 48-34 win against Virginia Tech. Giovani Bernard's 74-yard punt return in the final seconds of the NC State game ended Carolina's five-game losing skid to its nearby rival and set off a wild celebration on the UNC sidelines. The Virginia Tech game saw Carolina rush for 339 yards, its most since 2004, as the Tar Heels posted 533 yards of total offense. It was also the most points the Hokies had allowed in a game since joining the ACC. Carolina also posted home victories over Elon, East Carolina, Idaho and Maryland, and picked up road wins at Miami and Virginia. It marked the first time a UNC coach had won at Virginia in his first attempt since Dick Crum in 1979.

Statistically, Carolina finished eighth in the country in scoring in 2012, averaging a school-record 40.6 points per game. The Tar Heels scored 30 or more points in nine of 12 games, and twice posted more than 60 points, including a school-record 66 against Idaho. Carolina was 14th in the nation in total offense, averaging a school-record 485.6 yards per game.

The Tar Heels also excelled on special teams, finishing 10th in net punting and 10th in punt return average. Bernard was second nationally in punt returns and fourth as an all-purpose runner.

In his second season, the Tar Heels stumbled to a 1-5 start, but won six of their last seven games, and captured the 2013 Belk Bowl with a 39-17 thumping of Cincinnati. The win ensured Fedora of his sixth-straight winning season as a head coach.

Carolina's offense set several more school records in 2013, including most points in a game (80), most plays in a season (943) and most passing yards in a season (3,606). It was the sixth consecutive year as a head coach that Fedora's offense has gained more than 5,000 total yards.

Fedora takes pride in having outstanding special teams play and 2013 may have been his best yet. Punt returner Ryan Switzer tied the NCAA single-season record with five punt returns for touchdowns en route to first-team All-America honors as a true freshman. It was the first time a true freshman at Carolina had ever been named first-team All-America. Meanwhile kick returner T.J. Logan returned two kickoffs for touchdowns. Throw in an interception return for touchdown by safety Dominique Green and the Tar Heels set a school record for most non-offensive touchdowns with eight. Not surprisingly, the Tar Heels led the nation in punt returns and also finished 10th in the country in net punting.

The 2013 season culminated in a decisive 39-17 victory over Cincinnati in the Belk Bowl, the Tar Heels' first win in the Charlotte bowl game in four chances. It was Carolina's first bowl win since 2010.

In 2014, Carolina again had one of the top offensive units in the ACC, ranking third in scoring and fifth in total offense. The Tar Heels won four of their last six regular-season games to earn a second straight bowl bid. The season was highlighted by a 45-20 win at No. 25 Duke, which was televised nationally by ESPN on Thursday night.

Carolina had its best season in nearly two decades in 2015 as Fedora guided the Tar Heels to an 11-1 regular season and the school's first appearance the ACC Championship Game. Carolina won a school-record 11 consecutive games during the season, went 8-0 at home and swept its in-state opponents. It was another record-setting season as UNC posted more than 60 team and individual marks led by senior signal caller Marquise Williams. Williams was one of 17 Tar Heels to earn All-ACC honors as Carolina led the nation in yards per play and was among the top three in the league in scoring offense (1st), rushing offense (2nd), passing offense (3rd) and total offense (2nd). UNC also had the most improved defense in the country, allowing 14.5 fewer points per game than the previous year.

Fedora was named the 2015 Fellowship of Christian Athletes Coach of the Year and was a finalist for the Bear Bryant National Coach of the Year Award.

In 2016, the Tar Heels won eight games, highlighted by back-to-back comeback wins over Pittsburgh and at Florida State. Carolina scored on its last offensive play to beat the Panthers, 37-36, and a week later won in Tallahassee on a 54-yard field goal as time expired. Quarterback Mitch Trubisky, in his only year as the starter, set multiple school records and led the team to a fourth consecutive bowl game.

COACHING THE BEST

Trubisky, who set single-season marks for passing yards and touchdowns, had arguably the greatest passing season in UNC history in 2016. Following the season, the elected to forego his final year of eligibility and enter the NFL Draft. He became the first quarterback in school history selected in the first round when the Chicago Bears made him the No. 2 overall pick.

Trubisky was the fourth first-rounder Fedora has coached in Chapel Hill. In 2014, tight end Eric Ebron was picked 10th overall by Detroit, and in 2013, offensive guard Jonathan Cooper and defensive tackle Sylvester Williams were taken in the first round by Arizona (No. 7) and Denver (No. 28), respectively. It was just the second time Carolina had produced multiple first-round picks in the same season.

Led by Trubisky and third round defensive tackle Nazair Jones, Carolina had six players selected in the 2017 NFL Draft, which ranked second in the ACC and eighth in the country. In total, 10 players were either drafted or signed a free agent contract with an NFL team. Wide receivers Ryan Switzer and Mack Hollins, a former walk-on, were fourth-round selections. Under Fedora's direction, Switzer set the ACC record-holder in punt return touchdowns and became only the eighth player in UNC history to earn All-America honors on two occasions. Carolina players added to the NFL tally in 2018, when M.J. Stewart (second round), Andre Smith (seventh) and Austin Proehl were selected.

In six seasons at UNC, four tailbacks have been drafted or signed by an NFL team, including most recently T.J. Logan (fifth round to Arizona) and Elijah Hood (seventh round to Oakland) in 2017.

An All-America in 2013 after setting ACC records for most receptions and receiving yards by a tight end (single-season and career), Ebron flourished in Fedora's fast-paced offense. He was one of five Tar Heels selected in the 2014 NFL Draft, which ranked second in the ACC and seventh in the country.

Cooper was a consensus first-team All-America and became the first Outland Trophy finalist in UNC history. Williams was a stout run-stopper who earned first-team All-ACC honors and played in the Super Bowl in two of his first three years in the NFL, capturing the coveted trophy in 2015.

Bernard, a fleet-footed runner from Ft. Lauderdale, led the league in rushing in 2012, earned first-team All-ACC honors at both running back and specialist and was the first tailback selected in the NFL Draft when Cincinnati took him in the second round. Nine Tar Heels from the 2012 squad signed professional contracts, including five draft picks and four free agent signings. All three senior offensive linemen were drafted, including Cooper in the first round, Brennan Williams in the third and Travis Bond in the seventh.

BUILT A PROGRAM AT SOUTHERN MISS

The 35th head coach in Carolina history and the 11th since the ACC was formed in 1953, Fedora came to Carolina after four seasons as head coach at Southern Miss where he compiled a 34-19 overall record, including a 12-2 mark in 2012, and advanced to four consecutive bowl games. USM knocked off previously unbeaten and No. 6 Houston, 49-28, in the CUSA title game and then won its school-record 12th game of the year over Nevada in the Hawaii Bowl. The Golden Eagles reached double digits in wins for just the third time in school history and the first time since 1952. USM finished the season ranked No. 19 in the USA Today Coaches Top 25 poll, No. 20 in the Associated Press poll and No. 21 in the BCS standings.

Fedora's 2011 team was among the best in the country on both sides of the ball. Southern Miss was 17th in the nation in total offense, averaging 461.4 yards per game, and 14th in scoring offense with 36.9 points per contest. On defense, the Golden Eagles were seventh in pass efficiency defense, 26th in scoring defense and 29th in total defense.

Southern Miss developed into an explosive offensive program during Fedora's tenure, gaining more than 5,000 total yards of offense in each of his four seasons, including a school-record 6,459 yards in 2011. In three of his four years in Hattiesburg, the Golden Eagles established a school record for total offense. In addition, USM was one of only five schools to run more than 1,000 plays in 2010-11.

En route to an 8-win season in 2010, USM established 35 school records and finished 18th in the country in total offense – the highest finish for the Golden Eagles since becoming a member of the FBS. Fedora's Southern Miss offenses were 31st in the nation in 2009 and 20th in 2008.

While admired for his offensive style, Fedora also believes in an attacking defensive philosophy. The Golden Eagles forced turnovers in 46 games during the Fedora era and two or more in 36 contests. That turnover margin helped the Golden Eagles rank 10th in turnover margin nationally for the second consecutive year in 2009 and 20th in 2010. In 2011, Fedora's defense set an FBS record with eight interceptions returned for touchdown.

Off the field, Fedora's teams have succeeded in the classroom. Southern Miss's graduation success rate (GSR) ranked second in CUSA in the 2009-10 academic year and third during the 2010-11 academic year. In 2009, USM was recognized by the AFCA for its graduation success rate.

LEARNING AS AN ASSISTANT

The Southern Miss job was Fedora's first head coaching assignment after excelling in the collegiate ranks as an assistant. He spent three seasons as the offensive coordinator at Oklahoma State from 2005-07 where the Cowboys raised their rushing, passing and total offensive yards each year with Fedora at the helm. In 2006, the Cowboys were one of just two teams - the other being Boise State - to average over 200 yards both rushing and passing.

The OSU offense averaged over 30 points per contest over his final two seasons as well. The Cowboys made the biggest improvement in the country in scoring following his second season of running the offense, jumping from 96th nationally in 2005 to seventh in 2006.

The Fedora Family: Dillon, Christi, Peyton, Hallie, Larry & Sydney

Prior to his stint at Oklahoma State, Fedora spent three seasons at Florida as run game coordinator (2002), perimeter game coordinator (2003) and offensive coordinator (2004). He also coached the running backs and receivers all three seasons.

In 2004, Fedora's Gators ranked first in the SEC in six different categories including passing offense (271.1), total offense (426.9), third down conversion percentage (47.8), touchdown passes (29), pass attempts (407) and pass completions (243).

Before going to Florida, Fedora was the offensive coordinator at Middle Tennessee from 1999-2001. In three seasons at MTSU, Fedora's offense averaged 424 yards of total offense, 181 rushing yards and 31 points per game. With Fedora as their offensive coordinator, the Blue Raiders set 43 school records over three seasons.

Fedora began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Austin College in 1986. He then served as an assistant coach at Garland (Texas) High School from 1987-90. Fedora returned to the collegiate ranks in 1991, serving as the tight ends, wide receivers and running backs coach at Baylor, where he stayed until 1996. He then spent two seasons (1997-98) at Air Force coaching the passing game and wide receivers.

PLAYING CAREER

As a player, Fedora was a wide receiver at Austin College from 1981-84. He played on the 1981 Kangaroo squad that won the NAIA championship. He earned academic All-America honors in 1983, and was honorable mention All-America in both 1983 and 1984.

FAMILY

Born Sept. 10, 1962, in College Station, Texas, Fedora is a 1985 graduate of Austin College in Sherman, Texas, where he also received his master's degree in 1986. He is married to the former Christi Wood, and the couple has one son, Dillon, and three daughters, Sydney, Peyton and Hallie.

DEKE ADAMS

DEFENSIVE LINE COACH
THIRD YEAR AT UNC

Deke Adams, who was a member of Larry Fedora's initial coaching staff at North Carolina, returned to Chapel Hill as the Tar Heels' defensive line coach in 2017. Adams coached the UNC defensive line in 2012 and also spent three years with Fedora at Southern Miss from 2009-11.

Adams has been instrumental in developing a young Carolina defensive line into a strength of the defense, with seven of UNC's top eight linemen returning in 2018.

Adams, who has played a key role in the development of six National Football League draft picks since 2013, including two first-round selections, spent the 2016 season as East Carolina's defensive line coach. Prior to ECU, he worked under Steve Spurrier for three years at South Carolina and helped lead the Gamecocks to a pair of bowl wins in 2013 and 2014.

Following his appointment as the Gamecocks' defensive line coach in 2013, tackle Kelcy Quarles and end Jadeveon Clowney each earned first-team All-America honors under Adams' tutelage. In addition, both players garnered first-team All-Southeastern Conference selection by the Associated Press and the league's 14 coaches. Quarles led the team with 13.5 tackles for loss, including 9.5 sacks, while Clowney was the first overall pick by the Houston Texans in the 2014 NFL Draft.

One of Adams' top 2015 performers, tackle Gerald Dixon Jr., accepted an invitation to participate in the East-West Shrine Game after completing an 84-tackle career.

During his initial stint in Chapel Hill, Adams had the opportunity to coach All-America tackle Sylvester Williams, a first-round selection in the 2013 NFL Draft by the Denver Broncos. The Tar Heels went 8-4 that season and tied for first in the ACC Coastal Division.

In his final year in Hattiesburg, Adams, a former Southern Miss letterman, provided leadership for a front four that allowed just 112.6 rushing yards per game in 2011, which ranked 22nd nationally. He helped the Golden Eagles to the Conference USA title and an eventual 12-win season after a Hawai'i Bowl win over Nevada.

Among the players he mentored at USM were first-team All-Conference USA end Cordarro Law and 2013 second-round NFL Draft pick Jamie Collins.

In his initial campaign at Southern Miss in 2009, Adams inherited a young, but talented unit that progressively improved as the season continued. The Golden Eagle defense finished the year No. 18 nationally in sacks and No. 24 in tackles for loss after standing 93rd and 68th, respectively, in those two defensive categories a season earlier.

Adams went to Southern Miss after spending the previous year as linebackers coach and coordinator of player development at Louisiana-Monroe. Prior to his stint at ULM, he worked for two seasons at North Carolina A&T.

During his first season in Greensboro, Adams was elevated to interim defensive coordinator status after two games before earning the job on a permanent basis following the final contest. He coached the Aggies' defensive line in 2006 and had responsibility for the linebackers in 2007 in addition to his coordinator duties.

Adams spent the previous four years at Ouachita Baptist (Ark.) University, coordinating the defense and coaching the defensive line in his last season (2005).

He began his career in 1997 as the defensive line coach at Jacksonville (Ala.) State before moving on to Pearl River (Miss.) Community College, where he first served as the linebackers coach and later was named co-defensive coordinator and secondary coach. In 2001, he became the defensive coordinator and continued his duties as recruiting coordinator.

A three-year letterman, Adams was a pivotal part of the Golden Eagles' "Nasty Bunch" defense.

In the classroom, Adams was a four-year member of the Southern Miss Dean's List during his time as a student-athlete. He earned his bachelor's degree in psychology and sports administration in 1995 before following with a master's degree, also from USM, in 1996.

He is married to the former Alexis Hall, a member of the 1,000-point club and four-year letterwinner for the Southern Miss women's basketball team. The couple has two boys, Jaylen and Jordyn.

HENRY BAKER

CORNERBACKS COACH
FIRST YEAR AT UNC

Baker, who was a four-year letterwinner at Maryland, comes to Carolina after serving as cornerbacks coach at Rutgers during the 2017 season.

"We are excited to bring Henry to Chapel Hill to join our staff," head coach Larry Fedora said. "He adds a unique perspective having both coached and played in the ACC, and I know he will bring great energy to our staff as a coach and as a recruiter. We welcome Henry, Theresa and their three children into the Tar Heel family."

"I've played against UNC and I've coached against UNC, and the atmosphere here has always been electric," Baker said. "To now be in Carolina Blue, this is truly an exciting time for me and my family. I can't wait to get started."

A native of Paterson, New Jersey, Baker spent six seasons as the cornerbacks coach at Delaware prior to his stint at Rutgers. The Blue Hens were fifth nationally in total defense during the 2015 season and ranked in the top 25 at the FCS level in both passing yards allowed and interceptions in 2016.

Baker was a two-year starter at defensive back at Maryland, where he earned his bachelor's degree in sociology in 2003. He began his coaching career as a recruiting intern at his alma mater in 2001 before spending four seasons as a high school assistant at South Miami (Fla.) and Eastside (N.J.). Baker then returned to College Park for two seasons as a defensive and special teams assistant under Ralph Friedgen. The Terrapins went 8-5 in 2008 and won the Humanitarian Bowl during that stretch.

Baker spent the 2010 season at East Stroudsburg University, serving as the defensive backs coach, before joining the staff at Delaware. He has also coached in the professional ranks, spending time with several Arena Football League franchises, including the Carolina Cobras. Baker served in the Bill Walsh NFL Minority Coaching Fellowship with the Detroit Lions during the 2015 preseason camp and in 2016 with the New York Giants.

Baker and his wife, Theresa, have a son, Khari, and two daughters, Kaila and Khloe.

MIKE EKELER

LINEBACKERS COACH
SECOND YEAR AT UNC

Mike Ekeler, who has coached at six Power 5 programs and most recently worked at North Texas, joined the UNC staff in 2017 as the linebackers coach.

In his first season in Chapel Hill, Ekeler tutored a veteran group that featured Cayson Collins, Cole Holcomb and Andre Smith. Collins, who was second on the team with 83 tackles, signed a free agent contract with the Miami Dolphins, while Smith was a seventh-round selection by the Carolina Panthers. Holcomb, who led the team in tackles for the second straight year, returns for his senior season in 2018.

Ekeler was North Texas' defensive coordinator and linebackers coach in 2016, working for head coach Seth Littrell, a former UNC assistant. Ekeler also has ties to the current UNC staff having worked with current defensive coordinator John Papuchis at LSU and Nebraska. Ekeler, Papuchis and defensive backs coach Terry Joseph were all graduate assistants at LSU under Les Miles in 2006.

In his first season at North Texas, Ekeler oversaw a defense that held opponents to 8.7 points per game fewer than the previous year. That turnaround in scoring defense was the 13th-best mark in the country. He also oversaw a linebacking corps that included the team's sack leader Joshua Wheeler (5.5).

Prior to joining the Mean Green, he spent two seasons as inside linebackers coach at Georgia and has also worked at USC, Indiana, Nebraska, LSU and Oklahoma.

In two seasons at UGA, Ekeler coached some of the best defenses in the country. In 2015, Georgia's defense ranked seventh in the nation in total defense, allowing only 305.8 yards per game. In 2014, the Bulldogs ranked 17th in the country in total defense and were second in the SEC in passing defense efficiency. He coached three NFL draft picks in 2014, Leonard Floyd (first round), Ramik Wilson (fourth round) and Amarlo Herrera (sixth round). Ekeler also coordinated the defensive special teams at Georgia and the punt return team had six touchdown returns in two seasons.

At USC in 2013, Ekeler coached Hayes Pullard who was named to the All-Pac 12 second team. That year Pullard had 60 tackles, 13.5 tackles for loss, nine sacks and was drafted in the sixth round. While at Indiana, Ekeler served as the linebackers coach and co-defensive coordinator from 2011-12.

A native of David City, Nebraska, he spent three seasons as Nebraska's linebackers coach (2008-10) under head coach Bo Pelini. During his three years in Lincoln, the Cornhuskers won or shared the Big 12 Conference North Division title all three seasons.

As Nebraska's linebackers coach, he was involved with some of the nation's most successful defenses. In 2010, Nebraska was third nationally in pass efficiency defense, fifth in pass defense, ninth in scoring defense and 11th in total defense. In 2009, the Cornhuskers led the country in scoring defense and pass efficiency defense, and were seventh in total defense and ninth in rushing defense. He coached NFL draft picks Lavonte David, a 2010 and 2011 All-American first teamer when he set the school season tackles record, Phillip Dillard, Cody Glenn, Eric Martin and Will Compton. David is an All-Pro linebacker for Tampa Bay and Compton is Washington's defensive captain.

Ekeler worked as a graduate assistant at LSU (2005-07) and Oklahoma (2003-04). Oklahoma played for the BCS title in both of Ekeler's seasons in Norman, posting a two-year record of 24-3. While at LSU, the Tigers led the SEC in six defensive categories and ranked nationally in four in 2006. The 2007 LSU team finished 12-2 and won the BCS National Championship marking the third time in five years that Ekeler had been part of a team playing for the BCS title.

Ekeler played linebacker for Bill Snyder at Kansas State from 1991-94 and was named team captain as a senior.

Ekeler earned his bachelor's degree in social sciences from Kansas State in 1995. He and his wife, Barbie, have a son, J.J., and daughters Cameryn, Abigail, and Bella.

ROBERT GILLESPIE

RUNNING BACKS COACH
FIRST YEAR AT UNC

Robert Gillespie joined the Carolina football coaching staff in March and works with the Tar Heel running backs.

Gillespie comes to Carolina after five seasons at Tennessee, where he had most recently served as assistant head coach and recruiting coordinator in addition to working with the Vols' running backs.

"We are excited to welcome Robert and his family to Chapel Hill," head coach Larry Fedora said. "He has a well-earned reputation as a great offensive coach and recruiter, and he has a wealth of experience working with running backs at a very high level. We are happy to have him join our staff as we get into the bulk of spring practice."

"I want to thank Coach Fedora for the opportunity to come to UNC," Gillespie said. "My family and I are excited to be in Chapel Hill and to join the Tar Heel family."

Gillespie worked with a number of talented backs in Knoxville, including 2017 NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year Alvin Kamara. Prior to his time at UT, Gillespie tutored running backs at West Virginia, Oklahoma State and South Carolina.

Gillespie was a four-year letterman at Florida, where he rushed for 1,854 career yards from 1998 to 2001. The Hattiesburg, Mississippi, native still ranks second all-time for the Gators in receptions (96) and receiving yards (1,091) by a running back. Gillespie served as team captain in 2001, helping lead the Gators to a 56-23 Orange Bowl victory over Maryland and a No. 3 final national ranking in the AP and Coaches' Poll. He also helped lead Florida to an SEC Championship in 2000.

After a brief stint in the NFL with Washington (2002-03) and Jacksonville (2003), Gillespie began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at South Carolina in 2005. He spent the next three seasons in Columbia coaching running backs, including 2008 NFL Draft selection Cory Boyd.

Gillespie then spent a pair of seasons as the running backs coach at Oklahoma State. During his tenure in Stillwater, Gillespie coached future NFL running backs Kendall Hunter and Keith Toston, with Hunter earning consensus All-America honors in 2010. Following his time at OSU, he coached running backs for two seasons at West Virginia, helping the Mountaineers to the 2011 Big East title.

Gillespie and his wife Crystal have two daughters, Nola and Sadie, and a son, Wynston.

KEITH HECKENDORF

PASSING GAME COORDINATOR
QUARTERBACKS COACH
EIGHTH YEAR AT UNC

Keith Heckendorf is in his fourth season as North Carolina's quarterbacks coach and passing game coordinator. He spent three years at UNC from 2011-13, and returned to Chapel Hill after a brief stint as the tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator at Arkansas State prior to the 2014 season.

Carolina's passing game has been among the nation's best under Heckendorf's leadership. The Tar Heels have set the school record for passing yards in three of the last four seasons, passing for more than 3,500 yards each year. In 2016, Carolina was third in the ACC and 22nd in the nation averaging 293.2 passing yards per game. Despite having no quarterbacks with a career start at UNC entering 2017, Tar Heel quarterbacks threw for more than 2,700 yards and 21 touchdowns last season.

Heckendorf has tutored two of the most successful quarterbacks in school history in Marquise Williams and Mitch Trubisky. Williams led the Tar Heels to an 11-win season and the Coastal Division title in 2015, while setting more than 20 individual school records. A year later, Trubisky evolved into one of the nation's top signal callers in his one year as the starter. He set several single-season school records, including total offense (4,056), passing yards (3,748) and passing touchdowns (30) while leading the Tar Heels to an 8-5 record and a berth in the Sun Bowl vs. Stanford. Williams and Trubisky are the only two players in UNC history with more than 4,000 yards of total offense in a single season.

Following his redshirt junior season, Trubisky entered the NFL Draft where he was selected by the Chicago Bears with the No. 2 overall pick. He became the first quarterback in UNC history selected in the first round of the NFL Draft and the ninth player taken in the top 10. At No. 2, Trubisky equaled the highest draft pick in Carolina history along with Julius Peppers (No. 2 in 2002) and Lawrence Taylor (No. 2 in 1981).

Carolina has won 22 games in the last three seasons, and the 19 wins in 2015 and 2016 were the most in Chapel Hill since the 1996 and 1997 seasons. In 2015, the Tar Heels had one of their best seasons in two decades, winning 11 games, capturing the ACC's Coastal Division crown with a perfect 8-0 record, and finishing 15th in the country in the top 25 polls. Carolina made its first appearance in the ACC Championship Game, swept its in-state opponents, and set more than 60 team and individual offensive records. UNC led the nation in yards per play and was ninth in scoring offense, averaging a school-record 40.7 points per game.

Williams, who played two seasons under Heckendorf, capped a phenomenal career, setting career marks for total offense, total plays and rushing yards by a quarterback. He finished with 10,423 total yards of offense, which ranked fourth in ACC history. Williams was also responsible for a school-record 99 career touchdowns, including 61 passing, 35 rushing and three receiving.

In 2015, Williams posted 524 total yards of offense in a win over Duke to eclipse the single-game record he had set a year prior against Old Dominion. Williams rushed for 13 touchdowns in both 2014 and 2015, the most by quarterback in UNC history.

In his first stint at UNC, Heckendorf helped tutor quarterbacks Bryn Renner and Williams. Renner set several school records, including the single-season mark for touchdown passes with 28 in 2012. He finished his outstanding career second at Carolina in touchdowns and third in passing yards. Williams came off the bench in 2013 when Renner went down with a season-ending injury to lead the team to wins in six of its final seven games.

Prior to his first tenure at Carolina, Heckendorf spent three seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Western Carolina. He also spent three seasons at Nebraska that included trips to the 2005 Alamo Bowl and 2007 Cotton Bowl.

Heckendorf had a standout career as a quarterback at St. Cloud State in St. Cloud, Minn., from 2000-03. He was a two-time finalist for the Harlon Hill Trophy, which is given annually to the top player in NCAA Division II football, finishing second and third in the voting. He was also a consensus American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) All-America pick, and a two-time Academic All-America. He was the Division II recipient of the prestigious National Football Foundation Scholar Athlete Award. He earned his bachelor's degree in elective studies from St. Cloud State University in 2004, and he completed his master's in education administration from the University of Nebraska in 2014.

A native of Mosinee, Wis., Heckendorf is married to the former Ms. Mia Mauer of Saint Paul, Minn. They have twin sons Ethan and Elliott.

LOU HERNANDEZ

HEAD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING
COACH FOR FOOTBALL
SEVENTH YEAR AT UNC

Lou Hernandez is in his seventh season as North Carolina's head football strength and conditioning coach.

During his tenure in Chapel Hill, Hernandez has helped the Tar Heels become bigger, stronger and faster with his workout philosophy and techniques. Over the last six years, an average of 45 student-athletes per season have power cleaned 308 pounds or more, one of the many quantitative measurements used in Hernandez's program.

Hernandez's strength program played a key role in Carolina's success over the last three seasons as the Tar Heels have won 22 games, including a school-record-tying 11 in 2015. That season Carolina captured the ACC's Coastal Division crown with a perfect 8-0 record, and finishing 15th in the country in the top 25 polls. Carolina made its first appearance in the ACC Championship Game, swept its in-state opponents, and set more than 60 team and individual records.

During a career that has included stops at Carolina, Illinois, Florida and Houston, Hernandez has helped train several successful NFL players and nine first-round draft picks.

In 2017, six Carolina players were selected in the NFL Draft, including first-round quarterback Mitch Trubisky, third-round defensive tackle Nazair Jones, fourth-round wide receivers Mack Hollins and Ryan Switzer, fifth round running back T.J. Logan and seventh-round running back Elijah Hood.

The Tar Heels ranked second in the league and eighth in the nation with six picks. Another four players signed free agent contracts.

Carolina players have consistently proven their training abilities at the NFL combine workouts leading up to the NFL Draft. In 2017, Logan was the fastest tailback at the event, running the 40-yard dash in 4.37 seconds. In 2013 center Russell Bodine, now with the Cincinnati Bengals, had the most bench press reps (42) of any player, a mark achieved by only 15 players previously. Bodine also had one of the top five vertical jumps for an offensive lineman. Tre Boston was among the top safeties in bench and 40-yard dash, while defensive end Kareem Martin had the best broad jump of any lineman. Boston was a third-round pick of the Carolina Panthers.

Hernandez helped develop tight end Eric Ebron into a first-team All-America and a first-round draft pick. Ebron had the second fastest time in the 40-yard dash of any tight end at the NFL Combine and the third-best broad jump. He set ACC records for a tight end in receptions and receiving yards in 2013. Ebron was selected No. 10 overall by the Detroit Lions in the 2014 NFL Draft.

Trubisky was the fourth first-round draft choice Hernandez has tutored in Chapel Hill. After a record-setting junior year at UNC, Trubisky was picked No. 2 overall by Chicago, matching the highest draft pick in UNC history, and became the Bears' starting quarterback as a rookie. Hernandez also helped train offensive guard Jonathan Cooper and defensive tackle Sylvester Williams in 2012. Cooper, considered one of the most athletic guards in the recent history of the draft, improved his draft stock significantly after returning for his senior season under Fedora's staff and working with Hernandez.

Cooper was taken No. 7 overall by Arizona and Williams was picked 28th overall by Denver and has played in two Super Bowls, winning Super Bowl 50 with the Broncos.

Hernandez was an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Florida from 2002-04 when Fedora was an offensive assistant under Ron Zook. Prior to coming to Chapel Hill, Hernandez spent seven years on the Illinois staff as the head strength coach under Zook. He coordinated the entire strength program for the football team as well as assisting with nutritional aspects of the players' diets. Illinois won back-to-back bowl games in 2010 and 2011 for the first time in school history.

During his time at Illinois, Hernandez turned around the strength program. When he began in 2005, there was just one player with a 300-pound or better power clean. Five years later, the team averaged close to 35 a year. Only one player in 2005 could bench over 405 and by 2010 that number was in double figures.

Hernandez helped train five first-round NFL Draft picks in Champaign, including Rashard Mendenhall (Pittsburgh) in 2008, Vontae Davis (Miami) in 2009, Corey Liuget (San Diego) in 2011 and Whitney Mercilus (Houston) and A.J. Jenkins (San Francisco) in 2012. That marked the first time Illinois had produced five first-round draft picks in a five-year span.

Hernandez worked for three seasons at Florida as the assistant director of strength and conditioning from 2002-04. He moved to Florida after serving on the New York Jets staff. Prior to his one-year stint with the Jets, Hernandez spent 10 years at the University of Houston, including five years as the director of the program.

A native of Alice, Texas, Hernandez earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science from the University of Houston in 1992 and his master's degree in exercise and health-related fitness from Houston in 1994. Hernandez is a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

Hernandez and his wife, Kristin, have two daughters, Romy Ella and Katirena Rose.

CHRIS KAPILOVIC

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/OL COACH
SEVENTH YEAR AT UNC

Chris Kapilovic (pronounced kuh-PILL-o-vick) enters his seventh season on the UNC staff as the offensive line coach. He was promoted to associate head coach in 2015 and offensive coordinator in 2016. Kapilovic is the longest tenured coach working with Larry Fedora (12th season), having served on his staff since Fedora first became a head coach at Southern Miss in 2008.

In six years at UNC, Kapilovic has been part of an offensive unit that has established more than 60 school records, including points per game (2012, 2014), total offense (2012, 2014), passing yards (2012, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016) and first downs (2014, 2015). Carolina averaged more than 170 rushing yards per game from 2012-16, which was the highest five-year average since the Mack Brown era.

Last season, despite having only one running back on the roster with a college carry entering the year, the Tar Heels rushed for more than 140 yards per game and 17 touchdowns.

In 2016, Kapilovic's offense, led by quarterback Mitch Trubisky, set the school passing yards mark for the fifth-straight season, won eight games and played Stanford in the Sun Bowl. Trubisky, who was the No. 2 overall pick in the 2017 NFL Draft, was one of 10 Tar Heels to either be drafted or signed by an NFL team.

In 2015, Kapilovic and the Tar Heels had a season to remember, winning 11 games, capturing the ACC's Coastal Division crown with a perfect 8-0 record, and finishing 15th in the country in the top 25 polls. Carolina made its first appearance in the ACC Championship Game, swept its in-state opponents, and made its third straight bowl game. UNC led the nation in yards per play and was ninth in scoring offense, averaging a school-record 40.7 points per game. Carolina finished 18th nationally with 224.4 rushing yards per game. That was the highest average per game on the ground at UNC since 1994 (226.9).

UNC was a semifinalist for the 2015 Joe Moore Award, a new trophy which recognizes the entire offensive line. The o-line paved the way for tailback Elijah Hood to rush for 1,463 yards (second-highest in single-season school history) and quarterback Marquise Williams to run for 948 yards. Carolina led the ACC with a school-record 6.0 yards per carry and ranked first in the league in sacks allowed.

Carolina had what many outside observers called the best offensive line in the country in 2012. All three senior starting linemen were drafted, led by No. 7 overall pick Jonathan Cooper, an athletic guard from Wilmington, N.C. Tackle Brennan Williams was picked in the third round and guard Travis Bond was a seventh round selection.

Holdovers James Hurst (LT) and Russell Bodine (C) led a solid unit in 2013 as the Tar Heels averaged more than 425 total yards per game. Bodine was taken in the fourth round of the 2014 NFL Draft by Cincinnati, while Hurst signed a free agent deal with the Baltimore Ravens.

With the offensive line providing running room, Giovani Bernard led the league in rushing in 2012 and was a semifinalist for the Doak Walker Award. The Tar Heels rushed for 193.8 yards per game, the highest total at UNC since 1994. Carolina also led the league and finished ninth in the nation in sacks allowed.

Kapilovic came to Carolina after four years at Southern Miss. In three of his four years in Hattiesburg, Southern Miss set the school record for total offense, including a mark of 6,459 yards in 2011. Under his direction, the offensive line helped the Golden Eagles reach the 5,000-yard mark in total offense in all four seasons. Kapilovic and company broke the previous total offense record of 5,894 they set in 2010. It was also the fifth-straight year Southern Miss had rushed for more than 2,000 yards.

In 2011, Southern Miss won the Conference USA championship over previously unbeaten Houston and then won its school-record 12th game of the year by beating Nevada in the Hawaii Bowl.

Kapilovic was promoted to run game coordinator in 2010, and in each of his two seasons in that capacity Southern Miss rushed for more than 200 yards per game. In 2011, USM was one of just 11 FBS programs that averaged more than 200 yards per game in both rushing and passing. Three Southern Miss offensive linemen were named All-CUSA in 2011, including first-team performer Lamar Holmes.

Kapilovic came to Southern Miss after spending two seasons as the offensive line coach and run game coordinator at his alma mater, Missouri State, and five years at Alabama State.

Kapilovic started his coaching career as a student assistant at Missouri State. After leaving MSU, Kapilovic spent time as offensive coordinator at Deer Valley High in Glendale, Ariz., as offensive line and strength coach at Phoenix College and as a graduate assistant coach for the offensive line at the University of Kansas.

As a player, Kapilovic lettered for two seasons, 1989 and 1990, for the Bears and was a member of the school's only Gateway Conference championship teams those two seasons as they also made their only appearances in the Division I-AA playoffs. He was a starter and Gateway first-team selection during his senior campaign in 1990. He also played two seasons at Scottsdale (Ariz.) Community College.

Kapilovic and wife Fiona, have two children, Carsen and Colin.

JOHN PAPUCHIS

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR FOURTH YEAR AT UNC

John Papuchis (pronounced puh-POO-chis) joined the Carolina defensive staff in 2015 as the linebackers coach and was promoted to defensive coordinator in 2017.

During Papuchis' three seasons in Chapel Hill, the Tar Heels have won 22 games, including 19 in 2015-16, the most in back-to-back seasons since 1996 and 1997.

In his first season as defensive coordinator, Papuchis had a pair of defensive standouts selected in the NFL Draft in M.J. Stewart (second round, Tampa Bay) and Andre Smith (seventh, Carolina). Stewart ended his career with 41 career pass breakups, a school record. Additionally, Cayson Collins signed a free agent contract with the Miami Dolphins.

In 2016, a Holcomb and Smith ranked first and second, respectively, on the team in tackles. Both were among the ACC top 10 in tackles. They were part of a Carolina defense that led the ACC and was 12th in the country in passing yards allowed. The Tar Heels allowed the fewest touchdown passes in the ACC and allowed the fewest touchdown receptions by wide receivers in the country. Over the last half of the 2016 season, Carolina's defense held its opponents to an average of just over 7.0 points in the second half.

Papuchis had an immediate impact in his first season in Chapel Hill as the Tar Heels had the nation's most improved Power 5 defense, averaging 14.5 points fewer than the previous year. UNC also had the most improved pass defense in the country in both efficiency and yards per pass attempt, and was the fifth-most improved team in passing yards per game.

Carolina led the ACC in interceptions, turnovers gained, turnover margin and passes defended en route to a record-setting 11-3 season, a berth in the ACC Championship Game and a No. 15 final ranking in both national polls. The Tar Heels finished No. 12 in pass defense efficiency.

Before coming to Carolina, Papuchis served on Nebraska's staff from 2008-14, including the last three as the Huskers' defensive coordinator.

Papuchis was the fourth-youngest defensive coordinator in the country and the youngest solo defensive coordinator when he was promoted to the position at Nebraska in 2012. Prior to joining Bo Pelini's Nebraska staff in 2008, he worked at LSU under Nick Saban from 2004-07, and was a graduate assistant at Kansas from 2001-03.

Papuchis has plenty of big-game experience having coached at three other Power Five programs Nebraska, LSU and Kansas. In the past 11 seasons, he has coached in one national championship game (2007) and six conference title games, including the 2015 ACC title game in Charlotte.

Nebraska's defense ranked highly in Papuchis' seven seasons in Lincoln. The Blackshirts held opponents to 10 or fewer points in nearly one-quarter of the games he coached. In addition to holding 22 opponents to 10 or fewer points, NU also held 34 opponents to 14 points or fewer. In three seasons with Papuchis coordinating the defense, Nebraska held its opponent to 14 or fewer points 11 times.

Nebraska was especially strong defending the pass under Papuchis, holding opponents to a 48.5 completion percentage in 2014, which ranked second in the country. NU also was fourth nationally in pass efficiency defense and fifth in third down defense.

Before being promoted to NU's defensive coordinator, Papuchis worked with a Husker defense that led the nation in scoring defense and pass efficiency defense in 2009. Nebraska ranked in the top 10 nationally in scoring defense twice in Papuchis' seven seasons and once in total defense.

In his last 11 seasons as a defensive assistant, Papuchis has coached four units that have ranked in the top 10 in scoring defense and total defense.

A pair of Huskers - Ndamukong Suh and Prince Amukamara - are among six Papuchis players who have been drafted in the first round of the NFL Draft since 2007. Working with the Husker defensive line, Papuchis helped Suh become a Heisman Trophy Finalist, in addition to winning the Outland Trophy, the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, the Lombardi Award and the Bednarik Award.

In addition to working with the Husker defense, Papuchis also coordinated Nebraska's special teams for four seasons from 2008 to 2011. In 2010, Papuchis was one of four finalists for the FootballScoop Special Teams Coordinator-of-the-Year Award.

Papuchis joined the Nebraska coaching staff after spending the previous four seasons on the football staff at LSU. Papuchis served as a defensive intern for the Tigers, assisting in every aspect of the defensive game plan and scouting reports.

The efforts of Papuchis helped the Tigers rank among the nation's top defenses throughout his time with LSU. The Tigers ranked third nationally in total defense each season from 2005 to 2007. In 2007, the Tiger defense helped LSU to SEC and national titles, capped by a 38-24 victory over Ohio State in the BCS National Championship Game.

In 2006, the LSU defense surrendered just 242.8 yards per game, the fewest by a Tiger defense since 1976. LSU led the SEC in six defensive categories and ranked in the top five nationally in four major categories. LSU finished in the top 10 nationally in all four major defensive categories in 2005, and allowed less than 270 total yards per contest. Papuchis also coached the Tiger punters. In 2007, punter Patrick Fisher led the SEC in punting with a 44.5-yard average and earned first-team All-SEC honors.

Papuchis first joined Nick Saban's LSU staff prior to the 2004 season, helping the team earn a berth in the Capital One Bowl.

Papuchis had a three-year stint as a graduate assistant at Kansas from 2001 to 2003. In 2001, he worked with the Jayhawk secondary and then assisted with the linebackers. In his final season at KU, Papuchis helped the Jayhawks earn a berth in the Tangerine Bowl.

Papuchis graduated from Virginia Tech in 2001 with a bachelor's degree in business management. He earned his master's degree in sports administration from Kansas in 2003.

Papuchis is a native of Gaithersburg, Md. He and his wife, Billie, have three daughters, Addyson, Sophia and Rylee and a son, John.

LUKE PASCHALL

WIDE RECEIVERS COACH
SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR
THIRD YEAR AT UNC

Luke Paschall joined the North Carolina football coaching staff in February and works with the Tar Heel wide receivers and serves as the special teams coordinator.

Paschall, who spent two previous seasons in Chapel Hill under Fedora as an offensive graduate assistant, returned to UNC after four years as the wide receivers coach and special teams coordinator at Arkansas State.

"We are thrilled to have Luke back as a part of our staff," Fedora said. "He is a talented offensive coach who also shares my passion for game-changing special teams play. We look forward to having Luke, his wife Lauren and their daughter Emma Rose as part of the Tar Heel family."

"I'm happy to be back at Carolina and working with Coach Fedora and his staff once again," Paschall said. "My first two years here were very special, and Lauren and I are excited to bring our daughter here and make Chapel Hill home."

Paschall was a four-year letterman at wide receiver at Middle Tennessee. A former walk-on who earned a scholarship as a sophomore, he caught 13 passes for 156 yards and a touchdown as a senior. A native of Dickson, Tennessee, Paschall earned a psychology degree in 2006 and a master's in sports management in 2007 from MTSU.

Paschall spent the 2007 season at Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College, where he helped lead the Bulldogs to an NJCAA national championship. He then spent three years at Oklahoma State as an offensive graduate assistant (2008-09) and quality control assistant (2010). Paschall worked with one of the nation's most prolific offenses at OSU, coaching former NFL quarterback Zac Robinson and current Dallas Cowboys wide receiver Dez Bryant during his tenure.

Following one season at Ole Miss as an offensive graduate assistant, Paschall came to Chapel Hill as a part of Fedora's first staff at Carolina. He worked primarily with wide receivers and special teams during his first stint at UNC, coaching record-setting returners Giovani Bernard and Ryan Switzer as well as all-time leading receiver Quinshad Davis.

Paschall left Carolina following the 2013 season to join former UNC offensive coordinator Blake Anderson's first staff at Arkansas State. The Red Wolves won a pair of Sun Belt titles in Paschall's four seasons in Jonesboro and made four consecutive bowl appearances, including a Cure Bowl win over UCF following the 2016 season.

Paschall is married to the former Lauren Hediger and the couple has a daughter, Emma Rose.

CHAD SCOTT

TIGHT ENDS/HYBRIDS COACH
THIRD YEAR AT UNC

Chad Scott, a 2004 UNC graduate, was named Carolina's tight ends and hybrids coach in 2016.

In 2016, Scott was part of an offensive staff that set more than 40 individual and team records, including passing yards and passing yards per game. Scott's tight ends were the most inexperienced position group on the team, but they made valuable contributions as the Tar Heels won eight games and played Stanford in the Sun Bowl. Redshirt freshman Carl Tucker and sophomore Brandon Fritts averaged more than 10 yards per reception. Tucker was also named first-team All-ACC freshman by Athlon. Fritts, who caught 25 passes and scored four touchdowns in 2017, and Tucker highlight an experienced group in 2018.

Scott returned to Chapel Hill after coaching at Kentucky, where he tutored running backs from 2013-15 and was the run game coordinator in 2014-15. He helped develop a solid Wildcat running attack that featured Stanley "Boom" Williams, who rushed for 7.1 yards per carry, and Jojo Kemp, who gained 5.7 per attempt.

Scott spent three seasons at Texas Tech from 2010-12. While TTU was known for great success throwing the ball, Scott's running backs made significant contributions to the offense as well. The Red Raiders rushed for 135.7 yards per game and scored 52 rushing touchdowns during his three seasons. TTU's primary running backs averaged 5.0 yards per rushing attempt.

Scott inherited a running attack that ranked 115th in rushing offense in 2009 at 84 yards per game, improving that mark in his first season to 75th nationally with 141.3 yards per contest. The team's leading rusher, Baron Batch, was drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers and spent three years with that team.

The improvements continued in Scott's second season as Texas Tech was on pace to have its best year rushing since the late 1990s before Tech's top two rushers both sustained season-ending injuries. The Red Raider running backs still rushed for 1,516 yards on the season.

In 2012, TTU averaged 139.9 yards per game on the ground with three backs rushing for more than 400 yards each. Texas Tech won the TicketCity Bowl over Northwestern following the 2010 season and defeated Minnesota in the Meineke Car Care Bowl of Texas in 2012.

Scott earned his first full-time coaching job at Troy as an assistant coach for running backs from 2007-09, helping lead the Trojans to three consecutive Sun Belt Conference Championships and a pair of appearances in the New Orleans Bowl.

Scott was a part of an offensive turnaround at Troy, inheriting an offense that ranked 66th in rushing offense and 77th in total offense prior to his arrival. In just one season, Troy moved to 35th nationally in rushing offense with 182.6 yards per game and 16th in total offense with 452.8 yards per contest. In his final season at Troy, the Trojans ranked third in the nation in total offense.

In each of Scott's first two seasons he coached an All-Sun Belt Conference player in Kenny Cattouse and DuJuan Harris. Harris ranked second in the conference in rushing in 2008 with 1,077 yards and plays for the Minnesota Vikings. In Scott's last season at Troy he coached Shawn Southward, who rushed for 602 yards and 12 touchdowns, to Sun Belt Conference Freshman of the Year honors.

In his six seasons at Troy and Texas Tech, Scott's teams averaged 34.1 points per game.

A native of Plant City, Fla., Scott began his collegiate playing career at Kentucky before transferring to North Carolina and lettering in 2004 and 2005. He earned first-team All-ACC honors from ESPN.com after rushing for 796 yards and eight touchdowns as a senior. Scott made his first career start as a Tar Heel against No. 4 Miami and rushed for a career-high 175 yards on 25 carries and scored twice in a 31-28 victory.

Scott spent time in the National Football League with Cleveland and Pittsburgh before returning to his alma mater in 2006 as a graduate assistant video analyst.

Scott graduated from UNC in 2004 with a degree in sociology. He is married to the former Shambrica Jones, who played basketball at Kentucky, and the couple has a daughter, Kori, and a son, Jakobe.

TOMMY THIGPEN

SAFETIES COACH
SEVENTH YEAR AT UNC

Former All-ACC linebacker and veteran coach Tommy Thigpen joined Larry Fedora's staff in January and works with the Tar Heel safeties.

Thigpen, who played at Carolina for Mack Brown, was a graduate assistant under Carl Torbush and spent four seasons coaching linebackers under John Bunting and Butch Davis, returns to Chapel Hill after stints at Auburn and Tennessee.

Thigpen was a Parade All-American and Virginia Defensive Player of the Year at Potomac High School in Dumfries, Virginia. A four-year letterwinner at North Carolina from 1989-92, Thigpen was a three-time All-ACC linebacker, earning first-team honors in 1991. He was co-captain of the 1992 team that went 9-3 and beat Mississippi State in the Peach Bowl, the first of seven straight bowl games for the Tar Heels in the 1990s. He holds a bachelor's degree in political science from Carolina.

Thigpen played professionally for the New York Giants in 1993-94 and the Barcelona Dragons in 1995-96 before beginning his coaching career as a UNC graduate assistant in 1998-99. He then coached linebackers at Tennessee State in 2000. In 2001-02, he coached cornerbacks and was the special teams coordinator at Bowling Green. Thigpen returned to Carolina after a stint at Illinois, where he was the cornerbacks coach in 2003 and the linebackers coach in 2004.

Thigpen coached the UNC linebackers for four seasons under Bunting and Davis before spending four seasons at Auburn, where he mentored the safeties (2009-11) and linebackers (2012). Under former Carolina defensive coordinator Gene Chizik, Thigpen helped the Tigers to the BCS National Championship in 2010, a season during which Auburn ranked ninth in the country in rush defense at 109.1 yards per game.

From there, Thigpen spent five seasons at Tennessee as the linebackers coach and, beginning in 2016, the defensive run game coordinator. In Knoxville, Thigpen coached linebackers A.J. Johnson, Curt Maggitt and Jalen Reeves-Maybin to All-SEC honors. The Volunteers won three straight bowl games in his time at UT, and he has either coached or played in nine bowl games during his career.

In addition to being a standout coach, Thigpen is widely considered one of the top recruiters in college football. He was named National Recruiter of the Year by Rivals.com in 2013 after helping to sign the No. 5 recruiting class in the nation at Tennessee. Thigpen was also honored by Rivals as one of the nation's top 25 recruiters in 2007 while at Carolina.

Thigpen is married to the former Jacinda Webb and the couple has two daughters, Asia and Naja.

QUINSHAD DAVIS

GRADUATE ASSISTANT COACH
OFFENSE

Quinshad Davis joined the Carolina football staff in 2018 as an offensive graduate assistant. The program's all-time leader in career touchdown receptions, Davis returned to Chapel Hill to begin his coaching career after stints in professional football with the Detroit Lions and the Winnipeg Blue Bombers. Davis caught a 5-yard touchdown pass from Marquise Williams to beat Virginia Tech in 2015 and clinch the Coastal Division title and a spot in the ACC Championship Game for UNC. Davis holds a bachelor's degree in exercise and sport science from Carolina and will work primarily with Luke Paschall and the Tar Heel receivers.

SAM DUNNAM

GRADUATE ASSISTANT COACH
SPECIAL TEAMS

Sam Dunnam joined the Carolina football staff in 2018 as a special teams graduate assistant. Dunnam spent the last four seasons at his alma mater, Ouachita Baptist University, where he was most recently the defensive line coach. A three-year starter for the Tigers, Dunnam was named team captain in 2011 and led Ouachita to a Great American Conference title. Dunnam has a bachelor's in kinesiology and fitness and a master's in sports administration.

JORDAN MARSH

GRADUATE ASSISTANT COACH
OFFENSE

Jordan Marsh joined the Carolina football staff in 2018 as an offensive graduate assistant. A former Tar Heel letterman who graduated in 2013 with a bachelor's degree in history, Marsh works alongside offensive coordinator coach Chris Kapilovic with the Tar Heel offensive linemen. Marsh spent the last four years teaching at Hickory Ridge High School in Harrisburg, North Carolina, where he was an assistant football and wrestling coach as well as the head girls' track and field coach.

JEFF SCHOETTMER

DEFENSE

Jeff Schoettmer joined the Carolina Football staff in 2018 as a defensive graduate assistant. A third-team All-ACC linebacker as a senior at UNC, Schoettmer was a defensive captain for the 2015 Tar Heel team that finished 11-3 and won the ACC Coastal Division title. After coming to Carolina as a walk-on, Schoettmer started 38 games at linebacker, including all 27 in his junior and senior seasons. Schoettmer, who signed with the New Orleans Saints following his time at UNC, has a bachelor's degree in business administration. He will work primarily with Mike Ekeler and the Tar Heel linebackers.

COREY HOLLIDAY
ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR
FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION
18TH YEAR AT UNC

Corey Holliday joined the UNC staff in 2001 and serves as Associate Athletic Director for Football Administration, a position to which he was promoted in 2006. Holliday coordinates daily football program administration, works with the University admissions office, supervises football operational personnel and handles other administrative duties as assigned by athletic director Bubba Cunningham and head coach Larry Fedora.

Holliday earned a B.S. in business administration from UNC in 1993 and returned to earn his master's in sport administration in 1997. He played football for the Tar Heels from 1989-93, finishing his career with the all-time record for receiving yards (2,447). He also ranked fourth in career receptions. Team co-captain as a junior and senior, he caught at least one pass in an ACC-record 45 consecutive games for the Tar Heels from 1990-93.

After UNC, Holliday went on to play four seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers and was a member of four divisional championship squads. He played in Super Bowl XXX against the Dallas Cowboys and had two receptions and two special teams tackles.

Holliday also has held positions with the Atlantic Coast Conference, the UNC Ram's Club, and The Ohio State University. Before returning to Chapel Hill, he was a Business Process Analyst for Andersen Consulting in Columbus, Ohio.

Holliday was selected as one of 25 athletics administrators to participate in the inaugural 2001-02 NCAA Leadership Institute for Ethnic Minority Males.

Holliday and his wife, Angela (UNC '94), have two sons, Christopher and Nicholas.

JOE HAYDON
DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS
15TH YEAR AT UNC

Joe Haydon joined the UNC staff in 2004 and serves as the football team's director of operations, a position he began in 2006. Haydon coordinates team travel, serves as the liaison with the compliance office, handles the onboarding of incoming football student-athletes and works with the NCAA on student-athlete admissions and eligibility.

A native of Wayland, N.Y., Haydon played basketball at Division III Rochester Institute of Technology. He was the team captain and earned Academic All-America honors as a senior.

After spending two years in the telecommunications business, Haydon attended Carolina's sports administration graduate program. He worked as an intern in the football office in 2004, was hired as the assistant director of football operations in 2005 and was promoted to Director in 2006.

Haydon and his wife, Melissa, have two sons, Bryce and Chase.

LUKE ROSS
HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER FOR FOOTBALL
SIXTH YEAR AT UNC

Luke Ross joined the athletic training staff in 2013 and is in his second season as the head athletic trainer for football after serving as a staff athletic trainer for football, fencing and cheerleading for four years. Ross earned his Bachelor of Science degree in athletic training from Boston University in 2006 and his Master's degree in Exercise and Sport Science - Athletic Training from UNC in 2008. While earning his Master's degree, Ross served as a graduate assistant athletic trainer, working mainly with the Tar Heel football and women's rowing programs.

Ross returned to UNC in 2013 after spending four seasons as the assistant athletic trainer for football at the University of Connecticut. Prior to his time at UConn, he also completed a year-long athletic training internship with the Carolina Panthers.

He is a proud NATABOC certified athletic trainer (ATC). Ross and his wife Megan reside in Durham with their two sons, Benjamin and Theodore.

JASON FREEMAN
EQUIPMENT MANAGER
21ST YEAR AT UNC

Jason Freeman was promoted to head equipment manager for the UNC football program in 2016. He is responsible for directing, planning, organizing and implementing the football equipment room functions for football staff and student-athletes. He is also responsible for communicating needs and product feedback to Jordan Brand and Nike representatives.

Freeman served as UNC's assistant football equipment manager from 1999-2015.

Freeman is a 1998 graduate of UNC with a bachelor's degree in exercise and sport science. As an undergraduate, he worked as a student manager in the equipment room beginning in 1995. After graduation, he served one season as an intern and was hired full-time in 1999.

Freeman is a native of Weaverville, N.C., and is married to the former Stacy Meiggs, a 2004 graduate of UNC.

ANGELA KIRKPATRICK
DIRECTOR OF ON-CAMPUS RECRUITING
SECOND YEAR AT UNC

Angela Kirkpatrick joined the North Carolina football program in October 2017 as the team's director of on-campus recruiting. A 2016 graduate of the University of Tennessee, Kirkpatrick develops and monitors strategic planning for UNC's recruiting operations. Additionally, she coordinates on-campus recruiting efforts with a primary focus on official visits, unofficial visits, game day recruiting programming, junior days and special events.

Prior to coming to Chapel Hill, Kirkpatrick worked at her alma mater as a recruiting operations graduate assistant. While earning her B.S. in journalism and electronic media at UT, she spent four years working with undergraduate admissions in student recruitment. Kirkpatrick also spent the summer of 2015 as a communications assistant with the Atlanta Falcons.

CHRISTOPHER LUKE
11TH YEAR AT UNC

Christopher Luke, widely considered one of the most respected in his profession at the national level, enters his 11th season as Carolina's Director of Football Video and Technology. Luke plays a vital role in the success of the Tar Heel football program by managing all aspects of internal team video and game analysis needs for the football coaching staff and players.

Luke is the lead game analysis system administrator in Kenan Football Center utilized by coaches, staff and athletes. He is responsible for analytical support of computer and video technologies including the taping of all games and practices, opponent video exchange, self-scout and opponent breakdowns, ingesting all NFL games, and create video cut-ups used as teaching tools. He supervises one full time assistant and 14 student staff members. Luke has also played a major role in the audio/visual upgrades and improvement of the Kenan Football Center. He was directly involved with the audio/visual integration for the new football practice facility featuring A/V technology supporting the needs of the football players and coaching staff.

In a vote by his peers, Luke was named the 2011-12 and 2014-15 ACC Video Coordinator of the Year by the Collegiate Sports Video Association (CSVA). Luke was also named the 2012 Bob Matey National Video Coordinator of the Year by the CSVA. The award, which is voted on by other video coordinators in the profession, is presented to the individual who possesses the qualities and attributes of the late Bob Matey, the former video coordinator at Texas A&M.

Prior to working at UNC, Luke was the assistant video coordinator at Texas A&M from 2004-08. Luke was the leader in educating and implementing a file transfer program allowing all Big 12 schools to be the first BCS conference to successfully exchange football game video over its peer to peer network. Previously, Luke worked for two years at Missouri as the assistant director of video and was in charge of the daily operations of the football staff while assisting in the video management of 22 sports. Prior to that appointment, Luke did his graduate work in the speech communication/instructional technology department at Northern Illinois University while serving as the football video coordinator for two seasons. Luke began his career at Eastern Illinois as the student video coordinator in 1994 and graduated with Bachelor of Arts in Speech Communications with an emphasis in radio/television production in December of 1998.

Luke is the former two term President and 3 term Vice President of the CSVA, which promotes the role of the video professional in the sports industry.

Luke is a native of Hoopston, Illinois, home of the Cornjerkers. He and his wife Sabra have two sons, Travis and Truman.

EMILY MCKIERNAN
COORDINATOR OF CREATIVE SERVICES
SECOND YEAR AT UNC

Emily McKiernan is in her second season with the North Carolina football program and her first as the creative services coordinator. A 2015 graduate of Virginia Tech, McKiernan helps coordinate creative projects for both internal and external use and to enhance the recruiting efforts of the UNC staff.

Prior to coming to Chapel Hill, McKiernan worked for both Calvin Klein and USA Legwear in New York. As a junior account executive at Calvin Klein, she managed the day-to-day needs of clients and assisted in the development and implementation of marketing strategies.

A native of Westchester, N.Y., McKiernan was a member of the Virginia Tech cheerleading program. In that role, she assisted in the organization of game day events for fans, recruits, alumni and the Virginia Tech Hokie Club. She also helped start and maintain social media channels for the program.

DOMINIC MORELLI
DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL BUSINESS
38TH YEAR AT UNC

Dominic Morelli enters his 38th season with the Carolina football program as the team's director of business operations.

Morelli began as Carolina's equipment manager in 1980 under then head coach Dick Crum. He worked for seven Carolina head coaches in his tenure as equipment manager, including Crum, Mack Brown, Carl Torbush, John Bunting, Butch Davis, Everett Withers and Larry Fedora. Morelli earned Carolina's Ernie Williamson Award in 2003 as the athletic department's top employee.

A native of Winston-Salem, N.C., Morelli earned his degree from Guilford College in 1980.

Morelli and his wife, Nana, have a son Troy Joseph. The Morellis' daughter, Kaitlin, passed away in October 2014 at the age of 27 after a courageous fight against a rare form of cancer. She was a volunteer on game days for more than 15 years and is greatly missed by the entire Tar Heel football family.

OCHUKO JENIJE
DIRECTOR OF
STUDENT-ATHLETE DEVELOPMENT
FIFTH YEAR AT UNC

Ochuko Jenije (oh-CHOO-coe JEN-uh-jay) joined the football program as the team's director of student-athlete development in 2015. He previously worked as an assistant director in UNC's student-athlete development office at the Loudermilk Center.

Jenije's primary charge is the personal and professional growth of each student-athlete to facilitate success both on and off the field and prepare them for life beyond their collegiate football experience. He also assists in various administrative roles, including financial aid matters, housing and community service projects.

In his first year at UNC in 2014, Jenije assisted in administering the five services areas of Student-Athlete Development and was the primary contact for Carolina Outreach and UNC's Student-Athlete Advisory Council (SAAC).

Prior to coming to UNC, Jenije served as Coordinator of Student Services at Florida State, his alma mater. Among his responsibilities, he managed the Welcome Back Picnic and the Golden Nole All-Sport Banquet; coordinated and developed the community service and activities for Florida State National Student-Athlete Day; facilitated and mentored student-athletes through R.E.A.L. (Leadership Program); designed PHAT (Peers Helping Athletes Transition), a 5-week program for all first year student-athletes; oversaw the Student-Athlete Exit Interviews; organized Summer and Winter Bridge programming for all student-athletes; and assisted with Student-Athlete Advisory Council meetings.

He also has worked at the University of Tulsa as Marketing and Promotions Assistant and has interned in the sports information office at FSU and in the marketing office at Oral Roberts University.

Jenije graduated from Florida State in 2009 with a B.S. in sport management and earned his master's degree in higher education with an emphasis in general administration in 2011, also from FSU. He played football for the Seminoles from 2006-10, serving as team captain as a senior and earning Atlantic Coast Conference Academic Honor Roll recognition all four years.

JASON TUDRYN
DIRECTOR OF HIGH SCHOOL RELATIONS
FIFTH YEAR AT UNC

Jason Tudryn was named UNC's Director of High School Relations in 2014.

In that role, he is responsible for implementing strategic recruiting plans for prospective student-athletes for UNC's football coaches and maintaining effective relationships with high school coaches. A former high school football coach, Tudryn helps manage the UNC recruiting database, develops lists of summer camps and assists with organizing official campus visits.

Tudryn joined the UNC program after serving seven years as the head football coach at Carrboro High School, a program he started in 2007. Carrboro reached the state playoffs in four consecutive seasons from 2009-12 and advanced to the 2AA state championship game in 2012 before falling to South Iredell. Tudryn was awarded the NCHSAA's 2012 Homer Thompson Memorial Award, which is given annually to "Eight Who Make A Difference" in high school athletics.

Prior to his stint at Carrboro, Tudryn coached in Florida and Massachusetts. He was the defensive coordinator at Naples Gulf Coast High School in Naples, Fla., where he worked for his father, from 2002-06. He was the head coach at Miami Coral Park High School for two seasons in 2000 and 2001 and was an assistant at Immokalee High School in 1999.

A native of Northampton, Mass., Tudryn was an assistant coach at American International College (Division II) in Springfield from 1997-98 and was an assistant coach at Curry College (Division III) in Milton, Mass., in 1996.

Tudryn was a four-year letterwinner at safety at the University of Massachusetts in Amherst where he graduated with a degree in sociology in 1996. He received a master's in special education from AIC in 1999.

Tudryn and his wife Barbie have two girls, Taliana and Ana, and a son, Phoenix. His father, Frank, coached high school football for more than 30 years and is a member of the Massachusetts High School Hall of Fame.

JOHN MARK HAMILTON
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL
SECOND YEAR AT UNC

John Mark Hamilton joined the North Carolina football program in August 2017 as the team's director of player personnel. A 2009 graduate of Appalachian State University, Hamilton oversees the program's recruiting database, coordinates recruiting plans with coaches and assists with on-campus recruiting visits, among other duties.

Prior to arriving in Chapel Hill, Hamilton spent 12 seasons at his alma mater, four as an undergraduate assistant and eight in a variety of roles from on-field coach, on-the-road recruiter and most recently as director of player personnel. In that capacity, Hamilton helped Appalachian State make a successful transition from the FCS level to FBS competition.

The Mountaineers won back-to-back Camellia Bowls in 2015 and 2016 and captured the school's first Sun Belt title in 2016. Hamilton coordinated on-campus recruiting in Boone and assisted with other duties in the program, including acting as an NFL liaison. As an undergrad assistant from 2005-09, Hamilton was a part of Appalachian State's three national championships in 2005, 2006 and 2007.

A native of Matthews, North Carolina, Hamilton is married to the former Amanda Soper and the couple has a daughter, Emery. Hamilton's father Ron is a UNC alumnus.

1 Coming out of what you described as the “toughest season as a head coach,” what was the mindset you needed to see from your team this spring and did they accomplish your goals?

“You always want to see how your guys will respond to adversity because that will determine how you move forward. We challenged everybody in January that we wanted to be better than we were at the end of the season when spring practice started in March. We didn’t want to just pick up where we left off in November. We wanted them to work hard in the weight room and in the film room to make them better players on day one of spring practice compared to the last day of the 2017 season. I think they did that because they’re anxious to get back onto the field and reverse what happened in 2017. A positive we could take away from last season was the fact that our guys never quit fighting, and they never quit on each other. I could see in their eyes that they were hungry and ready to work to get back where we belong. That was evident in how hard they worked all winter and it was evident from day one of spring practice through day 15. Everybody on this team worked hard to get better in each practice. They pushed each other and challenged each other every day to do better than the day before. Those “self-starter” attitudes showed me that their mindset was exactly where we needed it to be and that they are anxious to get back out on the field and prove something.”

2 There were numerous changes within your coaching staff in the off-season. How do you think the new coaches have fit into the program so far and how did it change the dynamics of your staff?

“First, staff changes are just part of this business now and they can be difficult because they’re part of your family and it’s never fun to lose part of your family. But when I look at the guys we were able to bring onto our staff, I couldn’t be happier about how it all played out in the end. Starting with Luke Paschall on offense, he’s a guy who is very familiar with how we do things on that side of the ball and what our approach is schematically. Then you look at special teams and the fact that he and I share the same philosophies with how you approach that part of our game plan and what you want to do in the kicking game. His transition back into the program was very smooth. Then we were able to bring in Robert Gillespie, who has a wealth of experience coaching running backs. He’s never coached with us but he’s always kept an eye on what we did and that was very helpful to him because I think he really picked things up quickly and hit the ground running with his guys. I’m excited about how he’s been able to impact his position group this spring. On the defensive side of the ball we brought in two guys on the back end. Tommy Thigpen was a no-brainer. We’ve always wanted to bring him back home to North Carolina when the time was right for him. He’s an excellent teacher of the game and an outstanding recruiter. The other coach we added with the corners was Henry Baker. Maybe one of the most impressive guys I’ve ever seen in an interview. I didn’t know him before that but knew right away he was somebody that would fit in with our staff, the university as a whole and most importantly, the guys in his position room. I’m excited about the makeup of this staff right now.”

3 There was a difference on the offense between last spring and this spring in terms of knowing what you were working with coming into this spring compared to having to replace so many experienced players last spring. How did those different circumstances affect what you were able to do this spring compared to last?

“First, what it did help us with was guys knowing the scheme better and having a ton of guys that were able to get live game reps last season. You could see that guys were able to process what we wanted faster than they did last spring because they had that game experience now. That helped from the mental side of what we wanted to accomplish this spring. However, we were missing a number of guys recovering from injuries, particularly up front on the line. So we couldn’t just skip ahead from the fundamentals on day one this spring and hope that the new guys would just catch up. We went back to the basics to make sure that every player on the field understands what it takes to play at the level we expect in this program, both mentally and physically. Then we built on that foundation during each additional practice by making sure guys got as many reps as we could possibly squeeze in with them. Our team really improved fundamentally in all aspects of what we need them to do to win football games on Saturdays. Their desire to get better and their hunger to get out there and prove something to our fans drove them all spring. All of this was critical and our focus was to make sure that when the spring session ended every player on both sides of the ball had a firm grasp of our schemes so that we can hit the ground running on day one of our fall camp.”

4 There is a tight race between Chazz Surratt and Nathan Elliott to see who will be the starting quarterback next season. Where have these two guys improved the most since the season ended and compared to this time last year?

“First and foremost, they are both just so much more comfortable in the offense and knowing what they’re job is in every situation. That comfort level increasing has led to a noticeable increase in their confidence. When you’re calmer and more confident your decision-making process improves, and we’ve seen that from both Chazz and Nathan this spring. They looked smoother and more fluid in what they were doing on the field. You can see that the game is slowing down for them now. They’re able now to see more and know what happened on each play, why it happened and can explain why they made the decision they did on that play. They’ve progressed from just knowing what they’re supposed to do on every play to knowing what all ten other guys are supposed to be doing on every play. Every rep is so valuable with a quarterback. It’s what helps them take steps forward and I think both guys accomplished that this spring.”

5 As the spring closed, and keeping how last season ended fresh in your mind, where is your head at right now and what’s the feeling you have in your gut?

“I’m anxious to get back out on the field on Saturdays with the guys on this team. I can see it in their body language and the way they’re approaching every day with us. I want it for them. They want to prove something to each other and to the world that they are better than what people saw in our record, and they are better than what people are saying about them today. When I see the hunger in their eyes, it makes me want the games to be here even more. But there’s work to do and I know that. I’m looking forward to it all. I’m looking forward to us being better on August 1 than we are today. We have to work this summer to be a better team than we were at the end of spring practice. Then we have to be a better team when we board that plane to California than we were on August 1. I’m excited and if I could take the field with my guys now I would.”

BUBBA CUNNINGHAM

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
EIGHTH YEAR AT UNC

Since Lawrence R. (Bubba) Cunningham officially began his duties as Carolina's director of athletics on November 14, 2011, UNC has graduated more than 800 student-athletes while consistently competing for championships in an array of different sports – exciting, motivating and influencing along the way. Among the department's accomplishments:

- The Tar Heels have won nine national titles and made an additional 10 runner-up finishes.
- More than 300 student-athletes have made the ACC Academic Honor roll -- which requires a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or better for the year -- each of the past six years, including a record 391 in 2017-18.
- Carolina's APR has steadily risen, and 10 teams scored a perfect 1000 in 2016-17.
- The Tar Heels have finished in the top eight of the Learfield Directors' Cup five times.
- And student-athletes have logged more than 25,000 hours of community service, helping at hospitals and local schools, and partnering with a variety of local and national groups.

Cunningham has led by supporting, challenging and innovating. Shortly after beginning his tenure as Carolina's athletics director, he led a strategic planning process that defined a new mission statement: "We educate and inspire through athletics."

And that's just what UNC has done during his seven years in Chapel Hill.

Among Carolina's many achievements during his tenure are a partnership with Disney to enhance customer service and organizational practices; the development of the Student-Athlete Academic Initiative Working Group; a compliance review by an outside firm; a student-athlete degree completion program called Complete Carolina; a master plan for UNC's athletic facilities; and the creation of The Rammys -- an innovative end-of-the-year awards show popular with Carolina's student-athletes and staff.

In January, the department implemented an updated strategic plan and vision for Carolina Athletics for the next five years called "Together We Win". And a transformative array of athletics facilities projects -- including a new football practice facility, lacrosse/soccer stadium, field hockey stadium and track and field complex -- are underway and will be completed in 2018.

Cunningham has been busy outside of Chapel Hill, as well. He finished a term as the president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) in 2018; sits on the board of LEAD1, an association representing the ADs from the NCAA Division I Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) schools; is in his eighth year on the ACC Television Committee; and has served on many NCAA committees over the last two decades.

AD Bubba Cunningham (right) with Michael Jordan and head coach Larry Fedora at the Jordan Brand announcement in March 2017.

He has Carolina positioned to have a voice in the on-going conversation about the future, whether it is in the state university system, the Atlantic Coast Conference or at the NCAA level.

Cunningham is in his 17th year as a Division I director of athletics. He came to Chapel Hill after spending the previous six years as the director of athletics at the University of Tulsa, where he guided the Golden Hurricane through its initial move to Conference USA and spearheaded a $60 million athletics initiative. Tulsa won 34 league championships during his tenure, more than any other school in Conference USA, and the football program played in five bowl games in his final six years. He was honored as the 2008-09 FBS Central Region Athletics Director of the Year, an award presented by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics.

He also served as Ball State University's AD from 2002-2005. There, he led a program with 19 intercollegiate sports and a budget of $12.4 million. In his final year, Ball State completed a $12 million campaign to renovate the football stadium. In raising those funds, Cunningham secured the largest single gift in Ball State athletics history.

Cunningham, who earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in business administration from Notre Dame in 1984 and 1988, respectively, worked in his alma mater's athletics department from 1988-2002. The former member of the Irish golf team (1982-83) served as Notre Dame's associate athletics director for finance and facilities from 1995-2000 and was the associate director of athletics for external affairs from 2000-02.

Cunningham also has served on the Gatorade National Advisory Board and has been a featured speaker at numerous NACDA and LEAD1 conferences.

Born in Flint, Mich., and raised in Naples, Fla., Cunningham and his wife, Tina, have four grown children: Matthew, Michael, John and Sarah.

Cunningham celebrated with the students by doing pushups after a Carolina touchdown in 2015.

WHEN CAROL L. FOLT became Carolina's 11th chancellor, and 29th leader in a lineage that dates back to Carolina's founding, she said, "As America's first public university, Carolina became the gold standard. The founders passed the baton and the future is up to us. How can we fulfill this honorable charge in a way that is ever fresh and relevant?"

Folt – an internationally recognized life scientist, award-winning teacher and accomplished academic leader – has worked to fulfill that honorable charge by placing Carolina's students at the center, advancing the university's academic excellence, championing Carolina as a leading global public research university and focusing on innovation and entrepreneurship initiatives that are translating world-class ideas into real-world applications.

Since her arrival, the chancellor has made planning for Carolina's future a top priority. In the fall of 2017, The Blueprint for Next, Carolina's strategic framework outlining priorities to guide decision-making and investments during the next decade, moved to the implementation phase. Shaped over several years by hundreds of people across the university, the framework embodies the Carolina's willingness to reinvent itself.

Under Folt's leadership, Carolina kicked off For All Kind: the Campaign for Carolina, the most ambitious fundraising campaign in the university's history. The goal of the campaign is to raise $4.25 billion by Dec. 31, 2022, to create programs dedicated to student potential, faculty excellence, innovative teaching and research and global, experience-based learning. The capital campaign includes raising $1 billion in scholarships and aid to fund Carolina Edge, the biggest initiative in the university's history, to make good on Carolina's promise to remain of and for the public. A part of the campaign – called the Red, White and Carolina Blue Challenge – focuses on raising $20 million in support of need-based scholarships for students from military families.

Inspired by the transformational impact that the arts made in her life and work as a scientist, Folt initiated the Arts Everywhere pan-university initiative that celebrates the power of the arts to illuminate the human condition, allow for reflection, promote dialogue and provoke action. Rooted in the fundamental belief that the arts are for everyone, the university community is encouraged to take part in the creative process and to explore the full range of the visual, performing and literary arts.

Carolina routinely ranks among the nation's top public universities and is one of the nation's top ten research universities, ranking 6th in the nation in overall federal research and development. The university surpassed, for the first time in 2017, $1 billion in annual research expenditures.

Under the chancellor's leadership, Carolina has continued to improve on its winning record of undergraduate diversity, retention and graduation rates – with a focus on low-income, first-generation and underrepresented students. Carolina remains committed to ensuring affordability, accessibility and excellence. One of the few public universities that remains both need-blind and covers the full financial need of its students, Carolina is the least expensive of 14 peer public universities and debt-per-student has remained nearly flat in inflation-adjusted dollars for more than a decade. Carolina is noted as one of the best values in college education.

As leader of North Carolina's flagship public university, Folt and her leadership team champion attracting, developing and retaining world-class faculty that are focused on excellence in teaching and research. Carolina's faculty lead by doing, and each day they share their knowledge and excitement with the next generation who will face a rapidly evolving future as they embark upon impactful careers, many in fields that don't exist today.

Folt came to Carolina in 2013 from Dartmouth College where she spent 30 years as a teacher and academic leader. She served as interim president in 2012-2013 and as a faculty member in the Department of Biological Sciences, Dean of the Faculty and Provost.

TAR

KENAN STADIUM

Carolina football plays its home games at Kenan Memorial Stadium, one of the most picturesque athletic venues in America. Kenan Stadium has been the home of the Tar Heels since 1927 and the thrill of playing in or attending a game there is as exhilarating now as it was when it was first constructed.

Considering its majestic setting among the Carolina pines, many observers say Kenan Stadium is the most beautiful football facility in the country. For scenery, atmosphere and charm, it cannot be surpassed.

The stadium has been expanded several times since its completion in 1927. In each instance, though, great care was taken to keep its fundamental beauty intact. The most recent project was completed in 2018, when the majority of the bleacher seats in the stadium were converted to Carolina Blue chairbacks. Designed to increase comfort for fans, the new seats feature armrests and cupholders and provide significantly more room per person. With the installation of the new seats, Kenan Stadium now has a capacity of 50,500.

In 2011, Carolina opened the Loudermilk Center for Excellence and a premium seating section named the Blue Zone. Alumnus R. Charles "Charlie" Loudermilk Sr. of Atlanta made a $7.5 million donation to fund the 150,000 square-foot facility that serves all of Carolina's nearly 800 student-athletes across 28 sports.

The Loudermilk Center's largest feature is the John W. Pope Student-Athlete Academic Support Center. This 29,000 square-foot facility provides classrooms for teaching and tutoring, advanced computer technology, a writing lab, reading rooms and office space. It is also home to the Baddour Carolina Leadership Academy, which offers leadership training to Carolina student-athletes, coaches and staff. A $3 million gift from the Raleigh-based John William Pope Foundation funded the academic support center.

Also housed in the Loudermilk Center is a strength and conditioning center for Carolina's Olympic sports programs, facilities for men's lacrosse and a visitor's locker room that can be split to host high school football championships. Other features include premium seating for fans watching football games, as well as office and operations space for the department of athletics.

The Blue Zone offers 1,836 seats in the Concourse Club/Loge just a few feet from the field, 824 seats in the Upper Club/Loge on the fourth floor and 320 seats in 20 suites on the fifth floor. Combined, the project added 2,980 seats to the stadium's capacity. The project also tied the north and south concourses together and provides the stadium with 360 degree concourse to enhance fan movement in the facility.

Located in the west end zone, the Kenan Football Center was completed in 1997 and houses the operational needs of the Carolina football program. The football center includes the UNC locker room, weight room, training room, equipment room, players' lounge, computer labs and study areas, 100-plus seat auditorium, coaches' offices, theater and Hall of Honor.

An additional floor was added to the Kenan

THE STADIUM

"One moment you are deep in the green and the blaze of autumn leaves, and the next the curtain has disappeared, the land falls away and the panorama of long, graceful lines and gently sweeping curves spreads out ... The picture fits exactly; it was made for its frame and its frame for it."

— Carolina Alumni Review, Fall 1927

Kenan Memorial Stadium remains today as it was nearly a century ago — quite simply one of the most picturesque athletic venues in America. UNC's alumni magazine saluted the natural beauty of the new stadium upon its opening on Nov. 24, 1927; some 28,000 fans watched as the Tar Heels edged Virginia by one point.

Since then, Kenan Stadium has been home to great teams and outstanding players and the battleground for thousands of memorable football games on crystalline autumn Saturdays. From modest beginnings—single levels of seats on each side of the playing field and a simple field house—the facility has evolved with the times but has preserved its aesthetic appeal. Among the significant expansion projects have been the addition of the upper decks in 1963; the construction of the south side press box, installation of permanent lights and addition of 2,000 choice seats between the 40 yard-lines in 1988; the addition of some 8,000 seats in the west end zone bowl and the construction of the Frank H. Kenan Football Center and the John Pope Box in 1997; the addition of the fifth floor to the Kenan Football Center in 2010; and the 2011 addition of Blue Zone seating area in the east end zone and the opening of The Loudermilk Center for Excellence.

Football Center after the 2008 season. The fifth floor contains additional office and recruiting space for the day-to-day operations of the football program, four pregame gathering areas, a larger video and studio facility and a state-of-the-art press conference area. The recruiting area and suites also are used as academic study areas during the week. The second floor was completely renovated for increased football meeting spaces, including bigger individual position meeting rooms and a larger team meeting room. The fourth floor renovations added additional office space for football support staff.

The Charlie Justice Hall of Honor, located on the ground floor, is a multimedia history of Carolina football. Photographs, awards, trophies and artifacts detailing the rich and storied history of the sport in Chapel Hill are on display. The James A. Heavner Theater was made possible by a special gift by the former executive producer of the Tar Heel Sports Network and president of Vilcom. The theater is a 30-person mini-theater equipped with surround sound and seven dramatic videos presenting the history of UNC football.

A number of rooms in the Kenan Football Center have been dedicated in the honor or memory of Carolina's benefactors, fans and athletic personalities. They include the Brinkley Lounge, the fourth floor reception area named for Harvey M. Brinkley Jr.; the Don McCauley/Paul Miller Head Coach's Suite; the Norman M. (Buddy) Black Jr. Lounge, the fourth floor hospitality area; the Oscar Davenport/Chris Keldorf Quarterback Meeting Room, as given by Bob Biggerstaff; the Jo Allison Clary Smith Weight Room; the Carolina Football Players' Locker Room, named in behalf of the more than 400 former Tar Heels who donated more than $2 million to the project; the Nassif Offensive Staff Meeting Room; the Ann and Paul Lawing Coaches' Locker Room; Koury Box North, box seating on the north side of the stadium named for Maurice J. Koury; the John W. Pope Academic Support Facility; the John W. Pope Stadium Box, a stadium box on the north side; the John D. Swofford Auditorium and the Jimmy W. Garrell coaches meeting room.

The 1997 expansion project, in which great care was taken to ensure that the surrounding environment would be altered as little as possible, was the first project to connect the north and south concourses to either end of the lower deck via the third level of the Kenan Center. That project also added nearly 8,000 seats, a state-of-the-art football facility, chancellor's box and preferred seating box. The Rams Club and its members committed more than $50 million to the project.

The football center is named in honor of the late Frank H. Kenan, one of the school's most generous benefactors. Kenan was a Durham resident and chief executive officer of Kenan Transport Company in Chapel Hill. He passed away at age 83 in 1996.

Kenan, a 1935 Carolina graduate, was the great-great-grandson of General James Kenan, a member of the University's founding board of trustees. An Atlanta native, Kenan had a tremendous impact on the growth of the University. He served on many campus boards, including the Board of Visitors and the Educational Foundation Board of Directors.

In recent years the William R. Kenan Jr. Charitable Trust, of which he was a trustee, has donated more than $100 million to schools in the state's consolidated university system, including Carolina, NC State and the N.C. School of the Arts. Among other things, the trust funds 92 William R. Kenan Jr. Professorships at 56 colleges and universities nationwide.

Kenan served on the steering committee of Carolina's Bicentennial Campaign, the University's largest fund-raising effort. Gifts by him, his family and the trust during the campaign exceeded $31 million. The largest portion of that was targeted for the business school. In 1991 the school was renamed the Kenan-Flagler Business School after a $10 million gift.

The preferred seating box that rises above the second deck of the grandstand on the north side of the stadium has outdoor seating for almost 1,200 spectators. That includes the Chancellor's Box on the second level of the box 45 feet above the ground. The fourth level, 68 feet high, has outdoor seating for more than 1,000, plus concessions and a 7,500 square foot lounge. There is a smaller lounge and food preparation areas on the third floor.

The Kenan Football Center and preferred seating box were the predominant changes in a multi-year renovation plan that began in 1995. A new playing field was installed that spring. The new turf included an improved drainage system beneath the field that drains through the field itself rather than off the sides of the field as in the past. Prior to the 1996 season the restrooms and concession stands were expanded and renovated.

Another significant stadium expansion took place prior to 1988 and involved adding 2,000 choice seats between the 40-yard lines where the press box and chancellor's box formerly stood. A new press box was constructed on top of the upper deck on the stadium's south side. It is a one-level elongated structure, running from 10-yard line to 10-yard line.

Also part of the 1987-88 project were a permanent lighting system, a chancellor's lounge on the north side of the field and a football lettermen's lounge on the south side. The lights are part of a General Electric low-mount system which minimizes the height of the lightpoles. Cost of the entire project was $7 million. It was funded by private gifts and bonds.

William Rand Kenan Jr. deserves the credit for originally making the stadium a part of the University. He was born in North Carolina in 1873 and graduated from Carolina in 1894. An international industrialist, Kenan discovered carbide and made monumental progress in the field of chemistry. During his business career he was president of The Florida East Coast Railroad, The Florida East Coast Hotel Company, The West Palm Beach Water Company and the Florida East Coast Car Ferry Company.

He was a director of Florida Power and Light Company and built the first power plant in Miami in the early 1900s.

The stadium was built as a memorial to his parents, William R. Kenan and Mary Hargrave Kenan. Construction began in November 1926 and was completed the following August. Complete cost of the stadium and accompanying fieldhouse was $303,000.

Originally, the stadium was to be built through funds raised by alumni donations, and by June 1926, a group of nearly 40 alumni had contributed $27,926. At this time, however, a copy of the prospectus and plan of financing the stadium came into the hands of Kenan, who expressed an interest in the proposal. Kenan was considering establishing a memorial to his parents, and the pressing need for a stadium and the possibilities of the beauty, dignity and permanence it presented, suggested to him that the benefaction he contemplated may well take the form of a memorial stadium. The Stadium Committee immediately endorsed his proposal and on the very day in November 1926 on which Kenan visited the planned site, he announced his financial gift to build the stadium.

Kenan remained very interested in Kenan Stadium throughout his lifetime. In the 1950s he gave a $1,000,000 contribution to construct a second deck on the stadium. After Kenan's death in 1965 the William R. Kenan Jr. Charitable Trust, which was established by his will, donated $1,000,000 to enlarge and modernize Kenan Fieldhouse.

In 1988 the Kenan Trust made another $1,000,000 gift to complete the new chancellor's box on the north side. Another lasting memory of William R. Kenan Jr. is the Kenan Athletic Scholarship Endowment, valued at over $1,000,000. Each year a student-athlete is awarded a full scholarship from this fund.

Besides giving the stadium to the University, Mr. Kenan also sponsored and financed the famous Kenan Professorships. He was awarded the honorary degree of LL.D. by his alma mater in 1944.

In the first game played there, Carolina defeated Davidson, 27-0, on November 12, 1927. The most points scored by the Tar Heels in Kenan came in 2013 when UNC beat Old Dominion 80-20.

As originally built, the stadium seated 24,000. However, in 1963 the benefactor added portable stands and then an upper deck to the permanent stands, which increased capacity to 48,000. That was expanded to 50,000 in 1979, 52,000 in 1988, 57,500 in 1997, 60,000 in 1998 and 63,000 in 2011.

In 1997, the Tar Heels played in front of a record crowd of 62,000 on Nov. 8, 1997, as fifth-ranked Carolina battled No. 2 Florida State. The largest crowd to watch a game prior to the most recent major expansion was 54,300 as Carolina defeated N.C. State, 31-17, in 1994.

The 1983 season saw another first in the stadium — a game played under artificial lights. The Carolina-Duke game was played in the late afternoon so it could be televised throughout the ACC area. Portable lights were brought in since the second half was played after sunset. Portable lights were also used in the 1987 Clemson game which was televised nationally by ESPN.

The 1991 season opener versus Cincinnati and that season's Clemson game, which was televised nationally by ESPN, were the first true night games ever played at Kenan Stadium.

JOHN WILLIAM POPE FOUNDATION

The Raleigh-based John William Pope Foundation has a long history of providing funds for academic support in the Carolina Athletic Department. The academic support center connected to the original Kenan Field House was erected in the 1980s and later named for John W. Pope, a 1947 UNC graduate who contributed significantly to the Kenan Stadium expansion in the mid-1990s. This new building carries on the tradition through the John W. Pope Student-Athlete Academic Support Center, a 29,000 square foot facility that provides classrooms for teaching and tutoring, advanced computer technology, a writing lab, reading rooms and office space. It is also the home to the Carolina Leadership Academy, which offers leadership training to Carolina student-athletes, coaches and staff. Mr. Pope took five discount variety stores started in Fuquay-Varina by his father, James, and turned them into Variety Wholesalers, a successful network of more than 500 stores that continues to flourish into the 21st century. Mr. Pope passed away in 2006, and today the company is led by James Arthur "Art" Pope of Raleigh, a 1978 Carolina graduate who is also chairman and president of the John William Pope Foundation, which funds numerous charities and free market oriented organizations.

CHARLES LOUDERMILK

The Loudermilk Center for Excellence was made possible in part by a generous contribution from R. Charles Loudermilk Sr., a long-time friend and benefactor of UNC academic and athletic interests. Born in Atlanta, Mr. Loudermilk graduated from Carolina in 1950 with a degree in commerce and was good friends with many Tar Heels who made the Justice Era of the late 1940s such a memorable chapter in Tar Heel football.

In 1955, Mr. Loudermilk launched a furniture rental business in his hometown, naming it Aaron Rents so that it would be listed first in the phone book. The business grew into a multi-billion dollar concern and today is known as Aaron's, Inc.

Mr. Loudermilk in 2011 remained as chairman of the company. His past support of Carolina includes gifts to expand the Kenan-Flagler Business School's executive education facilities at the Rizzo Conference Center. He was also the major contributor toward the statue of Charlie Justice that stands outside the Kenan Football Center. Mr. Loudermilk's many honors include the William R. Davie Award, the highest recognition given by the UNC Board of Trustees. He has also served on the Board of Visitors of UNC's Kenan-Flagler Business School.

THE KENAN FAMILY

William Rand Kenan Jr. & Bob Fetzer

James Kenan of Duplin was one of the original trustees of the fledgling campus in Chapel Hill and was present on Oct. 12, 1793, when the cornerstone to Old East was laid. Since then, the Kenan Family has held an integral role in the evolution of UNC as one of the top academic and athletic institutions in the nation.

William Rand Kenan Sr. and his wife Mary Hargrave Kenan are the namesakes for Kenan Memorial Stadium. Kenan was the grandson of James Kenan and the father of William Rand Kenan Jr., whose fortune made in the early 1900s in chemicals, power, railroads and hotels financed the construction of the stadium in 1926-27. William Jr., an 1894 Carolina graduate and Tar Heel halfback in football and later a professor in chemistry, honored his parents with the naming of the stadium.

Another branch of the Kenan family included Frank H. Kenan (right), a Tar Heel football player in the 1930s, a 1935 Carolina graduate and a successful businessman with interests in oil, trucking and real estate. Mr. Kenan had a tremendous impact on the growth of the University. He served on many campus boards, including the Board of Visitors and the Educational Foundation Board of Directors. He passed away in 1996 at the age of 83, just one year before seeing the new football center in his name open for the 1997 season.

Today the Kenan legacy lives on through the William R. Kenan Jr. Charitable Trust, which has donated more than $100 million to schools in the state's consolidated university system, including Carolina, N.C. State and the N.C. School of the Arts. Among other things, the trust funds 92 William R. Kenan Jr. Professorships at 56 colleges and universities nationwide.

KENAN STADIUM POLICIES & STADIUM INFORMATION

- Alcoholic beverages are prohibited at Kenan Stadium. Individuals violating this policy will be issued the appropriate citation and escorted out of the stadium.
- ATM machines are located in Kenan Stadium behind Sections 114 and 117 on the west end concourse as well as near Gate 6 on the South Side and near Gate 2 on the North Side.
- Homemade banners and signs are not allowed inside Kenan Stadium without prior approval.
- In order to insure that everyone has a pleasant experience, it is up to each patron to act responsibly and to be considerate of those around them. Patrons should notify a member of the game management staff if someone is not complying with this policy.
- Event staff reserves the right to deem an act or behavior to be inappropriate based on available information and to take whatever action necessary.
- Seating for patrons with disabilities is available on game day by asking for the game supervisor as you enter Kenan Stadium.
- South Orange Rescue Squad provides first aid at Gates 2 (North Side) and Gate 6 (South Side) at Kenan Stadium.
- Patrons are not allowed to bring any food or beverages with them into Kenan Stadium. However, bottled water (sealed and unopened) is permitted.
- During an event you may check with game management staff at Gate 2 or 6 to see if an item of yours was found and turned in. After an event, all unclaimed items are turned over to Campus Police, and you may contact them at 919-962-8100.
- Parents/guardians with a lost child should contact the nearest police officer or event staff member. That person will then contact the proper personnel to insure the quickest resolution to the situation.
- The University of North Carolina Department of Athletics implemented a clear bag policy at Kenan Stadium and the Dean E. Smith Center starting with the 2017-18 academic year.
- The policy is designed to reduce wait times for fans entering Kenan Stadium and the Smith Center and put UNC in line with most college and professional venues in terms of fan safety measures.
- Carolina Athletics encourages fans to leave all bags at home, but the following items will be allowed into Kenan Stadium and the Smith Center:
 - Any clear plastic or vinyl bag no larger than 12" x 6" x 12", including gallon freezer bags.
 - Small clutch purses no larger than 4.5" x 6.5".
 - Necessary medical items following inspection at entry gates.
- Prohibited items include, but are not limited to, the following: purses larger than a clutch bag, coolers, briefcases, backpacks, diaper bags, fanny packs, luggage of any kind, computer bags and camera bags.
- Fans are still allowed to carry items such as phones, binoculars and cameras into the arena.
- Effective January 1, 2008, there is NO SMOKING within 100 feet of any campus building. This includes all areas of Kenan Stadium.
- UNC Athletics and the Department of Public Safety thank you for your cooperation and understanding.

TB Jordon Brown

SEASON IN REVIEW

North Carolina finished a difficult 2017 campaign with a 3-9 record that included two wins in the last three weeks. Plagued by injuries throughout the season, the Tar Heels dropped eight of their first nine contests before rallying to beat Pittsburgh on a Thursday night in November and then thumping Western Carolina on Senior Day at Kenan Stadium.

Three players saw extended time at quarterback in 2017, with graduate transfer Brandon Harris starting the opener before giving way to redshirt freshman Chazz Surratt. Surratt was outstanding in a road win at Old Dominion that was the first victory of 2017 for Carolina, and he finished the year with a team-best 1,342 passing yards.

Redshirt sophomore Nathan Elliott took over at quarterback when Surratt was injured against Miami, and the Selina, Texas, native was the starter for the final three games. Elliott threw for a team-high 10 touchdowns across five games, including the two November wins that provided some momentum heading into the offseason.

The young tailback duo of sophomore Jordon Brown and freshman Michael Carter proved to be successful despite the lack of experience of the two primary ball-carriers.

Brown, who entered 2017 as the only tailback on the roster with game experience, led the team with 613 rushing yards. Carter had a nose for the end zone in his first season in Chapel Hill, rushing for 559 yards and a team-best eight touchdowns.

RATLIFF-WILLIAMS A DOUBLE ALL-ACC PICK

- Anthony Ratliff-Williams was named to the All-ACC first team as a return specialist and was also named a third-team selection as an all-purpose back.

- Ratliff-Williams emerged as one of the nation's top return men in his second season on the field for the Tar Heels. His kickoff return touchdowns against Louisville and Pitt tied a school single-season record.

His 895 kickoff return yards were second-most nationally and rank fourth in UNC history.

Ratliff-Williams was dynamic on offense as well, leading Carolina in receptions (35), receiving yards (630) and receiving touchdowns (6). Overall, he ended the regular season ranked third in the league in all-purpose yards per game at 127.2 per contest. Ratliff-Williams also proved to be a dangerous passer, completing 3 of 4 passes for 86 yards and two touchdowns. For the season, he was responsible for 10 touchdowns (six receiving, two passing, two return).

WR Anthony Ratliff-Williams

STEWART CAPS CAREER WITH SCHOOL RECORD

- Senior M.J. Stewart broke up a pass late in the win at Pitt to establish a new UNC career record for pass breakups with 41.
- Stewart etched his name in the Carolina defensive record books with 12 pass breakups in his senior campaign, giving him 41 for his career. That number is a new UNC record for pass breakups, surpassing Robert Williams' mark of 40 set from 1995-97. The Arlington, Virginia, native also had 45 tackles, 5.0 tackles for loss and 2.0 sacks on the year.
- By earning honorable mention All-ACC honors as a senior, Stewart made it three straight years with all-league recognition. He was a second-team pick at cornerback in 2015 and an honorable mention selection in 2016.

INJURIES FORCE YOUTH TO SHINE FOR UNC

- Carolina had 20 first-time starters in 2017, including eight freshmen.
- Sixteen different freshmen saw playing time in 2017, including seven true freshmen.
- Freshmen led the team in both rushing touchdowns (Michael Carter, 8) and passing yards (Chazz Surratt, 1,342), and underclassmen accounted for all 17 rushing touchdowns and 21 of 22 passing touchdowns in 2017. Sophomore Ratliff-Williams led the Tar Heels in receptions (35), receiving yards (630) and receiving touchdowns (6).
- Underclassmen also led Carolina in total offense (Surratt, 1,552) and all-purpose yards (Ratliff-Williams, 1,526).
- Three different quarterbacks - who had a combined nine career pass attempts at UNC prior to the season - started for the Tar Heels.

THREE TAR HEELS SELECTED IN NFL DRAFT

- M.J. Stewart, Andre Smith and Austin Proehl heard their names called at the 2018 NFL Draft at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas. UNC's all-time leader in pass breakups, Stewart went to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers with the 21st pick of the second round and the 53rd pick overall. Smith and Proehl were seventh-round picks, with Smith going to the Carolina Panthers and Proehl tabbed by the Buffalo Bills.
- Stewart is the sixth Tar Heel to be selected in the first two rounds under head coach Larry Fedora, with Stewart joining Jonathan Cooper (first, 2013), Sylvester Williams (first, 2013), Giovani Bernard (second, 2013), Eric Ebron (first, 2014) and Mitch Trubisky (first, 2017).
- With Smith and Proehl joining Stewart, Carolina has had 19 total draft picks in Fedora's six seasons at UNC and four years with three or more selections in the Fedora era.

QUICK HITS

- 🏈 Carolina has won 11 of its last 15 true road games dating to 2014 - wins at Georgia Tech, Pittsburgh (twice), Virginia Tech, Florida State, NC State, Illinois, Florida State, Miami, Virginia and Old Dominion.
- 🏈 Carolina has 16 total kick and punt return touchdowns since the start of the Larry Fedora era in 2012. That total is tied for the lead among all FBS programs during that six-year time frame.
- 🏈 UNC players had the longest kick return (Ratliff-Williams, 98 yards), fumble return (Cayson Collins, 66 yards) and interception return (73 yards) in the ACC in 2017.
- 🏈 UNC scored six rushing touchdowns against ODU, matching the most rushing scores for the Tar Heels under Larry Fedora. Sophomore TB Jordon Brown had a career-high 123 rushing yards and two TDs to lead the attack.
- 🏈 Senior Austin Proehl set career highs with eight catches and 120 receiving yards against Louisville. His previous highs were seven catches vs. Stanford in the 2016 Sun Bowl and seven vs. Pitt last year. His previous high in receiving yards was 99 vs. Pitt.
- 🏈 Fedora guided the Tar Heels to 40 wins in his first five seasons at the helm. Only Dick Crum won more games (42) in his first five seasons in Chapel Hill since the ACC began in 1953.
- 🏈 Fedora sports a 26-14 mark at Kenan Stadium during his career in Chapel Hill. His 25 home wins in his first five seasons were the most by any UNC coach in his first five seasons.
- 🏈 Fedora-coached teams have been responsible for five of the top 10 offensive seasons in UNC history.
- 🏈 Carolina has established more than 100 school single-season and career offensive records since 2012. In 2016, the Tar Heels established 36 individual records and six team records.

Cal 35, Carolina 30
Sept. 2 • Kenan Stadium
Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL (AP) --- Ross Bowers threw for 363 yards and four touchdowns in his first college start, helping California beat North Carolina 35-30 on Saturday in the Golden Bears' first game under Justin Wilcox.

Bowers, a sophomore, had never thrown a pass in a college game and had to win a preseason battle for the starting job. But he shook off two interceptions and came up with several good throws to help Cal (1-0) win its first East Coast day game since 2012.

Vic Wharton III had five catches for 156 yards for Cal, which trailed 17-7 in the second quarter. But a targeting penalty on UNC's Jalen Dalton extended a drive to set up Wharton's 67-yard score just before halftime, a game-changing sequence that helped Cal outscore UNC 28-7.

Michael Carter scored twice for UNC (0-1), which started LSU graduate transfer Brandon Harris at quarterback but leaned more on redshirt freshman Chazz Surratt.

Cal figured to look different after the past four years of the prolific "Bear Raid" offense and porous defense. The offense still put up strong numbers on the strength of several huge gains, while the defense never let a young UNC offense build any sustained momentum. Hard to imagine Wilcox could've asked for much more in his debut.

The Tar Heels entered the offseason and preseason camp with a lot of questions on offense, most notably with the departure of No. 2 overall NFL draft pick Mitch Trubisky at quarterback. And this game showed that the Tar Heels are going to need a lot of work to look anything like the fast-paced and high-scoring unit of past years.

Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL (AP) -- Reigning Heisman Trophy winner Lamar Jackson accounted for 525 total yards and six touchdowns to help No. 17 Louisville pull away late and beat North Carolina 47-35 on Saturday.

Jackson threw for 393 yards and three scores while also running for 132 yards and three TDs. The last came on a spinning-through-tacklers 11-yard run with 3:06 left to punctuate a dominant fourth-quarter effort by the Cardinals (2-0, 1-0 Atlantic Coast Conference).

Junior Jaylen Smith had nine catches for a career-high 183 yards and a score for Louisville, while Dez Fitzpatrick hauled in two TDs as the Cardinals rolled to 705 yards.

Louisville trailed 28-27 entering the final quarter, but went ahead on Jackson's 3-yard keeper with 13:50 left. Louisville's defense then came up with two fourth-down stops to end promising drives by the Tar Heels (0-2, 0-1).

UNC quarterbacks Chazz Surratt and Brandon Harris combined to throw for three scores.

There didn't seem to be a lot of preseason buzz about Jackson's Heisman chances, even though he has a shot at becoming only the second two-time winner of the award going to college football's top player. But this game - a week after he had 485 total yards against Purdue - was a reminder of how effortless Jackson can make things look, whether he was connecting downfield or weaving through UNC's defense on another sticks-moving run.

The Tar Heels are 0-2 for the first time since 2010 and leave this game with a lot of questions. Surratt started over Harris but didn't play in the second half, while UNC's shuffled offensive line lost starting center Cam Dillard in the third quarter. Meanwhile, the defense that was supposed to be improved thanks to more returning experience offered meager resistance to Jackson and the Cardinals.

Carolina 53, Old Dominion 23
Sept. 16 • Ballard Stadium
Norfolk, Va.

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) --- Chazz Surratt gave North Carolina exactly what it needed — a solid, mistake-free performance that allowed the Tar Heels to take control early and end a season-opening two-game losing streak.

Surratt ran for two touchdowns and threw for one as the Tar Heels dominated Old Dominion 53-23 Saturday.

"I thought he made some good decisions, didn't put the ball in harm's way, which was important," coach Larry Fedora said after the redshirt freshman completed 16 of 24 passes for 257 yards.

The game wasn't quite the 80-20 victory the Tar Heels (1-2) handed the Monarchs four years ago, but seemed to have the potential for that as North Carolina took a 39-7 lead at halftime. The Monarchs' only points came on a 100-yard kickoff return by Isaiah Harper.

North Carolina, meanwhile, scored three touchdowns, each on a drive lasting under 2 minutes, in a span of 4:12 in the second quarter. After losses to California and No. 14 Louisville to open the season, both with poor defensive efforts, the victory was critical.

"I think winning eases a lot of things," Fedora said. "It was important to get this win and the alternative is not very good."

With students streaming for the exits before halftime, Old Dominion (2-1) turned to 17-year-old freshman Steven Williams Jr., at quarterback. The leftlander used a 19-yard run to set the Monarchs up at the UNC 5, but fumbled the ball away two plays later.

In the second half, with Williams behind center, two pass interference calls against North Carolina aided a drive to Nick Rice's 48-yard field goal. Williams later hit Travis Fulgham for a 71-yard touchdown and Hasaan Patterson for an 18-yard score.

"We did not play well which was why we made the move to go to a true freshman," coach Bobby Wilder said, adding that Williams provided the spark — and the production — Old Dominion's struggling offense had been looking for in its first two games.

He will be the starter going forward, Wilder said.

Jordan Brown ran for 125 yards and he and Michael Carter each ran for two touchdowns.

CHAPEL HILL (AP) --- Shaun Wilson ran 1 yard for the go-ahead touchdown midway through the fourth quarter, Bryon Fields returned an interception 61 yards for the game-sealing score and Duke beat North Carolina 27-17 on Saturday.

The Blue Devils (4-0, 1-0 Atlantic Coast Conference) matched their victory total from last year, prolonged their best start since 2014 and kept possession of the Victory Bell traveling trophy by beating the rival Tar Heels (1-3, 0-2) for the second straight year — just the second time that's happened since 1989.

Daniel Jones was 18 of 32 for 202 yards with a 28-yard touchdown pass to Davis Koppenhaver and a key 45-yard pass to T.J. Rahming to start the drive that ended with Wilson's TD.

Chazz Surratt ran 56 yards for a touchdown and threw a 45-yard TD pass to Anthony Ratliff for North Carolina, but followed Wilson's short scoring run with the play of the game — his odd-looking interception to Fields, who returned it down the left sideline for his school-record fourth career pick-six with 4:01 remaining.

Austin Parker kicked field goals of 27 and 24 yards for Duke. Freeman Jones kicked a 34-yard field goal for the Tar Heels.

The Blue Devils' defense, which entered as the nation's best against the run, once again got away with giving up big plays. Duke allowed passes covering 35, 45 and 47 yards in addition to the 56-yard rush by Surratt. A week ago, Baylor had scoring plays that covered 44, 73 and 79 yards.

The Tar Heels will bemoan both the interception and the run of injuries that continue to plague the team. They ruled three starters out with season-ending injuries in the days leading up to this game — then lost top receiver Austin Proehl after his early 47-yard catch. WR Rontavious Groves was hurt early in the fourth quarter of his first college game, clutching his right knee after he planted it while trying to make a catch.

Georgia Tech 33, Carolina 7
Sept. 30 • Bobby Dodd Stadium
Atlanta, Ga.

ATLANTA (AP) --- Georgia Tech played keep-away against North Carolina, dominating the clock with its ball-control offense, and KirVonte Benson scored on a 63-yard run as the Yellow Jackets beat the Tar Heels 33-7 on Saturday.

Georgia Tech (3-1, 2-0 Atlantic Coast Conference) had scoring drives of 18 and 17 plays in the first half to wear down short-handed North Carolina (1-4, 0-3).

TaQuon Marshall ran for 137 yards, including a 5-yard touchdown run, and threw a 12-yard scoring pass to Ricky Jeune. Benson added 130 yards rushing.

Georgia Tech ran 65 plays, compared to 58 for North Carolina, and held the all for more than 38 minutes.

The Tar Heels have lost 13 players, including top wide receiver Austin Proehl, to season-ending injuries.

North Carolina avoided being shut out when Jordan Brown scored on an 8-yard run with 5:05 remaining. The touchdown was set up by Chazz Surratt's 34-yard pass to Jordan Cunningham.

It was a dramatic departure from recent shootouts in the series. North Carolina averaged 44.7 points in winning the last three games against Georgia Tech.

The Yellow Jackets held the ball for 18 plays and 8 minutes, 54 seconds on a 90-yard touchdown drive capped by Marshall's 5-yard run in the first quarter.

It was Georgia Tech's longest touchdown drive since 2012. The Yellow Jackets then added a 17-play, 74-yard drive in the second quarter that ended with a 21-yard field goal by Shawn Davis.

It marked the first time in Paul Johnson's 10 seasons as Georgia Tech's coach the Yellow Jackets had two scoring drives of at least 17 plays in a game.

Georgia Tech, which lost four fumbles in last week's 35-17 win over Pittsburgh, had two more lost fumbles by Marshall and Benson. One play after Marshall's fumble, A.J. Gray had the first of his two interceptions to give possession back to the Yellow Jackets. Benson then broke free for his 63-yard touchdown run.

Georgia Tech backup quarterback Matthew Jordan had a 5-yard scoring run with less than 2 minutes remaining.

Notre Dame 33, Carolina 10
Oct. 7 • Kenan Stadium
Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL (AP) --- Josh Adams ran for 118 yards, including a 73-yard touchdown, and No. 21 Notre Dame beat North Carolina 33-10 on Saturday.

Deon McIntosh added 124 yards rushing and two scores for the Fighting Irish (5-1), who played without starting quarterback Brandon Wimbush due to a right foot injury.

Wimbush was on the sideline as the No. 2 QB behind Ian Book, though the Fighting Irish had no trouble surpassing the win total from a frustrating 2016 season.

Book threw for a score and had two interceptions, one coming after Notre Dame reached the UNC 18 to end the Irish's perfect red-zone season conversion rate.

Notre Dame finished with 487 yards, 341 coming on the ground.

Chazz Surratt threw a 25-yard touchdown pass to Anthony Ratliff-Williams before halftime in the only noteworthy offensive play for the Tar Heels (1-5). North Carolina didn't crack 200 total yards until late in the third quarter and finished with 265.

The Fighting Irish certainly can lean on their sturdy ground game. They entered ranked second nationally with 20 rushing touchdowns, third in yards per carry (7.14) and seventh in rushing yards per game (301.4). It certainly offered unflashy reliability Saturday, particularly with steady rain during much of the game.

The Tar Heels have been in this position before under sixth-year coach Larry Fedora, starting 1-5 in 2013 before running off five straight wins and winning a bowl game. But matching that seems beyond this year's group, which entered the year with inexperience throughout a traditionally strong offensive unit and has been hammered since by injuries. That list grew again Saturday, with starting punter Tom Sheldon leaving after the first with an unspecified injury and starting safety Donnie Miles exiting in the third with an apparent right arm injury.

CHAPEL HILL (AP) --- Kurt Benkert passed for 249 yards and two touchdowns to help Virginia beat North Carolina 20-14 on Saturday.

Jordan Ellis rushed for a career-high 136 yards for the Cavaliers (5-1, 2-0 Atlantic Coast Conference), who are off to their best start since 2007. Virginia snapped its seven-game losing streak against North Carolina with its fourth consecutive victory overall.

Chris Peace sacked North Carolina's Brandon Harris on fourth down with 1:07 left to seal the win.

The Cavaliers took the lead for good on an 81-yard touchdown catch by Olamide Zaccheaus in the third quarter.

Freshman Michael Carter rushed for a season-high 157 yards and two touchdowns for North Carolina (1-6, 0-4). Carter ran for 127 yards and both of his scores in the third quarter as the Tar Heels came back from a 10-0 halftime deficit.

North Carolina lost its fourth straight game despite a change at quarterback.

Chazz Surratt, who had started each of North Carolina's last five games, did not play. Harris replaced him, completing 7 of 18 passes for 46 yards and three interceptions.

The Tar Heels went scoreless in the first half for the second time in three weeks. They had just four first downs and 75 yards of offense at halftime to go along with five penalties for 46 yards.

The Cavaliers banked another win in their quest to reach a bowl game for the first time since 2011. With a tough final month that includes home games against Georgia Tech and Virginia Tech as well as trips to Louisville and Miami, Virginia would be well advised to find its sixth win as soon as possible.

The Tar Heels are in big trouble, and their streak of four consecutive seasons with a bowl game is going to end. They have at least one more win on their schedule (Western Carolina on Nov. 18), but the probability of suffering double-digit losses for the first time since 2003 is growing each week.

Blacksburg, Va.

BLACKSBURG, Va. (AP) --- Josh Jackson threw three touchdown passes and No. 14 Virginia Tech scored on fumble, interception and punt returns to rout North Carolina 59-7 on Saturday.

Jackson passed for 132 yards and the Hokies (6-1, 2-1 Atlantic Coast Conference) dominated in sending the Tar Heels (1-7, 0-5) to their fifth straight loss.

Off last week, Virginia Tech looked rested and focused and played that way, scoring in all three phases in the first half and bolting to a 35-0 halftime lead. Virginia Tech scored twice on defense, getting the first score of the game on defensive tackle Ricky Walker's 12-yard fumble return.

The Hokies added Greg Stroman's 91-yard punt return for a touchdown -- his second punt return for a score this season -- and defensive back Reggie Floyd's 69-yard interception return for a score.

North Carolina only got into Virginia Tech territory three times, turned the ball over three times, and finished with just 172 yards.

The Tar Heels gave up 59 points, but their issues are on offense. They played three quarterbacks -- Chazz Surratt, Brandon Harris and Nathan Elliott -- and none were effective. Their three turnovers led to 21 Virginia Tech points.

Virginia Tech's defense might have played its best game of the season, as it thoroughly controlled the game until the fourth quarter when coordinator Bud Foster started substituting. Aside from 43-yard touchdown pass from Surratt to Anthony Ratliff-Williams, the Hokies didn't give up any big plays and registered a season-high six sacks.

CHAPEL HILL (AP) --- Malik Rosier threw for a career-high 356 yards with three touchdowns to help eighth-ranked Miami hold off North Carolina 24-19 on Saturday.

Rosier had a 51-yard touchdown throw to Christopher Herndon IV late in the first half and a 78-yarder to Jeff Thomas to open the third quarter. His 5-yarder to Braxton Berrios gave the Hurricanes (7-0, 5-0 Atlantic Coast Conference) a 24-13 fourth-quarter lead.

Still, Miami had to come up with a couple late plays after UNC made it a one-score game.

First the Hurricanes recovered a fumble by Jordon Brown after the Tar Heels had pushed near the Miami 35 with 2:11 left. Then Rosier ran for a chains-moving keeper near the 2-minute mark, allowing Miami to run out the clock.

Nathan Elliott threw for one touchdown and three interceptions for the Tar Heels (1-8, 0-6) after starter Chazz Surratt was knocked from the game in the opening quarter.

The Hurricanes went from squeaking by in their last three wins by a combined 13 points to struggling much of the day against a 1-7 team relying on a third-string quarterback. Not the best way to go into the November stretch run, even as they remain unbeaten.

The Tar Heels responded to last week's blowout loss at Virginia Tech with a better showing. Still, UNC's offense struggled in the red zone by getting just three points on three first-half trips. And the defense repeated its habit of surrendering a couple huge plays to wipe out long stretches of solid execution.

Nov. 9 • Heinz Field
Pittsburgh, Pa.

PITTSBURGH (AP) --- Anthony Ratliff-Williams slipped his silver headphones off his ears and, asked innocently how he was feeling, replied "I'm tired."

Hard to blame him.

The North Carolina wide receiver returned the opening kickoff for a touchdown, threw for another on a trick play and hauled in the eventual go-ahead score midway through the fourth quarter as the Tar Heels ended a six-game losing streak with a 34-31 victory over Pittsburgh on Thursday.

"It's been too long," North Carolina quarterback Nathan Elliott said. "We haven't had that feeling in a long time. You walk in the locker room, you think we're 12-0."

Not exactly. Though it doesn't seem to matter where the Tar Heels (2-8, 1-6 Atlantic Coast Conference) are at when they face the Panthers. North Carolina is 5-0 against Pitt since the Panthers joined the ACC in 2013.

Last season, the Tar Heels needed a touchdown throw on the final snap to hold off Pitt. This time, the deciding score came a bit sooner. Ratliff-Williams hauled in a 3-yard flip from Elliott with 6:18 left to bookend an electric night for the sophomore wide receiver.

Ratliff-Williams accounted for 230 all-purpose yards for the Tar Heels. He ran through a sea of arm tackles 98 yards to the end zone on the opening kickoff, floated a 35-yard score to Josh Cabrera in the second quarter before catching Elliott's second touchdown pass as North Carolina beat a Power Five conference team for the first time in 369 days.

"You go on the road in the ACC and win here, that's a tough thing to do," Tar Heels coach Larry Fedora said. "I'm proud of those guys. It's something they can build off of. The staff and the seniors have done a great job of keeping them close and keeping them believing. Good things are starting to happen."

Nathan Elliott completed 20 of 31 passes for 235 yards and two scores in his first start.

"He did exactly what Nathan Elliott can do," Fedora said. "He's been such a great teammate, biding his time, working his butt off, never saying a word, waiting for his opportunity and when his opportunity has come up, he's made something out of it."

Darrin Hall ran for 121 yards and four touchdowns for Pitt (4-6, 2-4), but the Panthers saw their modest two-game winning streak come to an end.

CHAPEL HILL (AP) --- North Carolina quarterback Nathan Elliott could feel the momentum, both in a game-changing second quarter Saturday and a possibly redemptive November for the Tar Heels.

Elliott, a sophomore making his second start, threw four first-half touchdown passes as UNC cruised past Western Carolina 65-10. The victory gives the Tar Heels (3-8) their first win streak of what has been a disappointing season, one that would look far better if UNC could continue the winning next weekend at rival N.C. State.

Elliott credits the senior class, which played its last game in Kenan Stadium, with keeping the Tar Heels on task despite falling to 1-8 on Oct. 28 with a 24-19 loss to unbeaten Miami.

"They have kept this team together this year when we were falling apart," he said. "I cannot thank them enough, and I am glad we were able to send them out the right way."

North Carolina scored 21 points in a span of 2 minutes, 46 seconds in the second quarter to take control against the outmanned Catamounts.

After punting on its first possession, UNC scored six touchdowns the next six times it touched the ball, including a 28-yard fumble return by Jonathan Smith for a 28-7 lead.

Josh Cabrera caught two touchdown passes in the second quarter to stake the Tar Heels to a 42-7 halftime lead. Elliott, who had a first-half streak of 10 consecutive completions, finished 18 of 28 passing for 240 yards and no turnovers.

"You just keep building off it, you could feel the momentum," Elliott said. "We were going out there just expecting to score."

Michael Carter had 16 carries for 103 yards and a touchdown for the Tar Heels, who outgained the Catamounts 231-32 in the second quarter.

Western Carolina (7-5), a member of the Football Championship Subdivision, led 7-0 on Connell Young's 1-yard reception but found little success after that in dropping to 0-54 all-time against Football Bowl Subdivision teams.

The Tar Heels, who outgained WCU 611-304, were uplifted by the return of senior wide receiver Austin Proehl. Playing for the first time since Sept. 23 against Duke, Proehl had three catches for 52 yards.

NC State 33, Carolina 21
Nov. 25 • Carter-Finley Stadium
Raleigh, N.C.

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) --- Nyheim Hines rushed for a career-best 196 yards and two long touchdowns, and North Carolina State beat North Carolina 33-21 on Saturday night.

Jaylen Samuels added a game-sealing 10-yard score, and Ryan Finley ran for two short scores and was 20 of 30 for 204 yards. The Wolfpack (8-4, 6-2 Atlantic Coast Conference) bounced back from a brutally dramatic loss at Wake Forest and closed the regular season by winning two of three.

In each of N.C. State's last three victories, dating to a win at Pittsburgh in mid-October, Hines has come through with at least one long scoring play and he helped decide a largely disjointed, sometimes chippy renewal of the neighborhood rivalry in which the teams were flagged a combined 23 times for 235 yards.

In this one, Hines burst through the right side and raced 54 yards into the end zone to put the Wolfpack up 19-14 with 40 seconds left in the third quarter. Then he ran 48 yards for another TD on N.C. State's next possession, and the Wolfpack converted the two-point try to make it 27-13.

Nathan Elliott's third touchdown pass, a 1-yard toss to Jordan Cunningham, pulled the Tar Heels within six with 8:16 remaining. N.C. State chewed up nearly seven minutes on the drive that ended with Samuels' score with 1:33 to play.

Elliott finished 21 of 45 for 277 yards for the Tar Heels (3-9, 1-7), whose two-game winning streak ended. He also threw TDs covering 51 yards to Anthony Ratliff-Williams and 24 yards to Michael Carter, with that one putting UNC up 14-6 early in the second quarter.

This wasn't a season to remember by any means for the Tar Heels, whose roster was besieged by injuries but who did play their best in the final month — with victories over Pittsburgh and Western Carolina sandwiched by moral-victory losses to No. 2-for-now Miami and to the Wolfpack. Elliott, Ratliff-Williams and Carter once again showed why they'll be the foundation of the offense going forward.

FIRST-TEAM ALL-AMERICA SELECTIONS

GEORGE BARCLAY, GUARD, 1934

Barclay was Carolina's first football All-America. The 5-11, 185-pound guard and linebacker was a three-year standout for Chuck Collins and Carl Snively. A fine blocker and an extraordinary tackler, Barclay lined up in the offensive interior next to tackle Jim Tatum. He was captain of the 1934 team which went 7-1-1. Barclay later served as head coach at Carolina for three seasons, from 1953 to 1955.

ANDY BERSHAK, END, 1937

A 185-pound end, Bershak was a two-way performer for the Tar Heels. He was a fine receiver, but was even better on defense. He played two years for Carl Snively and one for Ray Wolf. Bershak, an honor student, was also a basketball starter. He was selected to the Order of the Golden Fleece and served as president of the Carolina Athletic Association.

STEVE MARONIC, TACKLE, 1938

Maronic was a two-way tackle for the Tar Heels and team co-captain in 1938. He was an "iron man," playing almost 60 minutes in every game that season. He turned in two of his best performances in front of the New York media against NYU at Yankee Stadium and Fordham at the Polo Grounds. Those games solidified his All-America chances. Maronic also was a place-kicker and hit 13 straight PATs in his final season.

PAUL SEVERIN, END, 1939-40

Severin was a two-time All-America selection by the Associated Press (1939 and 1940) and made most of the all-star teams in his senior season. His career was filled with big plays—a touchdown catch to tie Tulane in 1939, two scoring catches against Penn that same season and a touchdown-saving tackle from behind of Duke's great Steve Lach in a 6-3 win over the Blue Devils in 1940.

CHARLIE JUSTICE, HALFBACK, 1948-49

Twice a runner-up for the Heisman Trophy, Justice is rated by many as the best all-around player in the history of Southern football. He was a true triple-threat performer, leading Carolina in rushing, passing and punting from 1946 to 1949. He sparked Tar Heel teams which appeared in the Sugar Bowl twice and the Cotton Bowl once. He was the school's all-time total offense leader with 4,883 yards for more than 40 years and still ranks as the Tar Heels' sixth-leading career scorer, eighth-leading rusher and 20th-leading passer. He had a career punting average of 42.6 and averaged 14.2 yards on punt returns and 26.6 yards on kickoff returns. In 1948 he received the national player of the year award from the Washington Touchdown Club and was the recipient of the Walter Camp Memorial Trophy. Justice is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame.

KEN POWELL, DEFENSIVE END, 1949

Powell teamed with Art Weiner to give UNC a formidable pass receiving threat in the post-World War II "Justice Era." He was outstanding in the 1947 Sugar Bowl against Georgia and earned first-team All-America honors at defensive end in 1949 by NEA. That organization named Powell to its All-America Team on defense, the first time it selected All-Americans on both offense and defense. He finished his career with 23 receptions for 324 yards and three touchdowns.

ART WEINER, END, 1948-49

A great all-around end, Weiner led the nation in receiving in 1949 with 52 catches. He had been seventh nationally in receiving the previous year with 31 catches. Until 1997 he held the UNC career record with 18 touchdown receptions. Many remember him best for a game-saving defensive play on the last snap of the 1949 Duke game. Weiner was named the most outstanding lineman in the Senior Bowl. Weiner was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1992.

IRV HOLDASH, CENTER, 1950

While Carolina's football fortunes slipped in the years immediately following the Charlie Justice Era, Holdash still received national attention for his outstanding play. A center on offense and linebacker on defense, Holdash was a three-year regular who never missed a game during his varsity career. He perhaps sealed All-America honors in 1950 with a sensational performance in a 14-7 loss at Notre Dame. Irish quarterback Bobby Williams called him "the best I've played against."

AL GOLDSTEIN, END, 1958

An outstanding two-way end, Goldstein earned All-America honors in 1958 by making 24 catches for 490 yards, averaging an amazing 20.4 yards per reception. Adept at making the seemingly impossible catch, he had a 68-yard TD reception at Virginia. He also starred defensively and had a 46-yard interception return for a touchdown against Maryland.

BOB LACEY, END, 1963

Lacey led the Atlantic Coast Conference in receiving in 1963 with 48 catches for 533 yards. His pass-catching was a key factor as Carolina rolled to a 9-2 record, defeating Air Force, 35-0, in the Gator Bowl. Lacey was also the team's top receiver in 1962 with 44 catches. He was the first Tar Heel player to have at least 40 catches in two seasons. His career total of 102 receptions is the 10th-best in school history.

DON McCAULEY, HALFBACK, 1970

McCauley shattered the Carolina and the Atlantic Coast Conference record books with a dazzling senior season in 1970. He rushed for 1,720 yards and scored 21 touchdowns, setting marks which still stand. His 1,720 yards was an all-time collegiate high at the time, breaking O.J. Simpson's NCAA record. McCauley led the nation in all-purpose running that season. He was twice the ACC Player of the Year and still ranks fifth in career rushing at UNC. He had a lengthy professional career with the Baltimore Colts. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2002.

Don McCauley is carried off the field by the Kenan Stadium faithful following his legendary final home game performance in 1970. McCauley rushed for 279 yards and scored five touchdowns in a 59-42 win over the Blue Devils.

RON RUSNAK, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1972

Rusnak was a unanimous All-America selection in 1972 as Carolina posted an 11-1 record. At 6-2 and 220 pounds, he did not have the size to play professional football, but Rusnak was a great college player. He was a two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference choice, starting on teams which combined for a 20-4 record. In 1972 he won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the best blocker in the ACC.

KEN HUFF, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1974

Huff was a key man on one of the most explosive units in Carolina history. He was the leader of an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels accumulate 4,691 yards, at the time a school record, in 1974. The 6-4, 255-pound Huff won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the best blocker in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Sparked in great part by his play up front, the Tar Heels had two backs rush for over 1,000 yards in the same season. Huff was the third player selected in the NFL Draft by the Baltimore Colts.

CHARLES WADDELL, TIGHT END, 1974

Waddell rates as one of the best all-around athletes in Carolina history. He won three football letters, two in basketball and one in track. Not only was he a fine receiver at tight end, but he was also a dynamic blocker. He set a school single-game record in 1974 with three touchdown catches against Clemson. He had 41 career catches for 518 yards and seven TDs. His professional career was cut short by a knee injury.

DEE HARDISON, DEFENSIVE TACKLE, 1977

A two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection, Hardison played on one of the top defensive teams in Carolina history. UNC led the nation in scoring defense in 1977, giving up just 7.4 points a game. The Tar Heels led the ACC in total, rushing, passing and scoring defense. A big reason was the play of Hardison, a 6-3, 252-pound tackle who dominated the line of scrimmage all season. After leaving Carolina he began a lengthy NFL career with the Buffalo Bills.

RICKY BARDEN, DEFENSIVE BACK, 1979

One of the top defensive backs in Carolina history, Barden was a repeat All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection in 1978 and 1979. Barden made nine career interceptions. He started at cornerback for two years and then was shifted to strong safety for his final year where he broke up nine passes and was the third-leading tackler on the team. His 156 yards on interception returns are the third-most in school history.

LAWRENCE TAYLOR, OUTSIDE LINEBACKER, 1980

From midway in his junior season until the end of his senior year in 1980, Taylor dominated the football field as few defensive players ever had. Now regarded as the finest outside linebacker in the history of the game, Taylor had a remarkable senior season which featured a school-record 16 quarterback sacks and six other tackles for losses. In Carolina's only close games in an 11-1 season, Taylor made the game-saving defensive plays against Texas Tech and Clemson. He was a runaway selection as ACC Player of the Year.

RON WOOTEN, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1980

Wooten won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy in 1980 as the best blocker in the Atlantic Coast Conference. He was the leading vote-getter in the offensive line on the All-ACC team. He was one of the leaders of an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels lead the ACC in total offense and which also helped produce two 1,000-yard backs. He went on to become a starting guard with New England in the NFL.

DAVID DRECHSLER, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1981-82

Drechsler became Carolina's first two-time All-America since Charlie Justice and Art Weiner when he earned first-team honors in 1981 and 1982. He played every position in the offensive interior during his Carolina career, but settled in at guard. The 6-4, 253-pound Drechsler played on Tar Heel teams which were 37-10-1 and were unbeaten in four bowl games. He also was the winner of a postgraduate scholarship from the NCAA. Drechsler went on to become a starter with the Green Bay Packers until a back injury forced him to give up the game.

WILLIAM FULLER, DEFENSIVE TACKLE, 1982-83

Fuller is one of just six Carolina players to win first-team All-America honors twice. Although powerfully built at 6-3 and 250 pounds, Fuller's greatest asset was his quickness. He used that quickness to make 13 tackles for losses and six sacks in 1982 and 17 tackles for losses with five sacks the following year. He was the only unanimous choice on the 1983 All-ACC team and is one of just three defensive linemen ever to make All-ACC for three straight years.

BRIAN BLADOS, OFFENSIVE TACKLE, 1983

When two Carolina tailbacks ran for over 1,000 yards in 1983, much of that yardage came behind Blados. The 6-6, 305-pound left tackle dominated the line of scrimmage as Carolina set a school total offense record and finished seventh nationally in yardage. Blados was named on 90 of 100 ballots in voting for the All-Atlantic Coast Conference team. He was a first round choice by the Cincinnati Bengals in the NFL Draft.

HARRIS BARTON, OFFENSIVE TACKLE, 1986

Barton was a four-year starter for the Tar Heels, first at center and then at tackle. With so many teams playing even-man front defenses, Barton was moved to tackle in 1984 to take better advantage of his skills. He excelled at left tackle, the key blocking spot in the Carolina passing game. As a senior, he led an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels rank first in the Atlantic Coast Conference and sixth nationally in total offense. An excellent student, he was chosen for a post-graduate scholarship by the National Football Foundation and was a first-round selection in the NFL Draft.

PAT CROWLEY, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1989

Crowley was a standout offensive guard and a leader of the first of Mack Brown's teams. He won first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors in 1987, 1988 and 1989 and became only the second offensive lineman in conference history to win three all-league honors (Virginia's Jim Dombrowski was the other). He started every game in his college career and helped open the way for a pair of 1,000-yard backs (Derrick Fenner in 1986 and Kennard Martin in 1988). He is one of three Tar Heels to be named first-team All-ACC in three seasons.

BRACEY WALKER, FREE SAFETY, 1993

The first Carolina defensive back to ever receive first-team All-America honors by a major organization, Walker burst onto the scene in 1992 when he was one of the stars of the Peach Bowl win over Mississippi State. Walker blocked two punts in that game, returned one of them for a tying touchdown and set up the game-winning interception with a jarring collision. He was the Defensive MVP of the Peach Bowl. In 1993 he led the Tar Heels with 100 tackles and was the co-leading vote-getter on the All-ACC first team defense. He also blocked four more punts, two of which were recovered in the end zone by Carolina, and was named the National Special Teams Player of the Year by Sports Illustrated.

MARCUS JONES, DEFENSIVE TACKLE, 1995

Jones became the first Tar Heel to earn consensus first-team All-America honors since Harris Barton in 1986 and the first defensive lineman since William Fuller in 1982-83. Jones had 25 career sacks and finished with 222 tackles. That included 46 behind the line of scrimmage. He broke Lawrence Taylor's school record for sacks and held that mark until Greg Ellis broke the record in 1997. He was named the Atlantic Coast Conference Defensive Player of the Year in 1995 and earned first-team All-ACC honors for the second straight season. He became the first Tar Heel defender to repeat all-conference selections since Tim Goad in 1986-87. As a senior he had a career-high 94 tackles, despite facing constant double- and triple-team efforts. He registered an ACC-leading 19 tackles for losses for 74 yards, seven of which were quarterback sacks. He was hampered in the first half of the season by a knee sprain. Over the last five weeks, however, he averaged 10.8 tackles per game and had 16 tackles for losses for 65 yards, including six sacks for 41 yards, and pressured the quarterback 13 times. Quite fittingly, Jones capped his career by sacking Arkansas quarterback Barry Lunney on the Razorbacks' final offensive play in Carolina's 20-10 win in the 1995 Carquest Bowl.

DRE' BLY, CORNERBACK, 1996-97

The first freshman in ACC history to earn consensus first-team All-America honors, Bly became just the fifth freshman in NCAA history to be named to the Associated Press All-America first team in 1996. He was also a first-team All-America selection by the Walter Camp Football Foundation, the Football Writers Association of America, The Sporting News and Athlon Sports and a finalist for the Thorpe Award as the National Defensive Back of the Year. He earned ACC first-team honors and was the league's Rookie of the Year. He is the only UNC freshman to earn first-team All-America honors. He made two second-half interceptions, broke up two passes and had seven tackles against West Virginia in the 1997 Gator Bowl. Bly led the nation in interceptions and interceptions per game. He set an ACC single-season interceptions record with 11, one more than Bob Sullivan of Maryland had in 10 games in 1965. The Chesapeake, Va. native had three multi-interception games. In 1997, Bly became the first player in UNC history to repeat consensus first-team All-America honors. He had five interceptions, including one he returned for a touchdown in a comeback win over Virginia. In 1998, he set the ACC all-time record with his 20th interception (not counting the two he had in the Gator Bowl). He was named first-team All-America by the Walter Camp Foundation. Bly is the only player in ACC history to earn first-team All-America honors on three occasions.

A defensive end from 1994-97, Ellis is the Tar Heels' career leader in quarterback sacks. The Wendell, N.C., native had 32.5 sacks for 253 yards in his career. He anchored a defense that was second in the country in total yards allowed in each of his final two seasons. Carolina posted a 21-3 record in that span and had consecutive Top 10 finishes in the polls. Ellis is one of only four players in Carolina football history to be named first-team All-ACC three times. He was voted by his teammates as a team captain and the best overall senior. He was the eighth selection in the first round of the 1998 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

BRIAN SIMMONS, OUTSIDE LINEBACKER, 1997

An outside linebacker from 1994-97, Simmons was a major contributor in Carolina's rise to the Top 10 in his final two seasons. A first-round draft selection of the Cincinnati Bengals, Simmons had 317 tackles over his last three seasons. He was named first-team All-America as a senior by the Associated Press, Walter Camp Foundation and Football News and was a first-team All-ACC selection and second-team AP All-America as a junior. The New Bern, N.C., native finished his career with 36 tackles for losses and 11 sacks.

Schmitz was named a first-team All-America in 1999 after averaging 47.8 yards per kick, an ACC and UNC record. He led the ACC and ranked second in the nation in punting average. Schmitz also set the ACC career record for punting average at 44.4 yards per kick. He had at least one 50-yard punt in all 11 UNC games in 1999 and 32 kicks of over 50 yards. He had 63 punts of 40 yards or more in 72 attempts on the season. Schmitz and backup punter Derrick DePriest combined to establish an NCAA single-season record for team punting average at 47.7 yards.

One of the top two-sport athletes in Carolina history, Peppers became the first Tar Heel defensive player to win a national college football award by winning both the Lombardi Award as the nation's top lineman and the Bednarik Award as the nation's top defensive player. In just three seasons, Peppers finished second at Carolina in career sacks and tackles for loss. In 2000, he led the nation with 15 sacks and established a school record with 24 tackles for losses. The following year, Peppers led a defense that finished first in the ACC and 15th in the nation in total defense. He became just the second Tar Heel

JONATHAN COOPER, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 2012

The most decorated offensive lineman in UNC history, Jonathan Cooper was a dominant force at left guard from 2009-12. He earned consensus All-America honors as a senior in 2012. He also captured the ACC Jacobs Blocking Trophy and was one of three finalists for the Outland Trophy, which is presented annually to the nation's top interior lineman. In doing so, he became the first Tar Heel to ever be a finalist for the award. He was a three-time All-ACC selection, earning first-team honors in 2012. A standout student off the field, Cooper earned an honorary postgraduate scholarship from the ACC and was named to the league's All-Academic Team. Cooper finished his career with 48 starts.

RYAN SWITZER, PUNT RETURNER, 2013;

ALL-PURPOSE, 2015

In 2013, Ryan Switzer became the first Carolina true freshman in program history to earn first-team All-America honors. Switzer emerged as one of the nation's elite punt returners in his first season at Carolina. The Charleston, W.Va., product tied the NCAA single-season record with five punt return touchdowns. He also became just the second player in NCAA history to return a punt for a score in three consecutive games. Switzer set the UNC single-season record for punt return yards per game at 20.9

Jonathan Cooper earned consensus first-team All-America honors at offensive guard in 2012 and was the No. 7 overall pick in the 2013 NFL Draft.

with a school-record 502 yards on just 24 returns. He repeated as a first-team All-America selection after an outstanding season as a wideout and punt returner. He tied for the team lead with 55 receptions and returned two punts for touchdowns.

ERIC EBRON, TIGHT END, 2013

Tight end Eric Ebron earned first-team All-America honors from ESPN.com in 2013 after setting single-season school records for receptions (62) and yards (973) by a tight end. His 973 receiving yards are also an ACC record by a tight end.

LONDON TURNER, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 2015

A four-year starter at guard, Landon Turner had an outstanding career at UNC and earned first-team All-America honors as a senior on a team that went 11-3, won the Coastal Division and played in the program's first-ever ACC Championship Game. Turner played in 52 games and made 42 career starts. As a senior, he was named ACC Offensive Lineman of the Week four times and graded out at 90 percent or better in 11 of 14 contests. A captain in 2015, he led an offensive line that helped pave the way for Carolina to rush for more than 220 yards per game and set more than 50 offensive school records.

Ryan Switzer became the first true freshman in school history to earn first-team All-America honors. He returned an NCAA-record five punts for touchdowns in 2013.

NORTH CAROLINA'S HONORED JERSEYS

#99 George Barclay*	#71 Marcus Jones
#59 Andy Bershak*	#87 Greg Ellis
#46 Bill Sutherland*	#41 Brian Simmons
#22 Charlie Justice*	#31 Dre' Bly
#50 Art Weiner*	#49 Julius Peppers
#10 Danny Talbott	#44 Kelvin Bryant
#23 Don McCauley	#67 Harris Barton
#62 Ron Rusnak	#60 Brian Blados
#68 Ken Huff	#25 Irv Holdash
#44 Mike Voight	#85 Bob Lacey
#71 Dee Hardison	#20 Amos Lawrence
#98 Lawrence Taylor	#87 Paul Severin
#95 William Fuller	#64 Jonathan Cooper
#12 Ethan Horton	*retired jersey

Twenty-seven former University of North Carolina football players have been honored in a special fashion as their names and jersey numbers have been honored in Kenan Stadium. The men include five who have already had their jersey numbers retired, Carolina's consensus first-team All-Americans and any athlete who was named Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year. Consensus All-Americans are those players who made the majority of the first-team selections in any given year. In 2003, the Athletics Council and Athletic Director Dick Baddour voted to also honor five first-team Associated Press All-Americans and two players who were among the ACC's greatest 50 football players.

GEORGE BARCLAY #99

A guard and linebacker from 1932 to 1934, whose number has been retired. He was the school's first football All-America and is a member of the state of North Carolina's Sports Hall of Fame. A guard and linebacker at 5-11, 185 pounds, Barclay was a standout for three seasons under coaches Chuck Collins and Carl Snavelly. A tremendous blocker and ferocious tackler, he was captain of the 1934 team that went 7-1-1. Barclay later served as UNC's head coach from 1953 until 1955.

ANDY BERSHAK #59

A great two-way end from 1935 to 1937 who was a consensus All-America in 1937. His number also has been retired. Bershak was a brilliant defender and his team's top receiver. He also was a starter on the basketball team and an honor student. Bershak was selected to the Order of the Golden Fleece and served as president of the Carolina Athletic Association.

BILL SUTHERLAND #46

A blocking back on the 1946 Sugar Bowl team, whose number has been retired. He died in an auto accident after his freshman year, stunning his teammates and Coach Carl Snavelly. Sutherland was named one of the Tar Heels' three captains for what would have been his sophomore season and Snavelly worked to ensure that his number would be retired.

CHARLIE JUSTICE #22

One of the most famous and popular athletes in the history of the state. Justice was a consensus All-America and twice runner-up for the Heisman Trophy. During his four seasons, 1946-49, Carolina went to the Sugar Bowl twice and the Cotton Bowl once. A single-wing tailback, he still holds many of the school's total offense records. In addition, he was a sensational punter and kick returner. He was the 1948 National Player of the Year.

ART WEINER #50

An outstanding two-way end from 1946 to 1949, whose number has been retired. Weiner won All-America honors in 1948 and 1949 and was the nation's leading receiver as a senior. He teamed with the legendary Charlie Justice to form perhaps the most potent offensive duo in school history. Voted the top lineman in the Senior Bowl, Weiner is a member of the National Football Hall of Fame. He is still ninth in UNC receptions with 106.

DANNY TALBOTT #10

A star quarterback from 1964 to 1966 and the 1965 ACC Player of the Year under head coach Jim Hickey. Talbott led the league in total offense and scoring that season. He had 318 yards of total offense in one game against Georgia, at the time a school record.

DON McCAULEY #23

The ACC Player of the Year as a junior and senior and a consensus All-America in 1970, his final season. McCauley was the first of Carolina's 23 backs to rush for 1,000 yards. He twice led the ACC in rushing with 1,092 yards in 1969 and 1,720 in 1970. That latter total at the time broke O.J. Simpson's single-season NCAA record. He also led the nation in all-purpose running as a senior and his 126 points that year still is the league record.

RON RUSNAK #62

An offensive guard on three bowl teams from 1970 to 1972 who won unanimous All-America honors in his senior season. At 6-2, 220 pounds, Rusnak wasn't as big as some linemen, but had great technique. He was the cornerstone of the offensive front on the 1972 team, which went 11-1. Rusnak was a two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference choice on teams which combined for a 20-4 record. He won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy in 1972 as the best blocker in the ACC.

KEN HUFF #68

A three-year starter at offensive guard from 1972 to 1974 and a consensus All-America as a senior. Huff was a dynamic blocker at 6-4 and 250 pounds. He was the key figure on the 1974 line which helped Carolina boast a pair of 1,000-yard backs and lead the ACC in total offense, rushing and scoring. Led by Huff, UNC accumulated 4,691 yards, at the time a school record. The Tar Heels were fifth nationally in total offense and ninth in scoring that season. Huff won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the best blocker in the Atlantic Coast Conference and was the third player selected overall in the 1974 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Colts.

MIKE VOIGHT #44

A hard-running tailback from 1973 to 1976 who was the ACC Player of the Year as both a junior and senior. Voight is second in Carolina history in rushing with 3,971 yards and fifth in scoring with 254 points. He had three 1,000-yard seasons and twice was the top ground-gainer in the ACC. In 1976 he scored 110 points and ran for 1,407 yards, including 261 in his final game — a dramatic 39-38 shootout with Duke.

DEE HARDISON #71

A defensive tackle from 1974 to 1977 and a consensus All-America as a senior. Hardison was the star of one of Carolina's greatest defenses in his final year. He dominated the line of scrimmage all season long as the Tar Heels led the nation in scoring defense in 1977, giving up just 7.4 points a game. Carolina also topped the ACC in total, rushing and pass defense that year. No team would lead the league in all four again until Florida State in its 1993 national championship season.

LAWRENCE TAYLOR #98

An outside linebacker from 1977 to 1980 who is regarded as the greatest player of all time at that position. Taylor was a consensus All-America and the ACC Player of the Year in 1980. He had a Carolina-record 16 quarterback sacks that season for losses totaling 127 yards. Sparked by his play, the Tar Heels went 11-1 in 1980 and won the ACC championship.

WILLIAM FULLER #95

A defensive lineman from 1980 to 1983 who was a consensus All-America as a senior. Also honored as a first-team All-America as a junior, he is one of only six Tar Heel players to be named first-team All-America twice. Fuller, who utilized his tremendous quickness to slice through offensive lines, had 22 tackles for losses in both 1981 and 1983. He is one of only three defensive linemen ever to make the All-ACC team three times.

ETHAN HORTON #12

The Associated Press ACC Player of the Year as a senior, Horton rushed for 1,247 yards in 1984 after a 1,107-yard performance in 1983. He was named the game's co-MVP in UNC's 1981 Gator Bowl win over Arkansas and was the MVP of the 1982 Sun Bowl.

MARCUS JONES #71

A defensive end/tackle from 1992 to 1995 who was a consensus All-America and the ACC Defensive Player of the Year as a senior. Jones had 24 career quarterback sacks to break Lawrence Taylor's school record. A two-time first-team All-ACC selection, Jones led a Tar Heel defense which had the ACC's No. 1 rated total defense in 1995. He finished his career with 222 tackles, including 46 for losses. Jones helped Carolina to four straight bowl invitations and wins in the 1993 Peach and 1995 Carquest Bowls.

GREG ELLIS #87

A defensive end from 1994 to 1997, Ellis is UNC's all-time leader in quarterback sacks. The Wendell, N.C., native had 32.5 sacks for 253 yards in his career. He anchored a defense that was second in the country in total yards in each of his final two seasons. Carolina posted a 21-3 record in that span and had consecutive Top 10 finishes in the polls. Ellis is one of only four players in Carolina football history to be named first-team All-ACC three times. He was voted by his teammates as a team captain and the best overall senior. He was the eighth selection in the first round of the 1998 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

BRIAN SIMMONS #41

An outside linebacker from 1994 to 1997, Simmons was a major contributor in Carolina's rise to the Top 10 in his final two seasons. A first-round draft selection of the Cincinnati Bengals in '97, Simmons had 317 tackles over his last three seasons. He was named first-team All-America as a senior by the Associated Press, Walter Camp Foundation and Football News and was a first-team All-ACC selection and second-team AP All-America as a junior. The New Bern, N.C., native finished his career with 36 tackles for losses and 11 sacks.

DRE' BLY #31

The Chesapeake, Va., native is the only player in Atlantic Coast Conference history to earn first-team All-America honors in three different seasons. Bly became the first freshman defensive player in college football history to earn consensus first-team All-America honors in 1996. When he repeated consensus honors in 1997, he became the first two-time consensus All-America in UNC football history. In 1998, he set the all-time ACC record for interceptions with 20 and was named first-team All-America by the Walter Camp Foundation. Bly led the nation as a freshman with 11 interceptions in the regular season and added two more pass thefts in the Gator Bowl win over West Virginia. Bly was named first-team All-America in 1996 by the Associated Press, The Sporting News, the Football Writers and the Walter Camp Foundation. In 1997, Bly added five more interceptions and was named All-America by the Associated Press, the Walter Camp Foundation, the Football Writers and Football News.

JULIUS PEPPERS #49

A unanimous All-America selection in 2001, Peppers won the 2001 Lombardi Award as the nation's top lineman. He also won the Chuck Bednarik Award as the nation's top overall defensive player, earned All-America honors in 2000 and was a two-time first-team All-ACC selection. Peppers ranks second at UNC and sixth in the ACC in career sacks, despite playing just three seasons. He led the nation with 15 sacks as a junior. One of the top two-sport athletes in ACC history, Peppers was a forward on UNC's basketball team where he helped the Tar Heels advance to the 2000 Final Four and earn a share of the 2001 ACC regular season title.

KELVIN BRYANT #44

A three-time first-team All-ACC tailback, Bryant ranks fourth at UNC with 3,267 rushing yards. He had three consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons from 1980-82. Despite injuries, he had 1,015 yards in seven games in 1981. He rushed for more than 100 yards in a game on 19 occasions and scored six touchdowns in a game against East Carolina in 1981. Bryant holds the NCAA record for most touchdowns scored in two and three consecutive games (11 and 15, respectively). He played eight years of professional football.

HARRIS BARTON #67

Barton was a four-year starter for the Tar Heels, first at center and then at tackle. With so many teams playing even-man front defenses, Barton was moved to tackle in 1984 to take better advantage of his skills. He excelled at left tackle, the key blocking spot in the Carolina passing game. As a senior, he led an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels rank first in the Atlantic Coast Conference and sixth nationally in total offense. An excellent student, he was chosen for a post-graduate scholarship by the National Football Foundation and was a first-round selection in the NFL draft.

BRIAN BLADOS #60

When two Carolina tailbacks ran for over 1,000 yards in 1983, much of that yardage came behind Blados. The 6-6, 305-pound left tackle dominated the line of scrimmage as Carolina set a school total offense record and finished seventh nationally in yardage. Blados was named on 90 of 100 ballots in voting for the All-Atlantic Coast Conference team. He was a first round choice by the Cincinnati Bengals in the NFL Draft.

IRV HOLDASH #25

While Carolina's football fortunes slipped in the years immediately following the Charlie Justice Era, Holdash still received national attention for his outstanding play. A center on offense and linebacker on defense, Holdash was a three-year regular who never missed a game during his varsity career. He perhaps sealed All-America honors in 1950 with a sensational performance in a 14-7 loss at Notre Dame. Irish quarterback Bobby Williams called him "the best I've played against."

BOB LACEY #85

Lacey led the Atlantic Coast Conference in receiving in 1963 with 48 catches for 533 yards. His pass-catching was a key factor as Carolina rolled to a 9-2 record, defeating Air Force, 35-0, in the Gator Bowl. Lacey was also the team's top receiver in 1962 with 44 catches. He was the first Tar Heel player to have at least 40 catches in two seasons. His career total of 102 receptions is the 10th-best in school history.

AMOS LAWRENCE #20

The only ACC player and one of only seven players in college football history to rush for 1,000 yards in four consecutive seasons, Lawrence holds the UNC career record and is second in ACC history with 4,391 yards rushing. He rushed for more than 100 yards in a game on 25 occasions and his 286 yards rushing vs. Virginia in 1977 was NCAA freshman rushing record at the time. Lawrence was named the co-MVP in the 1979 Gator Bowl and was the MVP of the 1980 Bluebonnet Bowl.

PAUL SEVERIN #87

Severin was a two-time All-America selection by the Associated Press (1939 and 1940) and made most of the all-star teams in his senior season. His career was filled with big plays—a touchdown catch to tie Tulane in 1939, two scoring catches against Penn that same season and a touchdown-saving tackle from behind of Duke's great Steve Lach in a 6-3 win over the Blue Devils in 1940.

CAROLINA'S ACC TOP 50 PLAYERS

In 2002, the Atlantic Coast Conference celebrated its 50th Anniversary and named the 50 greatest football players that have played in the conference. Carolina had eight players among that list, including:

Dre' Bly
Kelvin Bryant
William Fuller
Amos Lawrence
Don McCauley
Julius Peppers
Lawrence Taylor
Mike Voight

Amos Lawrence is the only ACC player to rush for 1,000 yards in four consecutive seasons.

JONATHAN COOPER #64

A consensus first-team All-America as a senior in 2012, Jonathan Cooper is one of the most decorated offensive linemen in UNC history. Cooper won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the ACC's best blocker and was named one of three finalists for the Outland Trophy. A three-time All-ACC selection, Cooper was the No. 7 overall pick in the 2013 NFL Draft.

1947 Sugar Bowl New Orleans, La. Georgia 20, Carolina 10 January 1, 1947

The 1947 Sugar Bowl, which matched Carolina against Georgia, is one of the most famous Tar Heel games of the Charlie "Choo Choo" Justice years and produced one of the most controversial plays in bowl history.

Carolina was leading 7-0 in the third period when Bulldog defensive right end Joe Tereshinski intercepted a Tar Heel pass at the Georgia 24-yard line. He then flipped a lateral to Dick McPhee who raced 52 yards to the Carolina 14.

The Tar Heels argued the lateral was a forward one and the play should have been called back. However, the officials ruled differently. Georgia went on to score the tying touchdown on a quarterback sneak by Johnny Rauch.

Carolina's lone touchdown came on a Walt Pupa two-yard run following an interception by Tar Heel guard Bob Mitten.

The Tar Heels' last lead at 10-7 came on a Bob Cox field goal.

The Georgia game-winner came on a 67-yard touchdown pass from Trippi to Dan Edwards less than three minutes after the UNC field goal.

1949 Sugar Bowl New Orleans, La. Oklahoma 14, Carolina 6 January 1, 1949

The Tar Heels returned to the Sugar Bowl in 1949 and were defeated 14-6 by the University of Oklahoma, representing the Big Seven Conference. A record crowd of 85,000 turned out to see the Charlie Justice-led Tar Heels battle Bud Wilkinson's Sooners.

Carolina threatened early, advancing via a Justice to Art Weiner 23-yard pass play to the OU 15. Justice's next pass, however, was intercepted by linebacker Myrle Greathouse who rumbled 59 yards to the Carolina 13. Sooners' quarterback Jack Mitchell scored the first points of the day on a two-yard run.

The Heels capitalized on an OU fumble later in the first quarter and Justice marched the team down to the two, from where Hosea Rodgers scored. The conversion was wide right.

Carolina advanced to the OU eight late in the first half, but could not score.

The Sooners regained the lead for good in the third quarter. Quarterback Darrell Royal connected for 37 yards with Frankie Anderson and two plays later, Lindell Pearson ran it in from eight yards out.

Justice was brilliant, rushing for 84 yards and passing for another 57.

1950 Cotton Bowl Dallas, Texas Rice 27, Carolina 13 January 1, 1950

Charlie Justice had another great day in the 1950 Cotton Bowl, but it just wasn't enough as the Tar Heels fell to fifth-ranked Rice, 27-13. The Owls had a 9-1-0 record, while Carolina came in at 7-3 and was ranked 16th.

Rice and Carolina played to a scoreless draw in the opening quarter, but Rice opened the scoring in the second quarter when quarterback Tobin Rote hooked up with Billy Burkhalter for a 44-yard touchdown. Bobby Lantrip's three-yard run built a 14-0 halftime lead, and the Owls kept right on rolling in the third quarter.

On its second possession of the second half, Rice traveled 77 yards in six plays, capped by Rote's 17-yard scoring pass to "Froggie" Williams. Burkhalter made it 27-0 with a 12-yard fourth quarter score.

The Tar Heels got two touchdowns in the final eight minutes. Justice hit Paul Rizzo for a two-yard touchdown pass and then Rizzo ran it in from two yards.

Justice managed 59 yards rushing and another 63 in the air, while Art Weiner led the Tar Heels with five receptions for 41 yards. Billy Hayes topped the UNC rushing attack with 107 yards on 19 carries.

The 1950 Cotton Bowl marked the end of the "Choo-Choo" Justice era that began in 1946. The Tar Heels went 32-9-2 in that time and played in three major bowl games.

1963 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 35, Air Force 0
December 28, 1963

It had been 13 years since Charlie Justice had led Carolina to the 1950 Cotton Bowl, so when the Tar Heels got a chance to play in the 1963 Gator Bowl, they made the most of it. The Tar Heels walloped the Air Force, 35-0.

Ken Willard was the hero of the day. He ran for 94 yards on 18 carries and scored the first touchdown which keyed the run-away victory. When Willard wasn't running in this rout, he did his share of the offensive blocking.

Joe Robinson scored on a five-yard pass and also caught a two-yard conversion to give the Tar Heels a 20-0 lead at intermission.

Coach Jim Hickey's Tar Heels had 23 first downs to the Academy's 14, and piled up 370 yards in total offense compared to 260 for the Falcons.

Gary Black completed all six of his passes for 71 yards and one touchdown and he rushed for another score. Junior Edge was good on five of his nine throws for 42 yards.

Carolina finished the season 9-2, its best record in Hickey's eight years at the helm.

1970 Peach Bowl
Atlanta, Ga.
Arizona State 48, Carolina 26
December 30, 1970

The Tar Heels exploded for 26 second quarter points but couldn't hold off Arizona State in the final two quarters as the Sun Devils rallied for an exciting 48-26 victory before 52,126 fans at Grant Field.

Carolina spotted unbeaten ASU 14 points on a pair of touchdowns runs, from eight and 33 yards, by Bob Thomas.

Don McCauley got the Tar Heels on the scoreboard with a one-yard plunge set up by a long pass from Paul Miller to Ricky Lanier. ASU scored on its next series, though, on a 67-yard TD catch by J.D. Hill.

Carolina then scored the final three touchdowns of the first half to go into the intermission with a 26-21 lead. First, Miller passed 37 yards for a score to Tony Blanchard. Then McCauley rushed in from 17 yards out. And finally, the All-America McCauley scored again from four yards.

Arizona State dominated a second half which was played in a heavy Atlanta snowstorm and without Miller, who left with an injury.

Monroe Ely scored twice and Thomas reached the end zone for the third time in the Sun Devils' 27-point second half.

1971 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Georgia 7, Carolina 3
December 31, 1971

For the first time since 1950, the Tar Heels were playing in a bowl game for the second consecutive season. This time, the Tar Heels would fall, 7-3, to the Georgia Bulldogs.

The game produced a bowl first — brothers coaching against each other. Bill Dooley led the Tar Heels and older brother Vince coached the Dawgs.

The game was a defensive struggle with all the points coming in the third quarter.

In the opening half, Carolina had the best chance as linebacker Jimmy Webster, voted the Tar Heels' MVP this day, blocked a punt out of bounds at the Georgia 24. A fumble, though, denied Carolina any points.

A pair of long runs by Lewis Jolley brought the Tar Heels down to the Georgia 16 on UNC's first possession of the second half. But a procedure penalty forced the Heels to settle for a 35-yard field goal by Ken Craven.

A 31-yard pass play from Andy Johnson to Roy Hunnicutt set up the Georgia touchdown. Jimmy Poulos, on the very next play following Hunnicutt's catch, took it in for a score from 25 yards. Poulos rushed for 161 yards on the afternoon and was named the Georgia MVP.

1972 Sun Bowl
El Paso, Texas
Carolina 32, Texas Tech 28
December 30, 1972

Carolina capped an 11-1 season in the 1972 Sun Bowl by defeating Texas Tech, 32-28. Quarterback Nick Vidnovic brought the Tar Heels from behind with a late scoring drive which he capped by tossing a 13-yard touchdown pass to wing-back Ted Leverenz.

That play, with a minute to go in the game, gave UNC a 30-28 lead. Carolina added two points moments later as Ronnie Robinson sacked quarterback Joe Barnes in the end zone.

The Tar Heels led 9-0 in the second quarter on a field goal by Ellis Alexander and touchdown run by Dick Oliver. The Red Raiders rallied, however, for the next 21 points and a 21-9 lead. Vidnovic hit Leverenz for a 62-yard touchdown and Billy Hite carried it in from three yards to reestablish a 24-21 Carolina lead. Tech gained the advantage, 28-24, with 7:41 to play in the game.

Vidnovic completed 14 of 26 passes for 215 yards and two touchdowns. Ike Oglesby rushed for 71 yards and Sammy Johnson added 52.

The Red Raiders had a touchdown called back in the second quarter. All-America guard Donald Rives ran a blocked punt back for an apparent score, but Tech was flagged for unsportsmanlike conduct and the points were nullified.

1974 Sun Bowl

Mississippi State 26, Carolina 24
December 28, 1974

Despite mounting 402 yards in total offense, the Tar Heels dropped a 26-24 decision to Mississippi State in a record-setting Sun Bowl.

Terry Vitrano's two-yard touchdown with 3:41 remaining was the game-winner. That capped a 16-play, 80-yard drive

Carolina had taken a 24-20 lead with 10:26 to play on an Ellis Alexander field goal.

The Bulldogs totaled a Sun Bowl record 499 yards in total offense — 455 of those yards came on the ground via the veer offense. Walter Packer rushed for 189 yards, Vitrano added 164 and quarterback Rocky Felker gained another 69.

The Tar Heels also got big ground gains from Mike Voight and James Betterson. Voight picked up 90 yards on 19 carries and Betterson chipped in with 84 on 17 rushes. But Voight was stopped a yard shy of a first down on Carolina's last offensive play of the game. Chris Kupec, who led the nation in pass completion percentage, connected with Jimmy Jerome for 29 yards and a touchdown.

1976 Peach Bowl
Atlanta, Ga.
Kentucky 21, Carolina 0
December 31, 1976

Playing without an injured Mike Voight, the Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year, the Tar Heels managed just five first downs and 108 yards total offense in a 21-0 loss to Kentucky.

Voight, who had rushed for 1,407 yards, injured his ankle in practice two days before the game when he stepped in a hole going out on a pass play. Ironically, Voight had caught just four passes the entire season.

The teams battled to a tie at the half, but Carolina thought it had put up points in the first quarter. On the Tar Heels' opening drive, Matt Kupec hit split end Walker Lee with a 50-yard touchdown pass, but officials ruled the Tar Heels offside and the play came back.

Early in the third quarter, Kentucky defensive end Bud Diehl knocked the ball from Kupec's grasp and the 'Cats recovered at the UNC 21. That set up the first of three rushing touchdowns by fullback Rod Stewart.

Stewart, who finished with 104 yards and the game's MVP trophy, added fourth quarter scores from 13 and three yards.

Subbing for Voight, freshman Doug Paschal led the Tar Heels with 41 yards rushing.

December 19, 1977

No. 12 Nebraska scored two fourth quarter touchdowns and rallied for a 21-17 victory over 13th-rated North Carolina.

Reserve quarterback Randy Garcia came off the Cornhuskers' bench in the final period to toss a pair of touchdown passes, including a 33-yard game-winner to Tim Smith with 3:16 left in the game. That came six plays after Nebraska recovered a fumble at the UNC 43.

Tar Heel quarterback Matt Kupec, voted the game's Most Valuable Player despite the loss, had led the Tar Heels to a 17-7 lead in the third quarter. Kupec, who connected on seven of his 11 passes, threw touchdown passes to Brooks Williams and Bob Loomis. Tom Biddle added Carolina's final points with 4:17 left in the third on a Liberty Bowl record 47-yard field goal.

Carolina led the nation in scoring defense in 1977, allowing just 7.4 points per game through the regular season. Nebraska was the only team to score more than 14 points against UNC all season.

Bill Dooley resigned in January 1978 to accept the dual position of head football coach and athletic director at Virginia Tech.

December 28, 1979

Matt Kupec completed 18 of 28 passes for 161 yards and one touchdown and Amos Lawrence rushed for 118 yards to lead North Carolina to a 17-15 win over Michigan.

Trailing 9-0, the Tar Heels rallied for the next 17 points and then held off a Michigan threat late in the game to post the first of Dick Crum's four consecutive bowl wins.

Carolina had two chances early on to score first, but high winds knocked down a pair of Jeff Hayes field goal attempts. Michigan did score first following a turnover and added a 53-yard touchdown reception by Anthony Carter to move ahead 9-0.

Doug Paschal put the Heels on the board with a two-yard touchdown. Early in the third, Kupec engineered a 16-play, 97-yard touchdown drive which culminated in a 12-yard pass to Phil Farris. Hayes added a 32-yard field goal in the fourth for a 17-9 UNC lead.

Michigan, thwarted once already in the fourth when Lawrence Taylor scooped up a loose ball, did manage another Carter touchdown with 1:28 left, but the two-point conversion pass to Carter fell short.

Kupec and Lawrence were named co-Most Valuable Players.

Amos Lawrence rushed for 104 yards and one touchdown and the Tar Heel defense allowed just two first downs and 36 total yards in the second half as Carolina played error-free football to defeat Texas, 16-7, in the Bluebonnet Bowl.

Lawrence, the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player, scampered 59 yards for a touchdown on the Tar Heels' fourth play from scrimmage for a 7-0 lead. Following a Texas touchdown in the second quarter by Mike Luck, Carolina regained the advantage for good on a one-yard run by Kelvin Bryant.

Jeff Hayes converted a fumbled punt snap by the Longhorns into a 31-yard field goal with 2:03 to play in the third quarter.

The defense, which allowed 224 yards and 11 Texas first downs in the opening half, dominated the second 30 minutes. UNC safety Steve Streater was named the defensive MVP as he had an interception, recovered a fumble and also boomed a 63-yard punt, longest in Bluebonnet Bowl history.

Carolina's 11-1 record matched the best season in UNC history. The Tar Heels finished ranked eighth by the Associated Press and ninth by UPI.

Carolina 31, Arkansas 27
December 28, 1981

Kelvin Bryant rushed for 148 yards and Ethan Horton added 144 to lead the Tar Heels to a 31-27 victory over Arkansas in the Gator Bowl.

Bryant and Horton shared Most Valuable Player honors, but it was a key defensive stop by seldom-used freshman Ronnie Snipes which saved the night for Carolina.

After building a 31-10 lead midway through the fourth quarter, Carolina watched as Arkansas rallied for two touchdowns and had the ball again inside Tar Heel territory with less than a minute to play. But on third down, Snipes, who had played just two previous downs in the contest, sacked quarterback Brad Taylor for a 17-yard loss.

The game was deadlocked at 10-10 at the half, but Carolina came right out to open the third quarter and put together a 13-play, 85-yard drive which was capped by Horton's one-yard scoring run.

UNC quarterback Rod Elkins scored on a one-yard sneak on the Tar Heels' next drive. He was set up by a 21-yard run by Horton and a 13-yard scamper by Bryant.

Horton then churned out 42 yards on six plays and went in from four yards out to give the Heels a 31-10 lead with 7:29 to play in the game.

The Razorbacks scored with 5:05 to play, recovered an onside kick and scored again with 2:44 left. UNC punter Jeff Hayes took an intentional safety with 1:44 to play. That gave the ball back to Arkansas and set up Snipes' defensive gem.

1982 Sun Bowl
El Paso, Texas
Carolina 26, Texas 10
December 25, 1982

North Carolina scored the final 23 points of the game in the final quarter and held seventh-ranked Texas to 48 total yards in the second half as the Tar Heels became the first ACC team to win four consecutive bowl games.

Ethan Horton was the offensive star of the game, rushing for 119 yards in the second half as Carolina won 26-10. He replaced injured starter Kelvin Bryant, who totaled 45 yards before leaving the game with an injured ankle.

Trailing 10-3 after three quarters, the Tar Heels vaulted into the lead via three consecutive field goals. Sophomore walk-on Rob Rogers, who had connected from 53 yards in the second quarter, hit a 47-yard field goal with 14:51 to play to narrow the Texas lead to 10-6. Brooks Barwick was then successful from 24 and 42 yards, the latter putting the Heels into the lead at 12-10 with 4:56 left.

Horton tacked on a three-yard touchdown with 2:17 remaining and Mike Wilcher fell on a loose ball in the end zone for another touchdown with 1:35 to play.

The defensive series of the game came five minutes into the third quarter with Texas leading 10-3 and with the ball, third-and-goal at the Carolina one. Two times, Texas fullback Ervin Davis tried to find the end zone, but twice he was hurled back. First, it was Wilcher who made the hit and then on 4th-and-goal, Greg Poole made the stop which changed the game.

The Christmas Day affair was played with intermittent snow flurries and a wind-chill reading that hovered around 12 degrees.

1983 Peach Bowl
Atlanta, Ga.
Florida State 28, Carolina 3
December 30, 1983

Florida State scored the first two times it had the ball and penalties and turnovers cost the Tar Heels dearly, as the Seminoles whipped Carolina 28-3 in a miserably cold and half-empty Peach Bowl.

Played before only 25,648 fans in low-20 degree temperatures, the Peach Bowl loss snapped the Tar Heels' consecutive bowl- game winning streak at four.

The Seminoles held the Tar Heels' running game to just 32 yards and three first downs. One thousand-yard rushers Ethan Horton and Tyrone Anthony were held to 30 and 27 yards, respectively.

Florida State quarterback Eric Thomas, making his first start, connected with Weegie Thompson on touchdown passes on the 'Noles first two series.

Midway through the second quarter, the Tar Heels fumbled away a punt at their own 16 and FSU converted via a 1-yard touchdown run.

Carolina put up its only points of the day on Brooks Barwick's 36-yard field goal.

The loss was the fourth in the final five games of the season and ended a season in which Carolina had been ranked third in the nation.

1986 Aloha Bowl
Honolulu, Hawaii
Arizona 30, Carolina 21
December 27, 1986

Arizona converted four North Carolina fumbles into 20 points and then held off a furious Tar Heel rally in the fourth quarter to win the 1986 Aloha Bowl, 30-21.

Carolina dug itself a 30-0 hole and did not put points on the board until freshman tailback Torin Dorn broke a 58-yard touchdown run with 2:19 left in the third quarter.

The Tar Heels fumbled five times in the first three periods and the Wildcats turned them into two touchdowns and two field goals.

Following Dorn's electrifying run, the Tar Heels quickly moved back within striking distance with two more touchdowns in the next seven minutes.

Mark Maye hit Randy Marriott with a six-yard touchdown pass after a Norris Davis interception and then followed a Davis punt block with a two-yard scoring run of his own to narrow the margin to 30-21 with 9:10 to play.

That, however, was as close as Carolina could challenge. A couple of dropped passes thwarted two more Carolina drives.

Dorn was the game's leading ground-gainer, rushing for 101 yards on only seven carries. Maye completed 17 of 34 passes for 171 yards; he hooked up with Eric Starr a game-high seven times for 53 yards.

1993 Peach Bowl
Atlanta, Ga.
Carolina 21, Mississippi State 17
January 2, 1993

Defensive MVP Bracey Walker blocked consecutive third-quarter punts, returning one of them for the tying touchdown, and forced a fourth quarter interception which Cliff Baskerville returned 44 yards for a touchdown to lead Carolina to a 21-17 Peach Bowl win over Mississippi

State.

Walker's heroics capped a fierce second-half comeback in which the Tar Heels came from 14 points behind to score three times, although just once on an offensive possession.

MSU took a two-touchdown lead in the first quarter and had two more scores in the second quarter called back due to holding penalties.

Carolina regrouped at halftime, however, and cut the lead to 14-7 just six plays into the third quarter. Mike Thomas connected with Bucky Brooks for a 53-yard completion on the fourth play of the half and Natrone Means scored from a yard out two snaps later.

Means led the Tar Heel offense with 128 yards rushing and was named the game's Offensive MVP.

Later in the third quarter, Walker blocked a punt but Carolina's field goal try was unsuccessful. On the next series UNC again forced the Bulldogs to punt and this time Walker blocked the kick, picked up the loose ball and raced 24 yards untouched for the tying score.

Early in the final quarter Walker forced a midair loose ball with a jarring hit and Baskerville plucked the ball out of the air and sprinted 44 yards down the left sideline for what proved to be the winning score.

1993 Gator Bowl

December 31, 1993

Quarterback Brian Burgdorf threw for two touchdowns and ran for another to lead 18th-ranked and defending national champion Alabama to a 24-10 victory over 11th-ranked Carolina in Outback Steakhouse Gator Bowl.

Corey Holliday caught nine passes for 125 yards and was UNC's MVP.

After a scoreless first period, Alabama took the lead on a 22-yard field goal by Michael Proctor. Carolina quarterback Jason Stanicek then led a seven-play, 80-yard touchdown drive in just 1:36 to take the lead, 7-3, on the ensuing possession. Stanicek hit Holliday with completions of 29 and 22 yards and executed one of his trademark option pitches to freshman tailback Leon Johnson for an 18-yard gain. William Henderson plunged in from a yard out for the lead.

The Crimson Tide went up 10-7 Burgdorf scored from 33 yards out on a quarterback draw.

With 1:44 left before intermission, Stanicek led what would be the final Tar Heel scoring drive. He hit Holliday with passes of 12 and nine yards and Curtis Johnson ran twice for 20 yards before the drive stalled and Tripp Pignetti hit a 23-yard field goal to tie the game at 10.

The Alabama defense was the key to the game, holding UNC to a season-low 42 net yards rushing on 25 carries. Carolina could only muster 40 total yards and four first downs in the second half.

December 30, 1994

Priest Holmes rushed for 161 yards and four touchdowns, including the game-winner with 1:17 to play, to lead Texas to a 35-31 win over the Tar Heels before a Sun Bowl record crowd of 50,612.

Holmes' four-touchdown performance wrestled away MVP honors from UNC quarterback Mike Thomas, who had the finest passing day of his career. Thomas completed 23 of 39 passes for 298 yards and two touchdowns. He set UNC bowl game records for completions and yards and tied the mark with two scoring tosses. He was 15 for 19 in the first half and completed 20 of 29 before a final desperation drive.

Wide receivers Marcus Wall and Octavus Barnes were two more standouts for the Tar Heels. Wall was selected the game's Most Valuable Special Teams Player. He gave the Tar Heels a 24-21 lead in the fourth quarter when he returned a punt 82 yards for a touchdown.

Barnes set UNC bowl game records for most catches and yards with nine receptions for 165 yards and one score. The 165 yards were also the most in Sun Bowl history.

With Carolina up, 31-21, Texas quickly went on a 68-yard touchdown drive in only 2:38. On the next series, Texas took over at its own 32 and drove 68 yards in 10 plays for the winning score. Holmes carried the last three plays on the drive for nine, two and finally the five yard touchdown run.

1995 Carquest Bowl

December 30, 1995

Leon Johnson rushed for a Carolina bowl record 195 yards and Mike Thomas threw for two scores as the Tar Heels knocked off Arkansas, 20-10, in the Carquest Bowl.

Johnson's 195-yard effort topped the previous high of 148 yards by Kelvin Bryant, also against Arkansas, in the 1981 Gator Bowl. Johnson had just 23 yards on eight carries in the first half, but exploded for 172 yards in the second half.

All-America tackle Marcus Jones capped his career with four tackles for losses, including a quarterback sack on Arkansas' last play from scrimmage - his final collegiate play.

Trailing by a touchdown the Tar Heels quickly moved into position to tie the game. On third-and-long quarterback Mike Thomas rolled right, threw back across the field to Ashford, who sprinted around the left flank into the end zone.

The Razorbacks managed to take a 10-7 lead in the third quarter on a 26-yard field goal by Latourette. Two series later Carolina went into the lead for good. On third-and-eight from the 28, Thomas ran the option around the right corner, turned upfield and then pitched the ball to Johnson, who was trailing the play perfectly. Johnson ran untouched for a 28-yard, go-ahead score.

Carolina 20, West Virginia 13
January 1, 1997

Oscar Davenport, starting in place of injured first-team all-conference quarterback Chris Keldorf, completed 14 of 26 passes for 175 yards and one touchdown as Carolina defeated West Virginia 20-13 in the 52nd annual Toyota Gator Bowl.

Davenport, who also rushed for one touchdown, was named the game's MVP.

Carolina broke the scoring drought early in the second quarter when Davenport found Octavus Barnes in the back corner of the end zone on an 18-yard pass. As time was running down in the first half, Davenport and Leon Johnson led the Tar Heels on a five-play touchdown drive. Johnson caught a pass for 13 yards and rushed twice for 19 yards in the drive. Davenport scored on a 5-yard option keeper for a 17-3 lead.

West Virginia opened the second-half scoring with a 34-yard touchdown pass to close within seven points. A fumble recovery by Greg Williams ended one WVU threat, but West Virginia had one last chance to tie the game late in the fourth quarter. Carolina stopped the Mountaineers on 4th-and-6 at the UNC 24 with just under two minutes remaining.

Dre' Bly, Carolina's consensus first-team All-America, picked off two second-half passes. Carolina's defense forced four West Virginia turnovers; the Mountaineers had 10 in 11 regular-season games.

1998 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 42, Virginia Tech 3
January 1, 1998

Chris Keldorf threw for 290 yards and three scores and Carolina's defense and special teams added touchdowns as the Tar Heels pounded Virginia Tech, 42-3, in the Toyota Gator Bowl.

The victory, UNC's most lopsided in a bowl game, secured a No. 4 final ranking in the coaches' poll for the 11-1 Tar Heels. The game was Carl Torbush's first as Carolina's head coach. Torbush, UNC's defensive coordinator the past 10 years, was elevated to head coach on December 8th after Mack Brown accepted the same position at the University of Texas.

Keldorf completed 17 of 28 passes, including touchdown throws of 62 and 14 yards to wide receiver Octavus Barnes and four yards to fullback Jamie Carrick.

Carolina amassed 427 total yards and held the Hokies to just 185 yards. Leading 3-0, Keldorf hit Barnes with a 62-yard bomb down the left sideline for a 10-0 lead. Later in the first quarter, Carolina forced Virginia Tech to punt deep in Hokie territory. Quinton Savage blocked the punt and Dre' Bly scooped it up at the 6-yard line and scored for a 16-0 UNC advantage.

One minute and 10 seconds after Bly's touchdown, Ellis fell on a loose ball in the Tech end zone for another touchdown. Carolina scored 16 first-quarter points in the entire regular season, but scored 16 in the first quarter of the Gator Bowl and six more just seven seconds into the second quarter.

The 42 points were the most in UNC postseason history and the three touchdown passes by Keldorf set a UNC bowl game record.

1998 Las Vegas Bowl
Las Vegas, Nev.
Carolina 20, San Diego State 13
December 19, 1998

Ronald Curry rushed for a season-high 93 yards and a touchdown, punter Brian Schmitz was outstanding despite windy conditions and the Tar Heel defense did not allow a TD in the last 59 minutes as Carolina defeated San Diego State, 20-13.

Curry, the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player, gave Carolina the lead for good with a 48-yard touchdown run on the final play of the opening quarter. He rushed for 93 yards on 10 carries and accounted for 96 of Carolina's 196 total offense yards, despite playing just four series.

The game was played with winds gusting to 47 miles per hour. Passing was almost impossible. In fact, Carolina won the game despite completing just four passes for 33 yards.

Schmitz averaged 44.0 yards on five punts and pinned the Aztecs inside their own 11-yard line four times. Late in the second quarter, Schmitz unloaded a 66-yard punt into the wind.

San Diego State took an early 7-0 lead in the first minute of the game before the Tar Heels scored 20 unanswered points to close the first half. After two second-half field goals cut it to 20-13, the Aztecs had one final chance to tie the game. With just over a minute left, Dre' Bly broke up a pass in the end zone. On the following play, Brandon Spoon tipped Brian Russell's pass in the air and the ball was intercepted at the goal line by Keith Newman with 59 seconds remaining.

2001 Peach Bowl
Atlanta, Ga.
Carolina 16, Auburn 10
December 31, 2001

Willie Parker rushed for 131 yards and Ryan Sims led a spirited defensive effort as North Carolina won its fifth consecutive postseason bowl appearance with a 16-10 victory over Auburn in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

Parker, who started his first game since September, was spectacular, scoring on a 10-yard run in the first quarter and setting up a second-quarter field goal with a 43-yard dash. Parker had the fifth-best rushing day in UNC bowl history and it was the 11th time a Tar Heel had rushed for more than 100 yards in a bowl game.

Parker's touchdown was set up by Carolina's defense, which allowed just 32 total rushing yards and shutout Auburn for three quarters. In the first quarter, cornerback Michael Waddell forced a fumble at the Auburn 26-yard line that defensive end Joey Evans picked up and rumbled to the Auburn 8-yard line. Two plays later, Parker's touchdown gave Carolina a 7-0 lead.

Curry, who was named the game's Offensive MVP, scored on an incredible touchdown run in the third quarter to give Carolina a 16-0 advantage.

Defensively, Carolina came up with several big plays throughout the game and held off a furious Auburn comeback in the fourth quarter. Sims, the Defensive MVP, had six tackles, including two sacks and was constantly disrupting the Auburn backfield.

After scoring twice in the fourth quarter, Auburn attempted an onside kick, but UNC's Richard Moore covered the ball and the Tar Heels ran out the clock.

2004 Continental Tire Bowl
Charlotte, N.C.
Boston College 37, Carolina 24
December 30, 2004

Kicker Ryan Ohliger scored on a 21-yard fake field goal run to seal Boston College's 37-24 victory over North Carolina in the Continental Tire Bowl.

Clinging to a 27-24 lead over North Carolina (6-6) in the fourth quarter, BC quarterback Paul Peterson was injured as he tried to run outside for a first down on third-and-1 and was brought down awkwardly by Tommy Davis. On the next play, Ohliger, a 5-foot-9 freshman, took the handoff from holder Matt Ryan and raced into the end zone, breaking a tackle along the way, for a 34-24 lead with 10:32 to play. Before leaving, Peterson went 24-of-33 for 236 yards and two touchdowns.

Virginia represented the ACC in the first two Tire Bowls, so the inclusion of North Carolina was a welcome change of scenery. Tar Heels fans snapped up over 65,000 tickets, washing out the scattering of Boston College supporters in a sea of light blue.

They had plenty to cheer about early as North Carolina seized the momentum by scoring a pair of touchdowns after Peterson's fumble and Ohliger's missed field goal.

North Carolina quarterback Darian Durant threw for 260 yards and three TDs in his final game as a Tar Heel. He finished his storied career with 51 school records, including all major passing and total offense records.

Wide receiver Derelle Mitchell caught seven passes for 116 yards.

2008 Meineke Car Care Bowl
Charlotte, N.C.
West Virginia 31, Carolina 30
December 27, 2008

Pat White threw for 332 yards, including a 20-yard touchdown pass to Alric Arnett midway through the fourth quarter to send West Virginia to a 31-30 win over North Carolina in the Meineke Car Care Bowl.

The senior quarterback was voted MVP, helping West Virginia (9-4) overcome Hakeem Nicks' big day for North Carolina. Nicks caught eight passes for 217 yards and three touchdowns for the Tar Heels (8-5), but T.J. Yates was intercepted by Pat Lazear with under 2 minutes left to end Butch Davis' hopes of a bowl win in his second year at North Carolina.

White completed 26 of 32 passes and threw one interception.

After J.T. Thomas recovered Shaun Draughn's fumble at the West Virginia 30, White threw a 41-yard pass over the middle to Jock Sanders, picked up nine yards on a running play and then rifled a pass between two defenders to Arnett for the go-ahead touchdown with 7:14 left.

Yates couldn't find the dynamic Nicks on the Tar Heels' final drive, eventually throwing his first interception of the game.

Nicks already set three school receiving records and shattered his career-high in yards receiving - with 10:37 left in the second quarter. It was part of a dizzying offensive display by both teams that produced six touchdowns in the game's first 20 minutes.

Nicks' 25-yard TD catch from Yates early in the second quarter was his 178th career reception - another school record - and gave North Carolina a 23-21 lead. The action thrilled a sellout crowd at Bank of America Stadium.

2009 Meineke Car Care Bowl
Charlotte, N.C.
Pittsburgh 19, Carolina 17
December 26, 2009

Dion Lewis rushed for 159 yards and a touchdown, and Dan Hutchins kicked a 33-yard field goal with 52 seconds left to give the 17th-ranked Panthers a 19-17 win over North Carolina on Saturday in the Meineke Bowl.

Winning 10 games for the first time since Dan Marino was the quarterback in 1981, Pitt (10-3) converted on fourth down at its own 30 and took advantage of a key offside penalty to set up Hutchins' fourth field goal.

T.J. Yates threw two touchdown passes to Greg Little, but his incomplete pass on fourth-and-10 from his own 49 with 6 seconds left sent the Tar Heels (8-5) to their second straight bowl loss.

Yates was 19 of 32 for 183 yards and an interception while Little caught seven passes for 87 yards and Ryan Houston rushed for 83 yards.

But North Carolina's defense, which came in sixth in the nation overall and ninth against the run, struggled to contain the shifty Lewis.

The matchup featured old coaching buddies who won a national championship and Super Bowl together. Pitt's Dave Wannstedt and Davis worked on Jimmy Johnson's staffs at Oklahoma State, Miami and the Dallas Cowboys. Their careers then included NFL head coaching jobs before they returned to college.

It took Wannstedt's big gamble to help Pitt end a two-game losing streak after North Carolina took a 17-16 lead late in the third quarter on Yates' second touchdown pass to Little.

2010 Music City Bowl
Nashville, Tenn.
Carolina 30, Tennessee 27
December 30, 2010

Casey Barth kicked a 23-yard field goal in the second overtime to send North Carolina past Tennessee 30-27 in a Music City Bowl that will be remembered much more for the crazy finish of regulation than how it ended.

Barth kicked a 39-yard field goal after officials reviewed what had been the final play of the game and decided to penalize the Tar Heels (8-5) for having "more than 11 men" on the field. The Big Ten officiating crew also announced T.J. Yates had spiked the ball with 1 second left. That allowed Barth to run out and kick the field goal that tied it at 20.

Tennessee (6-7) was stunned at the sudden switch that cost the Vols an apparent bowl victory to cap Derek Dooley's first season. Tyler Bray threw a 25-yard TD in the first overtime, but Quan Sturdivant picked him off to end the Vols' last chance in the second OT.

Tennessee had the home-field advantage with LP Field painted orange from top to bottom, and the Vols' fans had been celebrating ever since Bray's 8-yard TD pass to Justin Hunter put them up 20-17 with 5:16 left.

But Donte Paige-Moss blocked Daniel Lincoln's extra point, and that provided the edge North Carolina needed to force overtime with Barth's second field goal.

Tennessee had a chance to clinch the victory when the Vols got the ball back with 1:36 left but punted it back to North Carolina with 31 seconds remaining to set up the bizarre finish.

The Tar Heels intercepted Bray three times, finished with four sacks and held Tennessee to 27 yards rushing on 29 attempts.

2011 Independence Bowl
Shreveport, La.
Missouri 41, Carolina 24
December 26, 2011

James Franklin ran for two touchdowns and threw for another, and Missouri beat North Carolina 41-24 in the Independence Bowl.

Franklin, named the game's offensive Most Valuable Player, rushed for 142 yards and threw for 132 despite less than ideal conditions in the cold and rain at Independence Stadium. He led the Tigers to 31 first-half points - an Independence Bowl record.

For North Carolina (7-6), a season that started with a promising 5-1 record ends with a lopsided loss. The Tar Heels lost five of their final seven under interim coach Everett Withers, who leaves to become defensive coordinator at Ohio State under Urban Meyer.

North Carolina had the Atlantic Coast Conference's second-best rushing defense, giving up just 106.2 yards per game. But the Tigers found plenty of running room with Franklin and Kendial Lawrence, repeatedly going for big gains.

Lawrence rushed for 108 yards and a touchdown as the Tigers racked up 337 yards on the ground.

North Carolina's quarterback, Bryn Renner, had a very productive game, throwing for 317 yards, three touchdowns and an interception.

North Carolina scored first, with Renner hitting Dwight Jones for a 22-yard touchdown pass with 12:12 left in the first quarter. That would be the high point for the Tar Heels.

North Carolina had a glimmer of hope late in the third when Jheranie Boyd caught a 44-yard touchdown pass from Renner to pull the Tar Heels to 34-17. But Missouri responded minutes later with Franklin's second touchdown run of the night.

2013 Belk Bowl
Charlotte, N.C.
Carolina 39, Cincinnati 17
December 28, 2013

Freshman Ryan Switzer capped a memorable season by returning a punt 86 yards for a touchdown to help North Carolina beat Cincinnati 39-17 for its first Belk Bowl title in four tries. It was Switzer's fifth punt return of the season for a TD, tying an NCAA record.

T.J. Logan returned a kickoff 78 yards for a touchdown, Marquise Williams threw for 171 yards and a score and Romar Morris had two short TD runs as the Tar Heels (7-6) won a bowl game for the first time since 2010.

The victory also capped a huge turnaround for the Tar Heels, who started the season 1-5.

Cincinnati (9-4) was looking to become the bowl's first back-to-back champion since Virginia did it 10 years ago, but Brendon Kay - the MVP last year - was limited to 181 yards passing and no touchdowns.

The Tar Heels brought relentless pressure and had five sacks, including one for a safety.

North Carolina came in having lost its previous three in-state Belk Bowl appearances, but bolted to a 23-3 halftime lead behind a pair of long touchdown drives led by Williams and Logan's nifty kickoff return.

After Morris scored on a 2-yard run to make it 7-0, Brandon Ellerbe and Kareem Martin sacked Kay in the end zone for a safety - the first of three sacks in the opening half. On the ensuing kickoff, Logan put the Tar Heels in control by fielding the ball near the left sideline and cutting back up the middle of the field for the score.

Williams made it 23-3 in the second quarter, hitting Tabb on a quick slant for a 3-yard touchdown strike.

2014 Quick Lane Bowl
Detroit, Mich.
Rutgers 41, Carolina 20
December 26, 2014

Josh Hicks ran for 202 yards and a touchdown and Rutgers beat North Carolina 40-21 in the inaugural Quick Lane Bowl at Ford Field.

Owned and operated by the NFL's Detroit Lions, the bowl replaced the Little Caesar's Pizza Bowl, which had been played in Detroit under various names since 1997.

Rutgers led 40-7 before the Tar Heels (6-7) scored twice in the final seven minutes. North Carolina also had two second-half touchdown passes taken away because of interference penalties.

Marquise Williams was never able to get going, although he did throw for one score and run for another.

The Scarlet Knights lost the coin toss, but got the ball when North Carolina deferred. They only needed 2:17 to take the lead, with Gary Nova hitting a wide-open Andre Patton for a 34-yard touchdown strike.

Carolina got into Rutgers' territory its first two drives, but turned the ball over on the first and punted on the second. The Tar Heels blocked a punt to take over at the 30, but the drive stalled at the 5 and a fake field goal was buried for a 4-yard loss.

The Scarlet Knights answered with a 91-yard drive that ended with Hicks' 21-yard run that made it 14-0 early in the second. Rutgers then turned another Tar Heels fumble into a quick touchdown — Martin's 8-yard run — but missed the extra point, leaving it 20-0.

The Tar Heels missed a field goal, then shanked a punt 20 yards, allowing Rutgers to kick a 19-yard field goal that made it 23-0 at halftime.

2015 Russell Athletic Bowl
Orlando, Fla.
Baylor 49, Carolina 38
December 29, 2015

Johnny Jefferson rushed for three touchdowns and a record 299 yards, and No. 18 Baylor ran past No. 10 North Carolina 49-38 in the Russell Athletic Bowl.

North Carolina (11-3) tried to match Baylor's scoring output but had a key fumble in the third quarter that stifled its comeback efforts.

Marquise Williams passed for 243 yards and three scores, and rushed for two more. Elijah Hood added 118 yards rushing.

Though sophomore Chris Johnson started the day at quarterback, five different players — Johnson, his backup Lynx Hawthorne, and running backs Jefferson, Chafin, and Terence Williams — all took snaps from center for the Bears within the first two series. They continued to use the quintet in multiple Wildcat formations throughout the game.

North Carolina kept pace as best it could and scored on its opening possession of the second half to cut what had been an 18-point first-half deficit to 28-24.

Baylor needed just eight plays to go back up 35-24 following 3-yard touchdown run by Williams.

The Tar Heels started their next drive with a 67-yard run by Hood to get back into the red zone.

But two plays later T.J. Logan fumbled at the goal line after being hit by Aiaivon Edwards and it was scooped up by Baylor's Orion Stewart for a touchback.

The Bears took advantage, and on their first play after the changeover scored on an 80-yard scamper by Jefferson that put them in front 42-24.

2016 Hyundai Sun Bowl
El Paso, Texas
Stanford 25, Carolina 23
December 30, 2016

EL PASO, Texas --- North Carolina native Bryce Love took over for the absent Christian McCaffrey in the Stanford backfield, running for 119 yards and catching a 49-yard touchdown pass to help the No. 16 Cardinal beat North Carolina 25-23 in the Sun Bowl.

Stanford (10-3) held on after North Carolina (8-5) pulled within two with 25 seconds left on Mitch Trubisky's 2-yard pass to Bug Howard, sacking Trubisky on the 2-point conversion try.

McCaffrey skipped the bowl game to focus on his NFL career.

Stanford took a 25-17 lead on Conrad Ukropina's 27-yard field goal with 3:23 left. North Carolina was forced to punt on its next series, but used two time-outs to get the ball back.

After taking over at their own 3, the Tar Heels drove 97 yards in 10 plays and 1:11. After competing passes of 44 and 27 yards, Trubisky capped the drive with the 2-yard scoring pass to Howard.

Stanford then sacked Trubisky on the 2-point try, a rush led by Solomon Thomas forcing the quarterback to retreat before being taken down. Thomas was selected the game's MVP, and the Cardinal defense also got a big game from safety Dallas Lloyd.

Lloyd intercepted Trubisky's pass in the first half, then again early in the fourth quarter. He returned that one 19 yards for a touchdown to give Stanford a 22-17 lead. That stalled a North Carolina rally that saw it go from being down 13-7 at the half and 16-7 early in the third to taking a 17-16 lead. That came after a 37-yard field goal by Nick Weiler and a 5-yard TD run by Jordon Brown.

CAROLINA DRAFT FIRST-ROUND DRAFT NOTES

- Mitch Trubisky was selected No. 2 overall by the Chicago Bears in the 2017 NFL Draft. That matches the highest selection ever for a UNC player. Ken Willard (1965), Lawrence Taylor (1981) and Julius Peppers (2002) were also selected No. 2 overall.
- Trubisky became the first quarterback in UNC history selected in the first round of the NFL Draft. The last time a Carolina quarterback was selected in the NFL Draft was T.J. Yates in 2011 (fifth round to the Houston Texans).
- Trubisky is the ninth player in UNC history taken in the top 10 of the NFL Draft. Carolina's other top 10 draft picks are Ken Willard (No. 2 in 1965), Lawrence Taylor (No. 2 in 1981), Julius Peppers (No. 2 in 2002), Ken Huff (No. 3 in 1975), Ryan Sims (No. 6 in 2002), Jonathan Cooper (No. 7 in 2013), Greg Ellis (No. 8 in 1998) and Eric Ebron (No. 10 in 2014).
- In Larry Fedora's six seasons at UNC, the Tar Heels have produced four first round picks – offensive guard Jonathan Cooper (seventh overall to Arizona in 2013), Sylvester Williams (28th overall to Denver in 2013), Eric Ebron (10th overall to Detroit in 2014) and Mitch Trubisky (second overall to Chicago in 2017).
- North Carolina has produced eight first-round draft picks since 2008. That is the third highest total of any ACC school. Florida State (10) and Clemson (9) rank first and second. No other in-state school has more than one first-round draft pick since 2008.
- Carolina's 24 all-time first-round draft picks are the most of any school in the state, ahead of NC State (16), Duke (6) and Wake Forest (5).

MEDIA INFORMATION

ATHLETIC COMMUNICATIONS

CREDENTIALS

Requests for working press or scouting credentials at Carolina home football games should be made online. Please visit SportsSystems.com/uncfootball to apply for credentials. Communication regarding your request will be made via email.

Please make requests at least two weeks prior to the game.

Visiting team media should contact the opponent athletic communications contact to be placed on their official list.

Credentials will be mailed or they may be picked up before 4 p.m. on Friday at the Athletic Communications Office at the Koury Natatorium. Those credentials not picked up by 4 p.m. on Friday will be left for Saturday pickup at Kenan Stadium Will Call at Gate 6. Will Call opens two hours prior to kickoff and will be staffed through the first half.

SIDELINE POLICY

Photographers will not be allowed on the sidelines without a UNC-issued photographer's vest. Vests will be distributed in the press box beginning 90 minutes prior to kickoff. Each photographer must sign in for his/her own vest. Under NCAA and ACC guidelines, photographers are not allowed between the 25-yard lines and must remain outside the restraining lines surrounding the field. Credential holders not working will be asked to leave the sidelines. A representative of the Athletic Communications Office will be on the field to handle any questions and serve as field liaison to press box officials. Equipment should not be left unattended on the sidelines. If you are shooting with a tripod, please keep a safe distance from the playing field.

GAME DAY PARKING

Requests for parking passes should be made well in advance through the online credential system. Single-game parking passes will be mailed. Parking is located in the Craige Deck off Manning Drive.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Following a brief cooling-off period, requested UNC players and head coach Larry Fedora will be available in the interview area on the fifth floor of Kenan Football Center for a 20-25 minute interview period. The Tar Heels' locker room is closed.

Representatives from the Communications Office will take player requests from the media during the fourth quarter. Local television media who are on the field during the game should make player requests prior to the end of the game to the on-field communications representative.

Fedora is contractually obligated to do a short postgame interview with the Tar Heel Sports Radio Network before addressing the other media in attendance. After night games, great care will be taken to get Fedora to the media as quickly as possible. We understand everyone has deadline pressures after late games and will do our best to provide access to players and coaches as quickly as possible.

INTERNET AVAILABILITY

Kenan Stadium's press box has wireless capability. Media with wireless capability should be able to connect to the Internet by using the network information provided in the press box.

INTERVIEWS WITH HEAD COACH LARRY FEDORA

Larry Fedora will meet with the media at 11:45 a.m. each Monday prior to a game for approximately 20 minutes. A recording of Fedora's Monday press conference will be available on GoHeels.com later that afternoon. Fedora is also available on the weekly ACC Teleconference on Wednesdays. Contact the ACC for the time and phone number. All other interviews should be arranged through the communications office.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All player interviews should be arranged through Mark Kimmel. Players have been instructed not to grant an interview request unless they have been set up in this manner. The interviews will generally be conducted after football practice at Kenan Stadium. All interviews are to be conducted on Tuesday or Wednesday.

Players may do taped radio interviews but will not be available for live call-in radio shows. Due to the overwhelming number of all-sports radio talk stations, players will generally not be available to appear on these shows. Hometown stations, stations in that week's opponent's market or national shows may be accommodated.

DIRECTIONS TO MEDIA PARKING

- From Eastern North Carolina and/or Raleigh/Durham International Airport: Take I-40 West to Chapel Hill. Stay in the left or middle lane because I-40 splits about five miles past the airport (the right lane heads to Durham). Stay to the left and follow I-40 West to Exit 273-A. Follow NC-54 West for approximately three miles. Exit right onto Route 15-501 South/54 West and follow for one mile. Turn right at the traffic light onto Manning Drive. Go up the hill, stay straight through the intersection. The next traffic light will be at the intersection of Manning Drive and Gravelly Drive. Press parking is either in the Bell Tower Deck on Ridge Road or the Craige Deck on Manning Drive.
- From North of Chapel Hill: Take I-85 South to Durham. I-85 will split at exit 174. The right-hand lane takes you to I-40 and Greensboro. Stay in the left-hand lane and take exit 174 (a left-hand exit) for 15-501 South. Stay on 15-501 South to Chapel Hill. Stay to the left on 15-501 Bypass until you turn right onto Manning Drive. See above.
- From Charlotte and West of Chapel Hill: Take I-85 North to I-40 East. 85 and 40 split in Hillsborough, just west of Chapel Hill. Take I-40 to exit 270 and exit onto Route 15-501 South. Stay on 15-501 South to Chapel Hill. Stay to the left on 15-501 Bypass when it splits into 15-501 and Franklin Street. Follow 15-501 to Manning Drive and turn right. See above.
- From South of Chapel Hill: Take I-77 North to I-85 and then follow the same directions as from Charlotte. Or take I-95 North to I-40 West. 95 and 40 converge just north of Benson, N.C. Then take I-40 all the way to Chapel Hill and follow the directions from the airport. See above.

Learfield

Learfield Sports begins its 19th full year as the official media rights holder for the University of North Carolina athletic teams.

Based in Jefferson City, Missouri, Learfield purchased Tar Heel Sports Properties in October 1999, adding the UNC property to 122 other schools, conferences and arenas under the Learfield umbrella. Among those for which Learfield also owns the rights are Alabama, Iowa, NC State, Oklahoma, Indiana, Miami (Fla.), Missouri and Wisconsin.

Tar Heel Sports Properties is in its 24th year as UNC's multimedia rights holder. All Carolina fans have heard of the Tar Heel Sports Network, which broadcasts the play-by-play of football and basketball games, but that is only one facet of the operation.

Tar Heel Sports Properties is a full-service agency overseeing production and sales of all the University of North Carolina's athletic entities including television, print products, internet, social media and radio.

THSP brings you a variety of ways to follow the Heels during the athletic season. Simply, listen to your radio during the week for "Larry Fedora Live" and "Roy Williams Live" or watch game highlights Saturday mornings on "Inside Carolina Football and Basketball." When you are at Kenan Stadium pick-up the official Football Yearbook.

The Tar Heel Sports Network continues to bring the great tradition of Carolina sports into your home. Fans have an opportunity ask questions of the head coach every week during the football season on the "Larry Fedora Live" call in show heard on stations throughout North Carolina and beyond.

Listeners can also tune in to the "Carolina Insider" podcast, a popular bi-weekly podcast hosted by Jones Angell and Adam Lucas focusing on all things Carolina athletics.

"Inside Carolina Football with Larry Fedora," is a half-hour television program seen each week on Fox Sports South throughout the southeast and on WTVD in the Triangle. The show features highlights of the previous game, interviews with current and former Tar Heel players, and a preview of upcoming action.

JONES ANGELL

PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER
EIGHTH SEASON

Jones Angell enters his eighth year as the radio play-by-play announcer for the Tar Heel Sports Network.

A native of Jacksonville, N.C., Angell has worked in a number of roles at the network over the past 18 years. He served as host and color analyst for football and men's basketball games for six years before taking over the play-by-play duties in 2011. Angell moved into the play-by-play chair after the retirement of Hall of Fame broadcaster Woody Durham, who stepped down after 40 seasons as the Voice of the Tar Heels.

Angell called play-by-play for Carolina baseball for nine seasons, which included five trips to the College World Series. During his career, he has also called play-by-play for UNC women's basketball and women's soccer.

A 2001 UNC graduate, Angell has been a member of UNC's broadcast team for more than 125 Tar Heel football games, including the 2015 ACC Championship Game, and more than 370 men's basketball games, including the 2009 and 2017 national championships.

Angell co-hosts the Carolina Insider Podcast and hosts the coaches' television shows.

Angell is as assistant director of GoHeels Productions at UNC where he helps produce video board and special internet features that are shown online, at various athletic venues, and at special events such as the 100-year celebration of Carolina Basketball and The Rammys, an end-of-the-year awards show. He was an associate producer on the commemorative DVD that chronicled the 2005 men's basketball national championship.

Angell and his wife, Elizabeth, have a daughter, Caroline, and a son, Walker.

TAR HEEL TRADITIONS

WHY TAR HEELS?

University of North Carolina athletic teams are known as the Tar Heels because North Carolina is "The Tar Heel State."

One legend has the nickname being applied to the state's residents as long ago as the Revolutionary War. According to this story, the troops of British General Cornwallis were fording what is now known as the Tar River between Rocky Mount and Battleboro when they discovered that tar had been dumped into the stream to impede their crossing. When they finally got across the river they found their feet completely black with tar. Their observation that anyone who waded North Carolina rivers would acquire tar heels led to the nickname first being used.

Others say the nickname was acquired during the Civil War. During one of that war's fiercest battles a column supporting North Carolina troops was driven from the field. After the battle, the North Carolinians who had successfully fought it out alone, happened to meet the regiment which had fled to safety and were greeted with the question, "Any more tar down in the Old North State, boys?"

"No, not a bit," shot back one of the North Carolina soldiers. "Old Jeff's bought it all up," he went on, referring to Jefferson Davis, President of the Confederacy.

"Is that so? What's he going to do with it?"

"He's going to put it on you'n heels to make you stick better in the next fight."

Upon hearing of the incident, Robert E. Lee smiled and said to a fellow officer, "God bless the Tar Heel boys."

A letter found in 1991 by State Archivist David Olson lends credence to another more direct theory. A letter from Maj. Joseph Engelhard describes a fight involving men from North Carolina in which Lee was heard to have said, "There they stand as if they have tar on their heels."

The letter, dated August 24, 1864, told the tale of a battle on the outskirts of Petersburg, Va. Engelhard was elected secretary of state for North Carolina in 1876.

RAM MASCOT

Since Carolina's nickname is Tar Heels, it might seem strange to have a ram as a mascot. It is. But, there is a good explanation. It's offered by Vic Huggins, Carolina's head cheerleader back in 1924.

"In 1924 school spirit was at a peak," Huggins once explained. "But something seemed to be missing. One day it hit me. Georgia had a bulldog for a mascot and State a wolf. What Carolina needed was a symbol."

CAROLINA

FOOTBALL

Two years earlier the Tar Heels had posted a brilliant 9-1 record. The star of that 1922 team was a bruising fullback named Jack Merritt. Merritt was nicknamed "the battering ram" for the way he plunged into lines. It seemed natural to Huggins to link a mascot with Merritt's nickname.

"Charlie Woollen, the athletic business manager at that time, agreed with the idea and gave us $25 to purchase a fitting mascot," said Huggins.

Rameses the First was shipped in from Texas, arriving just in time to be introduced at a pep rally before the VMI game. Complete with a monogram blanket on his back, Rameses helped make the pep rally one of the school's greatest.

Then the ram was taken to Emerson Field where Carolina was an underdog to a strong VMI team. But, for three quarters the Tar Heels battled the visitors to a scoreless tie.

Late in the fourth period Carolina's Bunn Hackney was called upon to attempt a field goal. Before taking the field he stopped to rub Rameses' head for good luck.

Seconds later Hackney's 30-yard dropkick sailed between the goalposts, giving the Tar Heels a 3-0 victory and a legendary mascot.

VICTORY WALK

On game days, the North Carolina football team walks through a gathering of fans and into the Kenan Football Center. The pregame arrival tradition began in 2000 when the team would walk from the Bell Tower and into the stadium. The drop off point moved to the Old Well from 2001-12. The pregame walk begins approximately two and a half hours prior to kick-off of each game.

SCHOOL COLORS

The adoption of light blue and white as UNC's colors dates back to the 19th Century. When the University reopened following the Civil War, most social activities were directed by two literary societies, the Dialectic and Philanthropic. The official color of the Di was light blue and that of the Phi white.

On public occasions the student officers, marshals and ball managers were chosen equally from the membership of the two societies. It had long been the custom of each society for its members to wear its color on such occasions. However, the chief marshal and chief ball manager, one from the Di and the other from the Phi, wore combination light blue and white regalias and rosettes signifying that they represented the whole student body.

So it seemed only natural for the fans to adorn themselves with the same combination as that used by the chief marshals and ball managers, colors which represented not membership in a society, but a University student body.

CAROLINA FIGHT SONGS

• HERE COMES CAROLINA

Here comes Carolina-lina
Here comes Carolina-lina
We hail from NCU.
We've got the spirit in it
We've got the team to win it
We wear the colors White and Blue –
So it's Fight! Fight! for Carolina
As Davie did in days of old.
As we gather 'round the 'Well
Cheer that Tar Heel team like hell –
For the glory of NCU.

• ALMA MATER

Hark the sound of Tar Heel voices
Ringing clear and true,
Singing Carolina's praises, Shouting "NCU."
(chorus)
Hail to the brightest star of all!
Clear its radiance shine
Carolina, priceless gem,
Receive all praises thine.
(refrain)
For I'm a Tar Heel born
I'm a Tar Heel bred,
And when I die I'm a Tar Heel dead.
So it's – Rah, Rah, Carolina-lina

Rah, Rah, Carolina-lina
Rah, Rah, Carolina!
Rah! Rah! Rah!

• CAROLINA VICTORY MARCH

There'll be a Carolina victory,
When cross that field the foe has fled.
Cheer that team to victory,
For we are Tar Heels born and bred.
Rah! Rah! Rah!
Glory, glory, UNC.
Our hearts will live with thee
Fight! Fight! Fight!
For the Blue & White are rolling to victory.
